SALE OF HIGHLAND STOCK.

First Allotment of 100,000 Shares Largely Oversubscribed.

Probably there never was a mining company in Eastern Oregon with equally brilliant financial success as that which attended the flotation of the Highland. Of course to Neil J. Sorenson & Co. is due the credit for this. The head of the firm which bears his name, Otto Herlocker and Frank Shelton have all worked intelligently and unitedly and deserve the success which has crowned their efforts. Naturally, the reputation which the firm has won by square dealings in the past was the predominating reason for such a pronounced success. Neil J. Sorenson & Co. have sold mining stock to hundreds of people throughout the country, sold it on the merits of the property without false representation, and have made money for their customers. These people are, therefore, still their customers, and are ever willing to risk their money on the judgment and intelligence and honesty of the firm.

This will leave a few thousand shares left after filling all orders received to date and those who wish to buy will have to act promptly, for this second allotment will surely soon be exhausted and then Highland stock will be advanced.—Sumpter Miner.

SHOT CAMP TENDER

JASPER GRIFFITH IN JAIL AT ONTARIO.

Had Trouble With John Roulston Over a Matter of Wages—Injured Man May Die.

Ontario, Ore., March 6.—A shooting affray occurred at Nyssa, nine miles from this place, late this afternoon. Jasper Griffith, a well known Idaho sheepman, shot and fatally injured his camp tender, John Roulston, about money matters. From what can be learned about the shooting from parties who were at Nyssa at the time, it seems that Roulston came to town from Griffith's camp and met his employer and was called to account for coming to Nyssa with a hay rack to receive corn to feed Griffith's flock, some seven thousand head.

Roulston told Griffith that the time had come to make a settlement, as he did not longer wish to be in his employ. Both left a saloon to repair to Emison's store to settle their wage difficulty, and before they reached the O. S. L. track Griffith shot Roulston in the right side.

The injured man was brought to Ontario and attended by Dr. Pogue. His family and father and mother arrived from Weiser this evening to be at his bedside.

Mr. Griffith came to this place and surrendered himself to Marshal Carol and has engaged Will R. King to defend him. On the advice of his attorney, Mr. Griffith will not discuss the matter relating to the shooting. His preliminary examination will occur tomorrow.

WILSON AND HERBERT.

Best Vaudeville Ever Seen in Pendleton, at the Frazer Last Night.

Those who witnessed the performance at the Frazer last night are unanimous in their praise of it. Vaudeville is practically new in this city and many people, accustomed to the old style performances, expected to witness a series of coarse jokes and songs.

In this they were most happily disappointed. It was a clean, keen, wholesome, ably acted performance in every detail. There was not a single lapse of the strictest moral tone. The singing, dancing, jokes and specialties were all good and clean.

The ventriloquism was the best that has ever appeared on the Pacific Coast and the Edison projectoscope views were excellent. The musical specialties were alone worth double the price of admission, as it is very seldom that such able and high class performance in this line, is seen here.

A matinee will be held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Frazer, and the regular performance will be given again tonight, with additions to and changes in the program.

Resolutions of Indignation.

The following resolution was sent by Idaho Labor Unions to Representative Owens, who opposed all labor bills in the legislature and whose remarks have been widely quoted:

"Whereas, The people of Idaho voted for an eight-hour law, and the republican legislature refused to enact the wishes of the people into law as expressed by the people, and

"Whereas, William Owens, representative from Bingham county, added insult to injury by stating that the less hours laboring men worked the more time they would spend in disipation, therefore be it

"Resolved, That Idaho Falls union, No. 330, recognizes in the republican party an enemy to organized labor; and further,

"Resolved, That we consider William Owens a lickspittle of plutocracy, and demand that he resign and retire to private life.

The Wrong Helen.

Everyone smiled when the sentimental young guest said: "I think the name Helen is the most attractive in all the world." It was a family dinner. The pretty waitress began to blush. "Not because all Helens are beautiful," continued the youth, "but I believe I could love any woman if she had no other attraction than the name Helen." By this time every one was laughing and the waitress, covering her blushing face, bolted toward the door. "What's the matter," stammered the young man. "The maid's name is Helen, that's all," replied the hostess.
