FROST HURT LITTLE

ROGUE RIVER VALLEY WILL PRODUCE PLENTY OF FRUIT.

Cherries, Peaches and Apricots May Fall Off a Third—Vineyards Now Promise Big Returns.

Medford, Ore., April 28.—The consensus of reports of the fruit men in this section regarding the fruit prospects for this year is that there is every certainty of the usual large crop for which the Rogue River valley is celebrated. The apples are now well in bloom, some varieties being fully set, as also is the case with the pears. The prune crop is exceedingly promising, of which there is a large area grown in this valley.

Cherries, peaches and apricots were damaged somewhat by the freeze of a few days ago, but the yield will be fully two-thirds of a crop. Some of the crops have not been injured at all by the frost. The almond orchards of which there are several large ones in this section, fared about like the cherries and peaches, two-thirds of a crop.

The vineyards of this valley are all in a very promising condition and with the vines that are just coming into bearing will give the largest yield of grapes this season, ever known in Southern Oregon. The slight damage caused by frost to the tenderer fruits is a matter of rare occurrence in Southern Oregon, it being several years since any damage was done by frost, to even so tender trees as the almonds.

The acreage planted to new orchards this last winter is nearly double that of any previous season and the young trees are all starting the good growth. The largest new orchard planted in the valley within the past year, is that of Captain Gordon Voorhies, of Portland, who has planted 240 acres to apples and pears, making his "Eden Valley Orchard," something over 400 acres in extent.

Texas Medics in Session.

San Antonio, Texas, April 28.—There was a gratifying number of prominent medical men assembled in Turner hall this morning when the thirty-fifth annual convention of the State Medical Association of Texas was called to order. After an invocation by Rev. Arthur G. Jones, and addresses of welcome, to which response was made by the president of the association, S. C. Red, of Houston, the convention took up business in the shape of the annual reports of the various officers and committees. These occupied the time until the hour of adjournment. Upon reassembling after luncheon the reading and discussion of papers on various topics of interest to the profession was begun. The sessions are to continue until the end of the week. The meeting is regarded as of more than usual interest by the fraternity as the association is to be reorganized on a broader basis than at present, the purpose being to unite in one compact organization all of the physicians of the state and to form a closer union with similar associations in other states, combined in the American Medical Association.

Noted Delegates Assembling.

Topeka, Kan., April 28.—Delegates to the eleventh annual international conference of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association, which is to begin in this city Thursday and last till May 5, are already arriving. While the greatest interest naturally centers in the session at which President Roosevelt will speak this will not be the only interesting feature of the program. Friday night has been designated as "railroad official night," when officials of many of the principal railroad systems of the United States and Canada will address the conference. Included among those who have accepted invitations to speak are President Ripley, of the Santa Fe, President Ingalls, of the Big Four, President Stevens of the Chesapeake & Ohio, and President Wickersham, of the Atlanta & West Point railroad.

Britt and Fitzgerald.

San Francisco, Cal., April 28.—The 20-round fight between Jimmy Britt and William Fitzgerald, which is to come off at Mechanics' Pavilion tonight, is attracting attention in sporting circles. It will be Britt's first fight since he lost on a foul to Jack O'Keefe at Portland. Fight followers are anxious to know whether Britt has been overrated or whether he is really a man entitled to rank as the best of the white lightweights. Fitzgerald is far from being a champion, but there are some people who think that Fitzgerald may lower the colors of the much advertised Californian. Eddie Graney has been selected to referee the contest.

To Discuss Taxation.

Washington, D. C., April 28.—The labor commissioners of nearly all the states of the Union assembled in Washington today for the annual meeting of the National Bureau of Industrial Satistics. The sessions are to continue through the entire week and promise to be of more than ordinary importance. The question of taxation has been chosen as the principal subject for discussion.

Preferred the Hogs.

They tell a good one on a prominent real estate man of Waurika, says the Kansas City Journal. Some time ago he carried a prospector over on Beaver creek to show him a certain claim. He told the man that it was an exceptionally fine claim; that the land did not overflow, and that he would sell it to him for $4000. The man looked around and discovered some red mud away up in a tree, and asked the real estate man what caused that mud in the tree tops if the land did not overflow. The agent replied that there was a kind of hog raised over in the Chickasaw country which used to range on the creek and that they rubbed the mud on the trees. The prospector took a look over the land, glanced up in the tree again, and told the Waurika man that he wouldn't take the claim, but he would give $4000 for a couple of those hogs.
