WISNER IN CUSTODY

FAST YOUNG MAN NOW IN TOILS OF THE LAW.

Passed Bogus Check in Baker City—When Warned That Sheriff Taylor Was Looking for Him, He Flew Into the Arms of Athena's City Marshal.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor went to Athena where the city marshal held in custody for him Floyd D. Wisner, a printer of Sumpter, who is wanted by the Baker county authorities for obtaining money under false pretenses. The sheriff returned with his prisoner on the afternoon train and the young man is now in the county jail awaiting the officers from Baker City.

About two weeks ago Wisner wrote a draft on the Canadian Bank of Seattle for $65 and cashed it with Joe Buckley, a saloon man of Baker City. Buckley cashed the check at a Baker City bank and it was sent to Seattle where the paper came back marked, "no funds."

In the meantime Wisner had come to Pendleton, where he entered heart and soul into the strenuous task of building up the morning paper's subscription list, and while laboring at this, the Baker county sheriff wired Mr. Taylor to look for him.

Mr. Taylor started out on the search of his man and promptly located him, but he had been warned that the sheriff was looking for him, so renting a rig, he started for a buggy ride with a young lady of his acquaintance.

The couple went to Adams, from which point the young lady returned to Pendleton by train. The rig was sent back and the young man started to double on his tracks on the mixed train toward Pendleton, but was arrested at Athena where he was held for Sheriff Taylor.
