WHO ARE COMING

A. L. CRAIG TALKS ON IMMIGRATION STATISTICS.

Few Foreigners Coming to Oregon the Great Number of Homeseekers—Americans Should Know More of Their Native Land and Can Develop It Faster.

"The homeseekers who are landing every day in the city of Portland and who are being distributed throughout Oregon by the railroad companies now operating under the reduced-rate agreement, are about 99 per cent native Americans and all desirable citizens," says A. L. Craig, of the O. R. & N., to the Oregon Daily Journal.

"During the year 1901 there were but 528 foreigners who landed at Castle Garden en route for Oregon," said Mr. Craig, "and of this number 500 were over 12 years of age. When it is taken into consideration that the total immigration for that year through the port of New York was 412,416 persons, it will be readily understood that Oregon's percentage of the foreigners coming into America is indeed a small one."

"During 1902 the number landing at New York and heading for Oregon was 959, and of these 888 were more than 12 years of age. The total foreign immigration of human beings at New York for that year was 551,569."

Mr. Craig then went on to show that the immigration into Oregon had been numbered high among the thousands and that, as the above figures show it was not the foreigner who came, those who did come must have been American people.

Americans Are Best.

"I made the statement to The Journal some time ago," said Mr. Craig, "that by far the largest majority of those coming West are just the kind of people this country most needs. The figures I am now able to give prove my former statement to have been correct."

"I do not mean by this that the foreigner would not make a good citizen nor that foreigners are not good people in many ways. That is far from the fact. Foreigners in a great deal more cases than not develop into thrifty, painstaking and thoroughly reliable and trustworthy Americans. But they are not of the class that tends to at once develop the latent resources of the Northwest. It will at once be seen that the American can quickest grasp the necessities of this Western country. It is the American who can make his wants known, it is the American who knows what he wants before he tries to ask for it, and it is the American who, while he may not have any greater amount of energy than his foreign rival, knows better how to apply that energy in order to make it count. This is nothing against the foreigner—for why should not the American know more about his own country?"

VACCINATION AND DANDRUFF.

There is as Sure Prevention for Baldness as There is of Smallpox.

It is now accepted that vaccination renders the vaccinated person exempt from smallpox; or at worst, he never has anything but the lightest kind of a case. Now as sure a preventive and cure for dandruff, which causes falling hair and baldness, has been discovered—Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ. C. H. Reed, Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife have been troubled with dandruff and falling hair for several years. We tried remedies without effect until we used Newbro's Herpicide, two bottles of which cured us." Hundreds of similar testimonials. Sold by F. W. Schmidt & Co. COLLAR BUTTON KILLED HIM.

Peculiar Cause of Death of Wrestler George Cooper During a Contest.

New York, March 10.—After completing the autopsy on the body of George R. Cooper, whose neck was broken while wrestling with Frank Wagner, at Turnverein hall in this city Friday night, Coroner's Physician Charles Wuerst said death was the result of a most unusual accident. Wagner had partially thrown Cooper, who suddenly lost his balance and fell off the mat, striking the floor on the back of his neck. His long-shanked collar button struck the side of the spinal column at its tenderest place, causing the fracture.

Mississippi Woodmen.

Meridian, Miss., March 10.—Three hundred delegates representing all parts of the state, are attending the annual meeting of the Mississippi head camp of the Woodmen of the World, which began here today and will continue until the end of the week. Reports to be presented to the convention show that the order in this state is in a most flourishing condition, as regards both numbers and finances. The order now has more than 12,000 members in the state and the extraordinary number of 232 camps were organized during the past 12 months.

Safely Hived.

Were I a honey bee today, Mine were a pleasure deep; All winter long they'd keep away And kindly let me sleep.

THE STORE THAT

SAVES YOU MONEY.

Had Heard of It.

Congressman Champ Clark, of Missouri, has a very bright and precocious son named Bennett, who is about 12 years of age. The boy, like many other sons of members of the house, is apt to be on the floor when it is announced that his father will speak. One day Champ Clark made a set speech, and it was quite a creditable effort, winning for him praise from both sides of the house. But Bennett wasn't there that day. The next time he showed up he was asked to explain his absence. "Oh, pshaw," replied the lad, "I heard that speech no less than three times when mamma was teaching it to him at home. What did I want to hear it again for?" All of which goes to show that statesmen will occasionally rehearse at home.—Washington Letter.
