A. P. Newquist has just finished a new residence on his farm, 10 miles southwest of the city. W. A. Morse was the contractor. Mr. Newquist is also building a lot of new fencing and gates. He reports stock and crops as all in excellent condition.

There is no winter wheat in the Stage Gulch country that has been in the least injured by the freezing, so M. J. Foster, who has in 600 acres, states. In fact, winter wheat is looking better than it did a year ago at a corresponding stage of growth.

M. O. LaHue, of South Cold Springs, has in 430 acres of winter wheat, every acre of which is looking finely. The talk about the winter wheat being killed out by the alternating freezes and thaws proves to have been all scare. The livestock is all in fine condition.

John Hagen, who has in 1,000 acres of winter wheat, six miles north of town, reports every acre of it as looking finely, as does all the rest of the winter wheat in that neighborhood. It is in every respect in as good condition as the winter wheat was a year ago. The fruit trees are also in fine condition in every respect in that neighborhood.

Every town has a leading store. The St. Joe leads in Pendleton. Mr. Harris, who lives 12 miles southwest of the city, has sold his farm.

Charles Cunningham has commenced shearing some of his fine bred ewes.

Al McCarty, of Stage Gulch, has 1,000 acres of winter wheat that is looking finely.

The prettiest line of men's shirts ever shown in Pendleton. Just received at the St. Joe.

John and David Duncan, of Stage Gulch, report that their 500 acres of winter wheat is all looking finely.

Virgil Moore, of Despain Canyon, has 500 acres of winter wheat and every acre of it is looking finely.

George and Andrew Pebler, of Stage Gulch, have in 1,300 acres of winter wheat, and all of it is looking finely.

Clay Brandstedter, of Stage Gulch, who has in 900 acres of winter wheat, reports that all of it is looking finely.

C. L. Hastings has his new residence on West Alta street, well under way. Irving Ladow is the contractor.

A marriage license was issued Saturday last to Ung Dog Goeys and Ol Sen, both Chinese, and residents of Pendleton.

Just received a large stock of fine custom clothing from the R. Kuppenheim Co. You know this house leads them all for style, fit and workmanship. The St. Joe.

Attention Knights. Damon Lodge, No. 4, K. of P. will have work in the second rank this evening. All knights are requested to be present. W. J. Keyes, C. C. R. W. Fletcher, R. and S.

M. Wyrick, of Stage Gulch, has in 1,800 acres of winter wheat, and it is all looking finely. He will soon begin plowing 2,600 acres for summer fallow. All livestock is in fine condition.

A. Bryant, of Stage Gulch, was in the city Saturday last. Mr. Bryant has in 160 acres of winter wheat, all of which is in fine condition. There is no trace of winter-kill anywhere in that country.

C. E. Marks, of Stage Gulch, who bought the Himebaugh place, on South Cold Springs, is moving upon it. He paid $10,000 for 640 acres, and retains possession of his place in Stage Gulch.

Isaac Hagen, who has been wintering 250 head of cattle on the ranch of his brother, Louis Hagen, six miles north of the city, will take them into the mountains for summer pasturing, April 1.

S. C. Bittner, a reservation farmer living 10 miles southeast of the city, reports the crops all looking finely and livestock in good condition. The last snow was of great benefit to the winter wheat.

Committee Meeting.
