

THE LITTLE FOLKS

Special effort has been made to get the newest and best styles for babies and children...

Dindinger, Wilson & Co. Phone Main 1181 Good Shoes Cheap

Revival Meetings.

The union meetings that have been held in the Baptist church for six weeks closed last evening...

Cash Cash to Build.

James Cash Cash, will build a cottage this spring, on his place in the reservation...

Will Locate in Baker.

L. L. Lewis, formerly a teacher of the State Normal School at Weston...

F. & S. Bitters

The great System Tonic. The remedy that is so popular because of its real merit...

TALLMAN & CO. THE DRUGGISTS

BEAUTIFY YOUR LAWNS.

Nicely mowed Lawns are easily maintained. Take a look at our Easy Running Lawn Mowers.

Thompson Hardware Co., 621 Main Street

EVERYTHING IN THE HARDWARE LINE

The Best Criterion

Of our work is the work itself, as our best advertisement is the praise of those who patronize us...

DOMESTIC LAUNDRY Court and Thompson Streets.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. E. Collier returned from La Grande today. James Wells, of Cold Springs, was in the city Saturday.

O. Simpson, of South Juniper, was in the city Saturday.

Hans Lorenzen, of Cold Springs, was in the city Saturday.

Martin Gage went to Walla Walla this morning to do plastering.

John and Louie Hagen, of Fulton, were in the city Saturday last.

Henry Hudeman, of Middle Cold Springs, was in town Saturday.

Frank King, of North Cold Springs, is moving into his new residence today.

Reimer Rohde, of Cold Springs, and his wife, were in the city Saturday last.

Mrs. Hans Struve, of Middle Cold Springs, is recovering from a severe illness.

The interior of W. F. Earnhart's and of H. E. Collier's offices has been repainted and repaired.

P. F. Mansfield, the Athena contractor, was in the city yesterday, returning home this morning.

Mrs. Ernhart, a widow living six miles east of town, on Wild Horse, is very ill with heart trouble.

A daughter was born this morning to U. W. Beeman and wife, who live at 909 West Railroad street.

Mrs. Walter Planting, of Despain Canyon, was dangerously ill for a few days lately, but is convalescing.

Mrs. Samuel Lee, of Spokane, who has been visiting Mrs. M. F. Kelly, started on her return home this morning.

W. Bollons, of the O. R. & N. road department, returned Saturday from an extended trip through Washington.

Rev. Ely, the United Brethren minister who lives eight miles south of the city, will build a good barn this spring.

F. D. Angel, of Halley, Idaho, is in the city en route to Moscow. He is an old friend of the Halley brothers of this city.

Frank Robinson and family have arrived from Spokane to make their home here. Mr. Robinson is a painter by occupation.

W. A. Hudelson, coast agent for the P. M. Sharples Manufacturing Company, of Westchester, Pa., is in the city on business.

M. Friedly, of Cold Springs, was in town Saturday. He reports crops as healthy, but backward on account of the continued cold.

Charles Alspaugh was in the city Saturday buying furniture for the new hotel just about to be opened at Helix by B. B. Richardson.

Miss Luvena Hale, one of the most proficient pupils from the business college, is now stenographer and typewriter in the law office of H. E. Bean.

S. A. Edwards, of Juniper, and John McRae, of Cold Springs, have ordered a new combined harvester with which to harvest their 800 acres of wheat.

J. M. Mumford, Mrs. L. L. French, Mrs. R. L. Oliver and Rev. Warner went to Dayton this morning to attend the funeral of Rev. U'Ren which takes place today.

W. W. Markham, of Waitsburg, representing the Puget Sound Warehouse Company, was in the city Saturday and yesterday, returning home this morning.

J. W. Sullivan, of Birch Creek, who lately sold his farm, is moving to town today, onto West Court street.

Later on Mr. Sullivan intends to purchase either a residence property or else vacant lots and build thereon.

A. B. Noble, who was operated upon in the Walla Walla hospital, is convalescing. At no time has he been in a critical condition...

R. M. Clark, of Spokane, formerly of this place, is in the city today en route from Montana home.

H. R. Redford has just returned from spending the winter at Athena, to his farm on the reservation.

W. F. Steadman and wife, parents of Mrs. W. F. Rigby, accompanied by their daughter, Lulu, and their niece, Miss Alice Stone, arrived yesterday from Sterling, Ill., for a visit with relatives here.

A. C. Friedly, of Despain Canyon, was in the city Saturday. He has in 800 acres of winter wheat which looks considerably better than the average...

P. E. McDuff is expected home from Portland, where he has been attending embalming school...

Lewis Larone writes from Long Beach, Cal., that he is recovering his health rapidly since going there.

Joseph Kyle, of Cabbage Hill, was in the city Saturday. He reports the season out there as three weeks backward for grass and all crops...

A. J. Johnson and O. A. Campbell, of Eugene, are in the city. From here they will make a general tour of this section of the country...

