NEWS OF MILTON

LITTLE DAMAGE TO FRUIT BY RECENT COLD SNAP.

William Clark Sells 20 Acres of Land for $4,200—J. H. Gentry Purchases the I. N. Davis Property—Mr. Roherman Leases the Rose Building.

Milton, April 12.—The cold snap last week did little damage to fruit in this vicinity.

Mrs. W. Brown, of Adams, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, of this city over Easter.

The Williams family, who have been confined to their homes for the past eight weeks, were released last Friday.

Charlie Wright, who has been absent from this city for several years returned home a few days ago. He has been in Louisiana.

Harry Hogue is visiting his sister at Hot Lake, Union county, where she has been for some time for medical treatment.

Miss Myrtle Salt returned home from Weston last week, where she has been attending school since last fall.

Miss Gertie Couts, who has been living with her uncle, Mr. Ferguson, has returned to her home in Seattle, where her parents reside.

Deputy County Assessor C. F. Weiss, of Lower Dry Creek, was in town Saturday, hunting up those who owned property in his territory.

William Clark sold 20 acres of land near the state line last week, to Mr.

Corner Main and Webb Sts.

Eagan, of Walla Walla, for $4200.

Mrs. Mattie Hoon returned home from Los Angeles Cal., last week accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Hedrick.

J. H. Gentry, who has been in the East for some time, returned the first of the week, bringing with him his wife, to whom he was married while in Galena, Kansas. They have purchased the I. N. Davis property, which consists of a house, two lots, also the furniture and carpets, the consideration being $1050. Mr. and Mrs. Davis give possession next Monday and will move into Mrs. Wormington's house, opposite William McQueen's, for the present.

Roherman has leased the Rose building, near the new opera house, for a period of five years, and is having a stone over lined with brick built. Mr. Roherman had some notion of locating in Freewater, but did not like the "ozone" there very well, hence will remain in Milton.

Asa Troyer graduated from the Myers College of Embalming in Portland, the first of the month with high honors, and is now a full-fledged embalmer. He has entered upon his duties as such in Mr. J. N. Stone's under and furniture store.

Excellent Easter Services.

The Easter services of the M. E. churches of this city last Sunday were somewhat above the ordinary services on such occasions. The houses were made beautiful and attractive by floral decorations. A unique program, appropriate to the occasion, was rendered and it was a day long to be remembered by the children of the two schools.

Wilson-McKinley.

Mr. Frank Wilson, Milton's genial and accommodating general delivery man and Miss Lulu McKinley, the esteemed daughter of E. McKinley of this city, were married Wednesday, April 8, 1903, in Walla Walla, by the Rev. J. M. Morris, pastor of the Christian church at that place. The high contracting parties are well known in Milton, and all join in wishing them unbounded joy in their new journey of life.

Methodist "Field Day."

Yesterday was "field day" for missions in the Methodist Episcopal church. The collections for missions yesterday amounted to $215, which, with the money on hand, makes a total for the missionary fund of $226. There were seven additions to the church yesterday, all being baptized at the morning service. There were also five conversions yesterday. The program in the evening, in which the children were the exclusive performers, was the exclusive production of Mrs. A. J. Owen, Mrs. L. L. French and Miss Rosene Eppel, besides being staged by them.

Excursion to Walla Walla.

Through J. W. Maloney's unremitting efforts, an excursion train to Walla Walla has been secured for the 15th—Thursday next. It will leave here at 6 o'clock in the evening, and return before 6 o'clock the next morning. One fare for the round trip will be charged. It is stated that 100 Knights will go to Walla Walla on this train from Pendleton.

Makes Final Account.

H. J. Bean, attorney for Mrs. Annie McIntyre, administratrix of the estate of Donald McIntyre, deceased, has filed Mrs. McIntyre's final accounting of the affairs of the estate. The accounting shows that personal property to the value of $15,000 has been sold, which belonged to the estate, and that there remains unsold realty to the value of $19,000.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

Parish Reception.

The Church of the Redeemer will hold a reception at the Parish house this evening at 8:30, in honor of the members of the last confirmation class, Mrs. Wilkinson and daughter, Clara, Miss Froome, Miss Bean, Miss Josie Rose, Mrs. Dr. Keyes and Percy Folsom.
