G. E. Stocker, administrator of the estate of Jennie Stocker, has sold to D. Kemmler for $2,500, lots 1, 2, and 3, in block 4, in Raley's addition. The property lies on the north side, at the corner of Jackson and Bush streets.

C. R. Dutton will not run the Teel Springs resort, contrary to the general impression. For a time he expected to, but his contract with the owner of the property fell through.

To all members of Pendleton Camp No. 41, W. O. W. You are requested to attend a meeting of the camp Saturday night, as something of importance will take place. Refreshments will be served.

The funeral of Almon H. Smith will take place from the Methodist Episcopal church in this place tomorrow at 11 a. m., and will be conducted by Rev. Robert Warner. The interment will take place in the Olney cemetery.

If you need matting, wood fibre carpet, art squares, rugs, lace curtains, pictures, picture frames, wall paper, sewing machines or other articles in my stock, now is the time to invest. Everything must go. Jesse Failing.

Joseph G. Charters, representing the Brunswick, Balke, Collender Co., arrived in Pendleton on the Spokane train last evening. Mr. Charters will put the billiard tables of the Commercial Association in perfect shape for playing. It is expected that Mr. Charters, who has held the Pacific Northwest championship for amateur billiard playing, will play a match game with W. B. Jenkins, the librarian of the Commercial Association, who is also an expert with a cue. The games to be played this evening at the club rooms will no doubt attract considerable attention among the local talent.

PURCHASES ALTA HOUSE. F. A. Gordon Will Improve This Well Known Webb Street Property.

L. Neff has sold to F. A. Gordon for $6,500, lots 3 and 4, and lots 11, 12, 13 and 14, in block 69, in the reservation addition. The new purchaser takes possession March 15. This is the property best known as being the Alta house, on East Webb street. Mr. Gordon will personally oversee the affairs of the hotel, which will be conducted as heretofore. It is not yet determined positively who will be in immediate charge of the premises. Mr. Gordon will put considerable improvements upon the property, which he has purchased, which includes a feed stable and considerable vacant ground.
