GAMBLING A FELONY

BILL PASSES OLYMPIA SENATE AFTER HARD FIGHT.

Many Attempts Made to Defeat Measure by Adding Obnoxious Amendments—May be Reconsidered.
 Olympia, Wash., Feb. 28.—The house bill making it a felony to conduct any gambling game passed the senate Friday afternoon, and unless it is reconsidered within the next 48 hours, professional gamblers will be confronted with the alternative of going out of business or to the penitentiary.
 A big fight has been made to prevent the passage of this bill, and while it was loaded down with some pretty disagreeable amendments, which may jeopardize its usefulness, its passage was of sufficient consequence to throw great consternation into the ranks of the gamblers who have been here endeavoring to defeat the bill.

With them it is a fight for existence, and tonight there are rumors of a big sack coming down to Olympia to be used in an effort to defeat the bill when it comes up for reconsideration.
 The bill was amended by the senate in two important particulars. One amendment makes it a felony for any man to rent his property for gambling purposes, and the other makes the conducting of raffles a felony.
TWENTY-FIVE SEAMEN ACCEPT.
Naval Recruits at Spokane Not Very Numerous.
 Spokane, Feb. 28.—Lieutenant Miller, in charge of the United States naval recruiting station in this city, is highly pleased with the number of applications made for entrance into the naval service. Already 25 recruits have been accepted and judged.

HIS PARLORS JAMMED.
The Great Palmist Doing a Land Office Business.
 Professor Wallace is apparently having a carnival of his own in his parlors at the Columbia hotel, No. 634 Main street. So many were the engagements made to see the celebrated enigma this week that he was obliged to refuse any more applications until he learned definitely just how long he could remain. He looks into your palms and tells you more about yourself than you yourself know.
 He tells you what ails you and often times gives you back your health, your lost nerve, energy and power. He tells you whether or not you should make changes in your business matters, if you will be successful in your love affairs, if you will travel, if you will meet your obligations, and, in fact, he tells you the complete story of your life as told by the language of the hand. Prof. Wallace's stay is uncertain, but he is keeping the parlors open until 9 p. m., in order to accommodate the people. Yesterday he announced that he would give readings on Sunday from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.

General Booth's Tour Ended.
 New York, Feb. 28.—General William Booth, after having completed a tour of the greater part of the United States and Canada, has returned to New York preparatory to departing for home. As a fitting climax to his tour he has arranged to hold a monster farewell meeting in the Academy of Music tomorrow and another in the Metropolitan Opera House next Tuesday. Senator Hanna has accepted an invitation to preside over the meeting to be held in the Metropolitan Opera House.

The New York Metropolitan Museum of Art has received $500 of a donation which will in time aggregate $6,000,000, made by the late Jacob S. Rogers, the millionaire locomotive builder of Paterson, N. J.
