California Olive Oil

We have just received a fresh supply of California Olive Oil. We get this from the growers in Southern California. This Oil is absolutely pure and you can prove this to your own satisfaction if you will notice its perceptible olive flavor. It tastes just as the olives do. It is not adulterated with anything and it is not found in any oil which has been adulterated to any considerable extent, because cottonseed oil and other adulterants are practically tasteless.

75c PINT OR $1.25 FULL QUART BOTTLES

Use Olive Oil for every kind of frying or wherever you use butter. Most people, no doubt, consider Olive Oil too expensive for ordinary use, but it is not, as a quart of oil is equal to about two pounds of butter. We shall be pleased to show you our oil.

William Harder, of Dry Creek, will build a large barn this spring. G. F. Williams has the contract.

Drs. Smith and Ringo have begun a general overhauling of their office, and will include repainting, repapering and recarpeting.

Mr. Cockburn, a farmer living east of Milton, will build a residence this spring on his ranch. Rulaford & Putnam have the contract.

John H. Hagen, who lives six miles north of the city, will enlarge his residence and build upon it new porches and repaint the entire structure. Mr. Hagen reports all crops fine and the soil in the finest condition. This includes the 800 acres of winter wheat he has sown. He is about to sow 300 acres more of wheat.

The furniture dealers report uncommonly large sales of furniture for some time past. Especially was this true of the entire month of February, which is usually the duller month in the year in the furniture trade. There could hardly be a surer index of the finances of the people than the disposition to buy house furnishings.

Coal Mine Promoter Returns.

S. Andrew Hartman, representative of the Western Coal and Iron Company, of Tacoma, arrived in the city today after a week's visit at Baker City and La Grande, in the interest of the company. Mr. Hartman succeeded in placing his property with several of the heavy capitalists of that city and feels highly encouraged with his prospects there. He goes to Walla Walla this evening.

"Lovers' Lane."

A fair audience greeted "Lovers' Lane" at the Frazer last night. The comedy deserved a much better house as it was replete with genuine mirth-provoking situations. It will be gladly welcomed by lovers of good comedy, should the play come to Pendleton again.
