SOCIALISTS ACTIVE TAKE

PLACE CANDIDATE IN FIELD FOR CONGRESS.

Met in Salem Last Friday and Nominated John W. Ingle-Adopt Platform of Principles,

The socialists of the first congressional district of Oregon met Friday. April 3, at Salem and decided upon sional district of Oregon met Friday.
April 3, at Salem and decided upon a candidate to enter the race. John W. Ingle of Carvallis, was nominated with little opposition. The following platform was adopted:
"We affirm our unfaltering adherence to principle, and the program of international socialism by the ballot.
"In presenting our candidate for congress to the working class voters congress to the working class voters of the First Congressional district we base our appeal upon the following declarations as our platform of prin-"1.-Labor produces wealth,

"2.—Under the present economic and political conditions, labor's share in the wealth which it creates is merely a mean and uncertain subsist-"3-So long as the present organization of industry remains the capitalist class will monopolize the machinery of production and will appropriate through the wage system the wealth created by the working class. "4-This appropriation of labor's wealth by the capitalist is so complete that it enables them to live in luxury and idleness. "5-As a necessary consequence of this exploitation of the laborers by the capitalists—this expropriation of all property out of the hands of the tollers into private ownership of the holders of capital, there is an inevita-

"6-This class struggle between the wealth-makers and the wealthent system of production for profit continues. . "7.-In this conflict between the workers and the capitalists, labor is disarmed on the economic side, all the instruments of producing and distributing wealth being owned and con-trolled by the holders of capital.

"8.—There is only one weapon with which the working class can successfully oppose the capitalistic systemand that is the ballot.

"9.-This fact demands as an inevitable conclusion the organization of the working class into a political par ty that shall be, everywhere and always, distinct from and opposed to every political party not founded entirely upon the interests of the working class. The socialist party is or-ganized to meet the demand, and is, therefore, the party of the working

"10.—The socialist party, when in office, shall always and everywhere, until the present system of wage-slavery is utterly abolished, make the answer to this question its guiding rule of conduct: Will this legislation advance the interests of the working class and aid the workers in their struggle against capitalism? If it does the socialist party is for it; if it does not, the socialist party is obsolutely opposed to it.

"11.—That we emphatically and for the course and combine the idea.

ever oppose and condemn the idea of fusion with either of the old par-ties, or any other party, and believe in standing out independently and fighting our battles on the line of so-

"12.-In conclusion we appeal to all workingmen to study the principles of socialism, to vote with their class at all elections until they overthrow the power of capitalism, abolish industrial classes in society, termin-ate forever the class struggle and inaugurate the co-operative common-wealth based upon this fundamental principle of justice. To every worker the full product of his labor."

John W. Ingle, socialist candidate a delegate to the last national convention as a populist. He was born in Illinois, December 10, 1849, and came to Oregon in 1862. He lived in Eastern Oregon 15 years. He received hi seducation at Philomath College, in Benton county, after which he taught school several years. He served in the legislature two years from Umatilla county, being elected as the democratic candidate. He as the democratic candidate. He then conducted a warehouse in Dayton. Oregon for four years, and a gen-eral merchandise store in Philomath, Or., for the same period. He now owns a good farm two and a half miles from Corvailis

GREAT STRIKE PROBABLE.

New England Textile Workers Theat-

en to Go Out En Masse. Boston, Mass., April 7.—Unless a settlement is speedily reached the present week will see the inauguration of the greatest textile strike ever attempted in New England. It will involve thousands of operatives in the mills of Lowell, New Bedford, Taunton and other centers of the tex-tile industry where the 10 per cent increase in wages was not granted last

The local unions in this city have already voted to strike, but the final decision rests with the National Mule Spinners' Association, which began a meeting here today. The United Tex-tile Workers, supported by the spin-ners, which is the wealthiest labor union in America, feels that it is in a position to wage a fight to a finish with the mill owners.

The strike once started would in all probability spread throughout New England and develop into one of the flercest labor contests that has ever taken place in this section
