"THE MESSIAH."

Swedish College at Lindsborg, Kas. Prepares for Annual Musical Festival.

Lindsborg, Kas., April 1.—The one cherished day for the Swedish colony of 3,500 families living in and about this place is Easter, and the chief glory thereof is "The Messiah." This great musical festival out on the prairies, which will continue through the whole of next week, will bring together thousands of people from all parts of Kansas and from Nebraska, Minnesota and other states where Swedish colonies exist.

The Lindsborg colony was founded in 1869, and with it Bethany college. In 1879 Dr. Olaf Olsen visited London and heard "The Messiah," and he at once planned to have it produced at Now the week preceding Easter each year marks the greatest mus-ical festival in all the West. Five hundred men and women are in the The chapel choir numbers 20 voices, male chorus 60, the ladies chorus 50, the orchestra has 50 instruments and the band 30. The chowned military band of Fort Riley is expected to take part in one f the concerts this year. The men of the chorus appear in black, the maids in pink and white, the costumes making vivid contrasts.
