ON THE TUTUILLA

TEAM OF HORSES SELLS FOR FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

John Muir Has Plowing Contract for Several Hundred Acres North of Pendleton—Pioneer Bachelor Grows Weary and Will Wed—Thomas Jacques Purchases New Threshing Machine.

Tutuilla, March 7.—William Conley came down from Texas Ferry, Wash., where he has a plowing contract, this week.

John Crow sold a pair of horses to Seattle horse buyers this week, for $450.

William Yohnka, the silver-tongued auctioneer conducted today for M. H. Gillett a very successful auction sale of horses, wagons, harness and farm implements.

Al Vogel sold today to Charles Chapman, one pair of work horses for $300.

Ed Morehead, the well driller, has returned from a trip to Yakima county, Wash., where he owns some land under the Sunnyside irrigating ditch, which he was fortunate enough to purchase two years ago at $20 per acre, the ditch company has since raised the price of their land to $60 per acre and find ready purchasers.

Joseph Connelly, who is up from his sheep ranges this week, reports lambing already commenced, 400 of the woolly strangers having arrived in his band in the midst of the snow-storm of this week.

T. D. Mathews, is up from Butter creek looking for men to help his lamb harvest, which is expected to commence next week.

Thomas Jacques has purchased a threshing machine for work in the Tutuilla neighborhood this harvest.

The snow has once more disappeared except on the hills and seeding operations which were broken short of last Wednesday bid fair to recommence on Monday.

G. O. Miller purchased a pair of horses at today's auction sale for $175. John Muir has secured a plowing contract of several hundred acres northwest of Pendleton.

James Roach, of the firm of Roach Bros., is down from Cabbage hill, where his band of 200 head of cattle has wintered in good shape.

Lon Brown is seriously ill and had to go to Pendleton for medical treatment this week.

Mrs. George Case is out from Pendleton visiting Mrs. Joseph Holmes.

John Duncan, a pioneer of the Stage Gulch country, who helped harvest the first crops of Irish Dividends raised on Prospect farm, is up from that country today. Mr. Duncan reports that one of his neighbors' a battle-scarred veteran of the Ancient Order of Bachelors, is about to become a Benedict.

ATHENA NOTES.

Samuel Booher Bitten by a Savage Dog—Another Snowfall Sunday.

Athena, March 8.—Samuel Booher was bitten a few days ago by an ugly dog owned by John Froome, proprietor of the St. Nicholas hotel. As a result, Mr. Booher has a very painful wound, which has not a very prospective tendency. He had the pleasure of shooting the savage brute.

T. J. Kirk is said to be improving, yet not able to be around.

B. F. Ogle is improving rapidly now and is able to be around again.

The snow of Tuesday had disappeared and it was drying nicely so the farmers could soon have gone to work, but it gave us another inch of the white mantle Sunday, with a blustery day.

Fred Rosenwieg, the retired merchant and his son, Harry, have gone to their Franklin county farm by team to proceed in improving the same.

G. W. Bradley, who has been having quite a siege of grip this week, is now improving.

Frank Mansfield remains about the same.

The passenger from Pendleton has been unusually late as a general rule.

"SCISSORS BILL" INSANE.

Slayer of John Cross is Now at Salem.

William Dykeman, better known here and through the northern country as "Scissors Bill," was brought into Burns, Ore., from one of the Pacific Livestock Company's ranches several days ago for examination as to his mental condition. The board pronounced him insane and he was taken to the asylum at Salem.

Dykeman is the man who killed John Cross, a vaquero well known here in Starr Valley, Malheur county and Idaho, three years ago. The killing was the result of a feud of several years' standing between the men. Dykeman was acquitted when tried, but the affair is said to have affected his mind and caused him to go insane.—Winnemucca Standard.

Sisters' School for Heppner.

Arrangements are now under way for the establishment of a Sisters' school in this city. Funds are being solicited for the enterprise. Heppner would be a good location for a school of this kind. There would be enough patronage to maintain a good school which would be a help to the community.—Heppner Gazette.

Henry O. R. Selfert, superintendent of the Milwaukee, Wis., public schools, want all teachers of his city to know and be able to speak the German language.
