SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1903

There are some manners and customs that belong to human nature, and will always be found everywhere. It is said of us or that custom that it is Greek, Roman, or barbarous; or my part, I say that it is human, and that men contrive and invent it wherever the need for arises.—Joubert.

HARRISON'S VICTORY.

After Harrison has been elected for Chicago for the fourth time. His victory this time, even more pronounced than at any previous election, is a victory for municipal ownership of certain public enterprises.

It may be a barren victory, as the city legislature has constantly refused to grant the requisite power to the city of Chicago to issue the necessary bonds and to take other steps to carry over the management of the public enterprises desired. It is in the face of the fact that a referendum vote of the people, which without any effect excepting to show how the people feel on the subject, carried by an overwhelming majority some two years ago. It is the fact that Mayor Harrison has for municipal ownership and that he is powerless to secure it. It is brought about a singular state of affairs especially in the street car service of the city. The franchises of the street car companies expire within a few months and for the past two years the companies have refused to make any improvements or to add their facilities, upon the ground that with Harrison as mayor, backed by public opinion in favor of municipal ownership, the franchises would be renewed.

For this reason the service has been entirely inadequate. Just what the outcome will be is hard to determine. Harrison will not extend the franchises and it looks as though they would be forced to operate the same. A matter of such vast financial proportions will sooner or later get to the courts. Municipal ownership is Chicago's pending question. If it is to be adopted it is to be hoped that it will be done while its friends are in power.

Let Oregon schools teach and demand more independent thought and reliance. It is bad policy and of little benefit to education that our young men and women are made over from second-hand thought and not imbued with an ambition to be original in all they say and do. This is the basis upon which real genius is founded and the world never hears much of the second-hand man or woman. This thing of young men being ousted onto the people as winners of oratorical contests upon borrowed laurels of others is a disparagement of education in Oregon that will keep the standard down to mere mediocrity. Let us have an awakening along this line. There may be nothing new under the sun, but because of that fact we need not develop into the stale, flat and unprofitable.

The Huntington Herald does not believe in mining words very much, while stating a plain fact. It says in regard to the portage road: "After Eastern Oregon has worked for years for an open Columbia River and has at last succeeded in having the legislature appropriate money for a portage railway, a few disgruntled people in Baker City, who are known to be boodlers, are endeavoring to defeat the meritorious measures by having petitions circulated to invoke the referendum. It would be interesting to know how much railroad money these grafters are getting."

The new law concerning divorces will make it more difficult to obtain, divorces in California than formerly. Heretofore "extreme cruelty," which was cause sufficient for granting a divorce, included "mental anguish." The new law defines extreme cruelty as "grievous bodily injury of husband and wife by the other." In the debate on the passage of the bill Assemblyman Fisk said that California, with 1,400,000 population, has 8,385 divorces. The only state with more is New York, with 7,268,000 population and 9,727 divorces. No wonder it is charged with being the rottenest state socially in the Union.

Those people who complain that the negro does not get fair treatment South, should read the statement of the colored president of a Virginia negro college, made in a public address at Chicago recently. He certainly talks quite sensibly: "The solution of the negro problem lies with the negro himself. It can be brought about by his acquiring land, saving money and educating his sons. There is nothing in the cry about social equality. The negro does not want it and does not expect it."

TWO EASTER SONNETS.

Thorn Crowned.
Nailed to the cross, in agony and shame,
Reviled and cursed and spit upon,
Thorn crowned,
The blood-stained sweat of anguish most profound
Upon His brow, Christ suffered for our blame,
To gain for us forgiveness through His name.
O'er all the scene is darkness, those around
Their dying Lord are silent. Now the ground
Convulsive shudders and doth thus proclaim
Earth's grief and woe. The tragedy is o'er.
The risen side gives forth, as mingled flood
That was to grace might have an open door.
And pardon free, thro' his atoning blood.
Shall we reject the one by Heaven adored?
Shall we renege our risen Lord?

The Christ Child.
Within her arms, close nestled to her breast,
The King of Heaven, God's earth-born son,
Doth sleep.
Cuspoken prayers from Mary's heart
To God, the while close to her heart is prest
Her sleeping babe. "Be with him,
Father, lest
Shame and reproach be His. Thou Lord can't keep Sin, death and sorrow from my child.
Plant deep
Within his heart the strength to meet
Of man's injustice, scorn and hate."
As then
So now, O mothers! in your arms you hold
God's gift of love, a soul unstained
As when
It comes from God. 'Tis yours to shape and mould.
'Tis yours to make or mar. God grant to you
That to this sacred trust you may prove true.

FRED LOCKLEY, JR.

CLUB WOMEN ASSAILED.

