BRIEF HELIX NEWS

INTERESTING BUDGET OF NEIGHBORHOOD ITEMS.

New Buildings Erected—The Sick Recovering—Many Went to Log-Rolling at Walla Walla—Thrown From Horse and Ankle Fractured.

Helix, May 6.—On Saturday last Miner Green was thrown from his horse and received a badly fractured ankle. At last report he was getting along nicely.

Mrs. Harlon Richmond has been seriously ill, but is thought to be at present slowly improving.

C. Christenson, who lives two miles west of Helix, is erecting a fine new house.

H. C. Kendall, of this city, is building an addition to his Klondyke, which we understand will be used for an ice cream parlor.

Several persons from Helix took advantage of the excursion rates and went to Walla Walla to attend the log-rolling. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Cockerlin, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. D. B. Richardson, Mrs. Stanton and daughters, Nellie and Lulu, Mrs. Dale and son, Dare, Henry Barpre and Will Knight.

Mrs. Mae Sones, Mrs. L. D. Smith, Miss Emma Green and Miss Pearl Smith were Pendleton visitors Saturday.

Miss Edyth Isaacs and Miss Fay Sullivan, of Pendleton, spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Isaacs, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Price, of Weston, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Price's brother, F. H. Richmond, of this place.

Mrs. Horace Walker and Mrs. Basye went to Pendleton Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Hemphill, who with her parents are lately from Missouri, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Charles Campbell, of Vansycle.

Girl's Ride on Elk's Back.

Miss Emma Kellogg, who is seeking an appointment as game warden for Routt and Rio Blanco counties, in Colorado, is young, a hunter of big game and has had many exciting experiences. She lassoed a young bear once and took it home alive. She has hunted mountain lion, deer and elk and is well versed in woodcraft.

The young woman's most daring adventure was a ride on the back of an elk which had attacked her in the forest. Her gun being out of reach she promptly climbed a tree. The elk butted the tree with such force that she fell, alighting on the animal's back. She grasped the antlers and held on while the angry brute ran through the thick underbrush. Its antlers finally became entangled in the low-hanging branches of a tree, and while the animal struggled Miss Kellogg cut its throat with a hunting knife.

"Haven't you any smoke consumers in this town?" asked the stranger, wiping a chunk of soot out of his eye. "Yes, sir," coughed the native. "There are about 2,000,000 of us."—Chicago Tribune.

CHINESE FOR YUCATAN.

Army of Asiatic Labor Headed for Central America. The advance guard of an army of Chinese coolie laborers, who will be employed in the hemp fields of Mexico have arrived in San Francisco from the Orient on the steamer Doric. They number 512 Fokienese, but 125 families are soon to follow and join their countrymen in the plantations of the Mexican province of Yucatan. The colony is under the immediate charge of John G. Myers, a wealthy grower of Marianna. In telling his purpose in bringing the Chinese to Mexico Mr. Myers said:

"The hemp planters of Yucatan have found the labor in Mexico to be inadequate for the proper cultivation of their plantations, as the Porto Ricans employed at present are unsuited for the work. I was sent by the Hemp Planters' Association to China to arrange for the employment of laborers who would settle in the country. The Fokienese do not immigrate in large numbers to this country, but I found them best suited for the work in the hemp fields. I contracted for as many as I could. The German steamer Hansa is now on her way to Salina Cruz with 1,500 families of Fokienese and another steamer will soon follow with a similar number. We intend to plant 25,000 families in Yucatan, so that the colony will be permanent. A large number of the laborers will be secured from Formosa."

Ochiltree's Last Words.

"Last words" of great men are usually faked. I believe Tom Ochiltree was one of the greatest men that ever lived—the greatest in managing to get along on nothing. When the old fellow was on his last legs a Catholic priest was called in to administer extreme unction. At the conclusion of the rite he said: "Now, colonel, you are absolved. You may rest quite easy. Everything is wiped out. You will have a white robe and a pure spirit in which to enter the heavenly gates."

The gallant old Texan, rolling over on his side, remarked in a voice shaking with emotion: "Then you can tell the devil to go to h—l." Within three minutes he was dead.—New York Press.
