Christian Endeavor Social.
Miss Flora Walker gave a social at the Junior Christian Endeavors of the Presbyterian church, in the parlors of the church, which was enjoyed greatly by the members of the organization. Ice cream and cake, music and games formed the order of business for the evening. Miss Walker introduced some novelties in the way of amusements which were source of unlimited fun and curiosity. The officers of the organization now are as follows: President, Flora Miller; secretary, Ora Walker; treasurer, Gwendolyn Smith.

St. Gnes Guild.

The annual sale by St. Agnes Guild of the parish house, netted $50, which will be used to paint the roof and other outside woodwork of the church and to make other improvements.

DRESS WITH HISTORY.

Mrs. Brune Wears a Famous Garment Made for a Temple in India.

Mrs. Brune, who will be seen at the Frazer opera house Friday night in "Unorna," the love play written especially for her by F. Marion Crawford, the famous novelist, wears a dress that has a history. When Mrs. Brune was in Italy last summer, discussing with Mr. Crawford the plans for the production of "Unorna," she mentioned the fact that she was at a loss to get a suitable dress for the first act, which requires that she should appear as the high priestess of an Indian temple at Delhi. Mr. Crawford went to his study, and took a skirt from the wall, giving it to her.

He explained that it had been given to him by the custodian of the Temple of Golah in Delhi, India, when he was there gathering material for his story, "The Witch of Prague," from which "Unorna" is taken. The dress is made of silk and gauze, and is covered with innumerable tiny mirrors that reflect the light in a thousand iridescent rays, when Mrs. Brune does the sacred cobra dance at the end of the first act of the play. Mrs. Brune's other gowns are of Parisian make, and are the latest styles from that capitol of dress.

"Macbeth."

"Show his eyes, and grieve his heart; Come like shadows, so depart."
But in your departure, don't forget that John Griffith appears at the Frazer on Tuesday, April 28, as Macbeth, supported by a complete acting company with special scenery, electrical and mechanical illusions—chemical illusions.

Pendletonians in Sumpter.

Zoeth Houser, ex-United States marshal for Oregon, who was general manager of the Standard mine at Quartzburg before that famous copper-cobalt-gold property was merged in the $5,000,000 Standard Consolidated Company, passed through Baker City today en route to Sumpter, where he goes to confer with General Manager Mueller regarding development plans. He was accompanied by Ed C. Allen, of Pendleton, a stockholder in the merger.

J. H. Gwynn, secretary of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association, came up from his Pendleton home yesterday and departed this morning for Sumpter on business. He is interested in the recently formed $5,000,000 merger of the Quartzburg mines.

Clip is Light.

W. H. Gulliford, of Echo, has sheared 3,500 of his sheep and will shear the balance, 6,500, beginning May 1. He will take his sheep into the mountains about May 20. The sheep are generally thin, according to Mr. Gulliford, compared with a year ago, and the clip is rather lighter.

Hurt in Wreck.

E. J. Hufford, who was postal clerk on the passenger train which was wrecked at Bingham Springs in January last, is in the city. Mr. Hufford is now in the postal service at Portland, being in charge of Station C in that city. His back was severely hurt in the smash at Bingham Springs.

CASTILE SOAP

Nearly everyone claims to be selling a pure Castile Soap. The name "Castile" is simply a trade name. There was a time when it stood for Olive Oil Soap. We will just say that we are selling an Olive Oil Soap made in Spain from the best Spanish Olive Oil and let you compare it with your "Castile Soap."

10c Cake; 3 Cakes 25c

We ask you to notice the peculiar color of OUR SOAP (not pure white) which is obtained by adding (not green) which is obtained by adding coloring matter, but a light pure grey. Also notice the odor and the action of the soap in water.
