

SEA GIVES UP RICHES FROM LONG-SUNKEN VESSEL.

Forty Years Ago the Sidewheeler Was Burned at Sea, and All Aboard Per- an undertaking ished.

San Francisco, Cal., March 20 .-Among the passengers on the steamer Newport, which arrived from South and Central American ports Wednes-day, was Captain E. W. Johnstone Causes Religious War in Fiji-Isand a party of treasure-hunters, which left here last November in the hope of locating the wrecks of the side-wheel steamer Golden Gate, which was burned to the water's edge off the Mexican coast in 1862.

The Golden Gate carried much treasure in her strongroom, and her passengers individually were credited with having immense sums of money in their possession, the result of lucky strikes in the California gold fields.

The Golden Gate was bound from this city for Panama, and was in collision with an Atlantic liner at Panama. She took fire at sea and was sunk, all on board losing their lives. After 40 years, Johnstone's expedition is one of the many determined to search for and if possible, secure the Golden Gate's treasure. Captain Johnstone reports that the efforts of the expedition met with success; that the vessel, submerged in 80 feet of water, has been located, and the treasure, or some of it found,

He exhibits many sea-corroded and partly melted gold coins, in proof of his assertion that the treasure has been located, and returns to this city to obtain appliances for recovering the gold that he feels assured is in the bulk of the lost Golden Gate.

Astoria, Ore., March 20 .--- W. O. Hemlow, of this city, has been experimenting with the canning of cardines caught in the Columbia river, and re cently sent a sample can to the United States commission of fish and fisheries for inspection. Lately he received a letter from Commisioner Bowers, which highly commends the products. The letter follows:

"Washington, March 11 .- Mr. W. O. Hemlow, Astoria, Ore .- Dear Sir: Your letter of the 26th ult., and the sample can of sardines which you kindly sent for examination have been received

"The sample has been examined by a number of persons in this commis sion, and they agree in stating that have put up a very satisfactory article. They regard it as equal in flavor to the best American production. In the opinion of some, it is in some respects better than any other American product they had examined. "The fish seemed to have been packed with care and the oil of good composition, though perhaps not quite sufficient in quantity. The opinion was expressed that your sample was hardly equal to the best French pro-It would seem that a profitable duct. sardine industry could be built up on the West coast, and I see no reason why you should not succeed in such
