Mr. Nelson Returns and Will Double the Output of His Yard. B. Nelson, Weston's mayor, arrived home Saturday from his six weeks' visit in the East. Mr. Nelson came west over the Union Pacific on a train of 14 cars, the passenger coaches being filled with immigrants, which shows that the trend of travel in the same direction as the Star Empire, says the Weston Leader. Mr. Nelson comments upon the evidence of prosperity which he met everywhere while absent. Excellent business conditions seemed to prevail in all the cities visited. He stopped at Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, Columbus, Dayton and a number of smaller cities, all of which were growing and on the move.

Take Care of Your Horses. We always like to see a farmer of a horseman drive up to a hitching post these winter days. Jump out of the rig, unfold a big warm blanket and carefully cover his faithful horse. There is a big heart in that man. He is thinking of something else besides himself, and he takes as much pleasure in caring for his horse's comfort as for himself. On the other hand, it makes us sad to see a great big man, warmly clad, from head to foot, drive a steaming horse up to the rack, hastily tie him fast, leave him shivering, and make for the nearest hot stove. There is something wrong about this fellow. He may be a nice man, belong to church, may not swear, smoke nor have any bad habits, but he has no feelings for a dumb animal.—La Moure County Chronicle.

English as Written in Siam. Here is a piece of Siamese journalism that puts some of our contemporaries quite in the shade in the matter of word painting. It is an account of a shooting outrage and runs as follows:

"Shooting Outrage. O! Fearful Agony. Khooon Tong, one of Phya Song's staff, was on a mission to Lampon, and on his return instantly was shot dead by some miscreants, scoundrels. O! untimely death, O! fearful, O! Hell. All friends expressed their morn'. The cowardice dog is still at large. Six soldiers and six policemen were dispatched at once."