J. A. Power, who lives 10 miles northwest of the city, between Stage Gulch and Despain Canyon, reports the spring plowing all done...

J. H. Young has returned from Portland. Mrs. Young, who has an abscess on her left eyeball, will remain in Portland for some time...

Al Ragan, who has been managing a place in the northern part of the county for the Savings bank, has been compelled, on account of his wife's precarious health...

J. T. Brown, the superintendent of the water works, has a complete list now in his possession of water rate delinquents...

D. E. Cargill, of Middle Cold Springs, was in the city Saturday. He says, "Not much can be said about the present crop prospects around Middle Cold Springs, mostly..."

Mrs. Elizabeth Ragen has returned to her farm 12 miles south, to make here residence thereon, after an absence from it of several years...

Today was argued before Judge Ellis the case of E. F. Straughn vs. John F. Nowlin as superintendent of public instruction...

H. Hasselider returned from a tour through Washington Saturday and today is in the northern part of the county, prospecting for wheat lands...

M. M. Miller, of Cherokee county, Kansas, is in the city and thinks of locating here permanently. He is a friend of Charles Hamilton and a brother of J. F. Miller...

PROMINENT EDUCATORS HERE.

President Ressler, of Monmouth State Normal, and Charles H. Jones, of Salem, in the City.

E. D. Ressler, president of the State Normal School at Monmouth, and Charles H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly, published at Salem, are in the city today...

President Ressler is visiting his old friend Professor E. B. Conklin today, and with Mr. Jones will visit all the schools in the city.

Mr. Jones is spending a few days in Eastern Oregon, in the interest of the Teachers' Monthly, an excellent journal for teachers...

President Ressler speaks highly of R. C. French, the newly-elected president of the Weston State Normal.

Mr. French was tendered a hearty farewell reception at Monmouth, Wednesday night, and while Western Oregon regrets to lose such an able educator, everyone rejoices that the state is still to enjoy his valuable services.

IN POLICE COURT.

Shockey and Howland Each Fined $5 —Three Umatillas Given Three Days Each—Davis Left Town.

Charles Shockey and Ned Howland, who scrapped at the club dance last Saturday night, each paid into the police court this morning $5 with trimmings.

Four Indians were arraigned in Judge Fitz Gerald's court this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Thomas Davis, plain drunk, was Saturday afternoon given an hour to leave town in. He left.

Catholic Mission.

The subject of Father O'Connor's sermon tomorrow night will be "The Catholic Doctrine of Confession: Can Man Forgive Sin?"

School Money Short.

The apportionment of the school money was postponed until today on account of the work in the sheriff's office being behind on account of the immense volume of work coming before it.

Parish Meeting.

The annual Parish meeting of the Church of the Redeemer, will be held at the church at 7:30 p. m. today, for the purpose of electing vestrymen to serve during the coming year...

Gullford-Ely.

John F. Gullford and Martha I. Ely were married last evening at 4:30 o'clock in Pendleton...

Resigns Her School.

Miss Carmichael, who has been teaching in district 99, nine miles south of the city, has resigned her school and will go to Astoria to teach. Her home is at Milton.

Drunk and Disorderly.

George Hoben, convicted of being drunk and disorderly, was Saturday given an hour, or until noon, to get out of town in. It is supposed he got out, as he has not been seen since.

No Dessert More Attractive

Why use gelatine and spend hours soaking, sweetening, flavoring and coloring when Jell-O produces better results in two minutes?

Everything in the package. Simply add hot water and set to cool. It's perfection. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it today. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Raspberry. At grocers, 10c.

THE SURE WAY

to Prevent Pneumonia and Consumption is to cure your cold when it first appears. Acker's English Remedy will stop the cough in a night, and drive the cold out of your system.

ST. JOE STORE SPECIAL SALE THIS WEEK

We will make especially LOW PRICES during the WEEK on

Laces and Embroideries

We have the prettiest line of these goods it has ever been our pleasure to show. Come and look them over.

LYONS MERCANTILE CO. The Leaders in Pendleton

Advertisement for W. J. Clarke & Co. featuring an image of a man operating a sewing machine. Text includes 'From A to Z' and 'We know our business...'

Healthful Underwear LINEN UNDERWEAR

Advertisement for Belfast Mes featuring an image of a man in a suit. Text includes 'The only fully guaranteed Linen Garments' and 'CONSULTATION FREE'.

Belfast Mes

Advertisement for The Boston Store featuring a list of glove types: 'Fittable Gloves, Wearwell Gloves, Slightly Gloves, Combination Gloves, Dress Gloves, Working Gloves, Loading Gloves, In fact, all kinds'.

Advertisement for M. A. Rade featuring an image of a woman and text: 'We have Carpet Remnants, some of them large enough for rooms, that will close out at greatly Reduced Prices'.

Advertisement for Beck, the Reliable Plumber. Text includes 'Have Your Water Pipes Examined and Repaired' and 'Delay will lead to serious breaks. First-class work guaranteed by'.