The Wheat Trade.

Portland. May 14 .-- Wheat markets are very dull; there is nothing transpiring of any consequence. Some de-mand for Senora wheat exists, for Eastern shipment, but there is very little of that. We have a few vessels for this season's loading. Stocks in the country are pretty well cleaned up, as to large parcels but considera-ble grain remains in farmers' hands yet, but all of it in small lots. Farm-ers are not willing to sell what they tieve on hand, preferring to wait they see if they will not get a few cents more than what is offered. At the present time there is no demand for wheat form set of the set in the set of the
