RIDGE AND VICINITY

GEORGE HORSEMAN HAS PURCHASED HAROLD FARM.

High Wind Blows Down Fruit Trees—Frank Kapp Returns From Medical Springs—Fine Weather for Stock.

Ridge, April 18.—Thomas Ogle reports that the high winds a short time ago blew down about 25 fine trees on the B. F. Ogle stock ranch. Most of them were in clusters and were torn up by the roots.

It is reported that Kopp brothers lost a good cow and calf in a well of Mrs. James Davis, a few days ago.

Frank Kopp, who has been taking treatment at the medical springs of Washington, has returned home much improved, yet not fully cured.

B. Hinkle is building fence for the Rust Bros.

W. E. Baker was transacting business in Pendleton this week.

It is reported that George L. Horseman of Gurdane, has purchased the Harold farm in that vicinity last week. The farm consists of 480 acres and the price paid was $2500.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Simonton are working for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely of Gurdane at present.

J. A. Ingersol, of Michigan, is visiting with his niece, Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of Alba.

Charles E. Hoover, of Alba, was a guest of the Ogle's Wednesday night. He was on his way to Pendleton and reports some wintery weather in his part.

E. R. Baker, of Pendleton, was visiting in this part a few days ago.

The Misses Susan and Frankie Ogle of Athena, are reported to have the measles, but are getting along nicely.

William Futter has moved his cattle out to his home ranch near Ukiah.

Mrs. James Davis and family, of Alba, are visiting and transacting business in this vicinity at present.

We have had very pleasant weather for the past week. Cloudy and warm most of the time with some snow and rain, some freezing during the first part of the week, and the thermometer registered from 36 to 60 above zero. Nice weather for lambing and fine grass, and good for all kinds of stock.

Thomas Ogle, who has undergone a siege of rheumatism for some time remains in about the same condition.

A QUILTING BEE.

Mrs. Charles Betts, of Helix, Gives an Old-fashioned Party to the Elderly Ladies.

On Saturday, April 18, Mrs. Chas. Betts, of Helix, gave a dinner party and an old-fashioned quilting bee to the elderly ladies of the village.

The guests were Mrs. Myrick, Mrs. Rehm, Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Huson, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Dodge. Their combined ages numbered 380 years, but in spite of their advanced years, they showed their skill by almost finishing the quilt.

Miss Emma Green assisted Mrs. Betts in receiving them. They passed a very pleasant day together, recalling their younger days and found that each represented a different state.

The old gentlemen are anxiously waiting, hoping Mrs. Betts will give them a dinner party, and have faithfully promised to split wood if she will.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the undersigned, up to 3 o'clock Monday, April 27, room 7, over Boston Store, for the erection and completion of a two-story brick building with basement, for Maloney & Ferguson, according to plans and specifications now on file at my office. The owners reserve the right to accept any or reject all bids. C. E. TROUTMAN, Architect.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists. Trial bottles free.

For Sale Cheap.

Bride From Capetown.

London, April 21.—Captain Dudley Rawson de Chair, the British naval attaché at Washington, was married at Torquay today to Miss Enid Struben of Cape Town.

Purity Of Our Drugs

That's the point we are trying to impress on the public mind. When a clean, pure drug stock is spoken of we want this to refer to our store. We're doing all we can to merit that title. It's the main point of our business. We think about it and talk about it all the time. Bye and bye you'll hear this in mind if you haven't already. There is no extra charge for this purity. Together with accuracy it's our inducement for your prescription trade. We are careful and prompt with mail orders.