Elbert Hubbard, the head of the Roycroft establishment, the author, lecturer and critic, stated in last Sunday's Inter-Ocean that the Chicago "smart set" is composed of conspicuous wasters whose lives are devoted to "vacuity and futility." He declared that the work of members of women's clubs is "all a kind of playing to the gallery gods of their own self-esteem," and that the "effort of these women to engraft the 'beautiful life' upon the poor is a nuisance

—a bit of self-conceit gone to seed." The charges made by "Fra Elbertus" have created a furor, and many champions of woman and her work have come forward with answers to his criticisms. Some of these replies agree with Mr. Hubbard on some points, but vigorously disagree with him on others.

Mrs. Walter C. Nelson, in reply to Mr. Hubbard's article, says: "There is a very trite saying which Mr. Hubbard apparently has forgotten—people who live in glass houses should not throw stones. He evidently has also transmuted the admonition 'Judge not others, that ye be not judged' into 'If ye be judged, judge others.' He is not in a position to criticize the family and social life of other persons. I have been to East Aurora, N. Y., and have great admiration for the Roycroft establishment and the work which Mr. Hubbard has accomplished, but there is another side to his life which is entirely opposite to admirable."

The club woman is the best home woman on earth. She makes the best wife, the best mother and the best sister. Her home is the best home and her ideals are usually practical and at the same time womanly. The woman's club is an outgrowth of the church socials and the juvenile societies. With such a source, how can it help being primarily good. The club makes the homes of its members better and it also furnishes a place where women can meet and exchange ideas.

There is a distinction of which Mr. Hubbard is apparently unaware between the society woman and the club woman. The society woman is too fond of luxuries and pleasure to find a place in an active woman's club. The club woman has as severe a task as a teacher in the public schools. She must start as early every day and attend to work as rigorously as the teacher or she will fail to accomplish her purpose.—Chicago Tribune.

The stockholders of the Joseph LaDue Gold Mining & Development company Wednesday voted to disincorporate in New Jersey and reincorporate in South Dakota. They will thereby save about $4000 a year.

A jury Wednesday at Warrensburg, Mo., found Robert Miller guilty of assisting Grant Woodward, a convicted jury briber, to escape and fixed his punishment at a fine of $500 and a year's imprisonment.

The Republic Iron & Steel company will start up its rolling mill at Springfield, Ill., May 15. The mills give employment to about 800 men.

Governor Yates, of Illinois, urges the state assembly to appropriate $250,000 to mark positions of Illinois troops at the siege of Vicksburg.

The concluding sale in New York of the library of the late Peter Marie brought $22,817, making $34,828 for the two days' sales.

Uncommon Colds.

"It is just a common cold," people say, "there's no danger in that." Admitting their statement, then there are uncommon colds, colds which are dangerous, for many a fatal sickness begins with a cold. If we could tell the common cold from the uncommon we could feel quite safe. But we can't. The uncommon variety is rarely recognized until it has fastened its hold on the lungs, and there are symptoms of consumption.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, "weak" lungs and other diseases of the organs of respiration. It increases the supply of pure, rich blood and builds up the emaciated body.

"I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Hay of Norcross, Jefferson Co., Kansas. "After trying medicines labeled 'sure Cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured. When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cough I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved. That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

If you ask your dealer for "Golden Medical Discovery" because you have confidence in its cures, do not allow yourself to be switched off to a medicine claimed to be "just as good," but which you did not ask for and of which you know nothing.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

CONGRESSMAN WILBER SAYS

[To The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., of Columbus, O.]

"Pe-ru-na is All You Claim For It."

Congressman D. F. Wilber, of Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio; Gentlemen—Persuaded by a friend I have tried your remedy and I have almost fully recovered after the use of a few bottles. I am fully convinced that Peruna is all you claim for it, and I cheerfully recommend your medicine to all who are afflicted with catarrhal trouble."—David F. Wilber.

Peruna a Preventive and Cure for Colds. Mr. C. F. Given, Sussex, N. B., Vice President of "The Past-time Boating Club," writes:

"Whenever the cold weather sets in I have for years past been very sure to catch a severe cold which was hard to throw off, and which would leave after-effects on my constitution the most of the winter.

"Last winter I was advised to try Peruna, and within five days the cold was broken up and in five days more I was a well man. I recommended it to several of my friends and all speak the highest praise for it. There is nothing like Peruna for catarrhal affections. It is well nigh infallible as a cure, and I gladly endorse it."—C. F. Given.

A Prominent Singer Saved From Loss of Voice.

Mr. Julian Weissnitz, 175 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., is corresponding secretary of The Sangerlust, of New York; is the leading second bass of the Sangerlust, the largest German singing society of New York and also the oldest.

In 1899 The Sangerlust celebrated its fiftieth anniversary with a large celebration in New York City. The following is his testimony:

"About two years ago I caught a severe cold while traveling and which settled into catarrh of the bronchial tubes, and so affected my voice that I was obliged to cancel my engagements. In distress I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had never used a patent medicine before, I sent for a bottle.

"Words but fully describe my surprise to find that within a few days I was greatly relieved, and within three weeks I was entirely recovered. I am never without it now, and take an occasional dose when I feel run down."—Julian Weissnitz.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
