ART EXHIBIT NOTES.

Art Lovers Listen to High-Class Criticism—Programs for the Closing Sessions.

The art exhibit continues to draw large crowds every afternoon and evening. Every lover of classic art was delighted yesterday afternoon with Mrs. C. S. Jackson's talk, which she chose to call "Recollections and Impressions of Original Paintings."

There are copies in the Turner exhibit of all the masterpieces which she studied while abroad. She discussed the famous picture, "The Horse Fair," by Rose Bonheur, though the Turner exhibit does not contain a copy, and she did not see it in Europe, but in New York.

As in the afternoon, the crowd in the evening was so great that many could find no place to sit. The program pleased everybody, and was really excellent. Especially should the part of "Little Bare Legs," by Thelma Thompson, be noted. It was encored repeatedly.

CATTLE FOR THE SOUND.

Twelve Carloads From Umatilla County Go to Coast Markets.

F. B. Ball has, during the past few days, purchased for the Seattle firm of Frye & Bruhn, and for the Sound markets, 12 carloads of as fine beefs—all 3-year-olds—as were ever raised in Umatilla county.

The purchases from Messrs. Ganger and Guederin were shipped from this point last night; the Thomson cattle will be shipped from Echo the 11th inst. Four and a quarter cents delivered were paid for all three lots.

Mr. Ball is inspecting several droves of cattle belonging to other cattlemen in the county. His judgment, based upon a five-year acquaintance and dealing with the cattle raisers of Umatilla county, is that there will not be any shortage of cattle in this county during the next year anyhow.

HAVE FOUND GRAVEL BED.

O. R. & N. Will Finish Work of Ballasting Track East of Huron.

After a long search, the O. R. & N. has found an immense gravel bed, which they will fully utilize the coming season in ballasting 100 miles of track from Huron, eastward, which they made preparations to ballast last season.

This gravel bed is in the channel of the Grande Ronde River, near La Grande, and from all appearances is inexhaustible.

Work on spurs and steam shovel tracks will begin soon and a busy season is ahead of the track department. Headquarters for the gravel trains will be kept at La Grande, where the facilities for handling the engines and trains are complete.
