ENTERTAINMENT AT M. E. CHURCH A GREAT SUCCESS

W. V. Sackett, of Portland, to Engage in the Poultry Business on an Extensive Scale—Wool Clip Very Short—Several New Owners.

Echo, April 10.—Hon. George H. Stevenson, of Tacoma, Wash., was looking over the country here yesterday with the view of getting an alfalfa farm. He expressed himself as well pleased with the country and said he would likely invest.

Dr. C. J. Smith reports the arrival of a bouncing baby girl at the home of Charles Bartholomew, last night.

W. V. Sackett, of Portland, who has been spending several days looking over the country here, has returned home. He says that he will return within a few weeks for the purpose of engaging in the poultry business on an extensive scale. His idea is to furnish flesh for his poultry from the native jack rabbit. He thinks that the climate here being warm and the soil dry and sandy makes it an ideal place for a poultry business. There seems to be many reasons why such an enterprise, properly managed, would be a great success.

Echo now has a saloon running full blast, which seems to be doing a thriving business.

The entertainment given by Mrs. Charles Miller, for the benefit of the M. E. church, was a success financially and socially. The proceeds was nearly $30 and the program a delightful one. Mrs. Miller and Mr. Stansbury's singing and Mr. Greene and Rev. Jinnett's readings being heartily enjoyed, each of which was responded to in a delightful manner. The program was well rendered throughout and showed talent seldom found in so small a town. Mr. Chas. Miller, as pianist, and Mrs. Miller as a mezzo soprano, are seldom equaled. Rev. Jinnett's interpretation of a lightning rod dispenser, was well done.

The Echo Land and Lumber Company is selling lumber very rapidly, which shows that the farmers are making material improvements.

W. H. Gulliford has a force of men at work clipping his crop of wool. He says that the clip will be light this spring, but that the high price will likely make it an average return. The short clip and the consumption of public pasture is a strong argument that the grade will have to be raised and the number of sheep diminished.

Makes a Clean Sweep.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the salves you ever heard of, Bucklin's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures burns, sores, bruises, cuts, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by Tallman & Co., druggists.

Weston News.

Milton supports Columbia College in a liberal manner. Several of its leading citizens have donated $500 each. An endowment fund of $10,000 is desired, and Rev. G. H. Gibbs has secured $7,000, $2,000 of which was subscribed by church boards and the balance by Milton people.

R. F. Johnson of Fairview Farm, left hurriedly Monday for Washougal, Wash., in response to a message from his brother, who resides at Astoria, that his aged mother is critically ill.

A. M. Gillis has purchased 80 acres of timber land from O. A. Hendley near Briggson, making 480 acres of fine timber he now owns in a body. It is reported that the Athena lumber merchant intends starting a saw-mill on this tract.

G. DeGraw has purchased the Green ranch on Wild Horse Creek from C. W. Courtney, to be used in pasturing his stock. It is conveniently located for the purpose, being only three miles distant from Mr. DeGraw's fine farm of three-quarter sections south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. King have had the satisfaction of installing at their new house on Water street the first "free water" that has flowed under ordinance No. 122. The new four-inch mains are now being laid down Broad and Franklin streets, and the new houses on Normal Heights will soon be piped for free water.—Weston Leader.

TASTEFUL DECORATION.

W. H. Holley Makes Most Artistic Display in Window of Alexander's Store.

A work of art is to be seen in the window of the dry goods department of the Alexander Department store. The design is the handiwork of W. H. Holley. Eight fluted pillars supporting four arches, the whole representing the entrance to a Greek temple. There is nothing gaudy or far-fetched about either the design or its execution. The whole thing is in excellent taste, the color relief being very simple but effective.

The pillars and most of the superstructure represent white marble, with the exception of the relief effect, which represents carvings from a brownish red marble that is one of the rarest productions of Italian quarries. The whole design is some 10 feet in height. It is very seldom that even a town the size of Portland has as pretty a window as this.

Annual Banquet.

The annual banquet given by the students of Pendleton Academy to the faculty will this year take place the evening of April 24. It will be given in the Academy this year. Heretofore it has been given in some hall, but the Academy building affords suitable room for it.
