Beautiful hair makes Beautiful Women
BRO'S HERPICIDE MAKES BEAUTIFUL HAIR, because it destroys the deadly microbe that works at the hair roots, thus making the hair fall out, and promoting a thick, luxuriant growth of hair, increasing the hair's growth fully 100 per cent.
It also cures your father, brother, husband's sweetest of any scalp affection they have, even baldness, for it works upon the baldest parts. Use it, then you will surely recommend it.

There were six conversions last night at the Christian church, making a total of 64 during the present meetings. The subject for the sermon tonight will be "If Christ Came to Pendleton." If you need matting, wood fibre carpet, art squares, rugs, lace curtains, pictures, picture frames, wall paper, sewing machines or other articles in my stock, now is the time to invest. Everything must go. Jesse Falling.

C. P. Koontz, of Little McKay Creek, reports all the livestock well, but thin, on account of the protracted season of feeding and scarcity of forage. Permanently open and warm weather will be very acceptable now to all the stockmen in that part of the county. There will start from Lewiston, Me., Sunday next, six carloads of excursionists to Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Among these people will be a number of relatives of Pendleton people and a large number of them who do not have relatives in this vicinity are well known to parties here.

PROSSER BUSINESS MAN HERE.

C. W. Nessler Spends the Day in Pendleton En Route to His Old Home in La Grande. C. W. Nessler, formerly an extensive farmer and fruitgrower of La Grande, but at present engaged in the real estate business in the thriving town of Prosser, Wash., arrived in Pendleton today over the W. & C. R. Mr. Nessler is president and general manager of the Nessler-Scott Investment Company, of Prosser, and is now interesting settlers in that locality.

He is enthusiastic over the prospects there and feels confident that the productive lands of that section will be converted into farms during the coming season. He leaves for La Grande tonight, where he will remain a few days in the interest of his enterprise.

Adjudged Insane. Mrs. Margaret Flock, of Weston, was last evening adjudged insane, and committed to the state insane asylum. Mrs. Flock is a widow, aged 65 years, and has been more or less demented for the past two years. Her dementia takes a homicidal turn at times and it was thought best that she be restrained. This was her first commitment. The cause of her mental unbalance was found to be religious excitement.

Breakdown on W. & C. R.

The morning train into Pendleton over the W. & C. R. broke down yesterday morning about half way from Helix to this city. The injured part was a broken eccentric on the engine. The damage was not great, but resulted in several hours' delay. By telegraphing another engine was secured from Walla Walla and the train arrived at Pendleton about 3:30 p. m.

They Want Fish.

There is every indication that there will be a very large attendance at the Sportsmen's Association meeting on the 21st. Mr. Krause receives daily much correspondence in relation to the meeting, from all over the eastern part of Oregon. Nearly every letter contains an appeal for fish.

Divorces Granted.

Two divorces have been granted by Judge Ellis as follows: Myrtle J. Hemphill from Alfred C. Hemphill, with the care and custody of the 18-month-old child, and an alimony of $400. Also Lizzie Pease from Arthur Pease.

Will Wire New Hospital.

Maple Bros., were yesterday awarded the contract for wiring the new Sisters' hospital for electric lights, bells and inter-communicating telephones. This is the largest contract ever given in Pendleton for wiring a building.

Dr. Smith Honored.

Dr. C. J. Smith received his commission from Governor Chamberlain this morning, making him one of the five members of the state board of health. Dr. Smith is the only Eastern Oregon member of the board.

Constructing a Cistern.

A. B. Cooley today sent two six-horse wagon loads of iron piping to his farm, 13 miles north of Pendleton. He is constructing a large cistern on the place for stock watering purposes.

To Asylum.

Mrs. Flock, the aged woman from Weston, who was adjudged insane yesterday evening, was taken to the asylum today by D. Turner and wife.

Chaney-Calluns.

John W. Chaney and Mrs. Ruth Calluns were married March 9 by Judge Fitz Gerald at the Columbia lodging house.
