

The Latest in Ladies' Oxfords

The celebrated D. Armstrong & Co's. line of ladies' fine Oxfords has arrived. The latest styles, finest workmanship and neatest ladies' Oxfords shown in the city. A full line of little gents, youths and boy's Oxfords and everything in seasonal footwear for old and young.

Dindinger, Wilson & Co.
Phone Main 1181
Good Shoes Cheap

BEE SUGAR FACTORY.

Senator Ankeny interested in one at Prosser, Where He Has Some Valuable Land.

Prosser, Wash., May 13.—If favorable indications count, Prosser will have a beet sugar plant within the next 18 months. For the past month the Prosser Board of Trade has had under consideration a proposition from a representative of the Utah beet sugar plant who proposes to erect and maintain a plant providing the business people would guarantee to produce 3,500 acres of beet land and other considerations of minor importance.

Last Thursday a meeting was held for the purpose of further considering the proposition at which were present Hon. Levi Ankeny, W. G. Granger, of the Washington Irrigation Company, E. F. Benson and others. Mr. Granger in the interest of the Washington Irrigation Company, pledged their earnest support in behalf of the proposition, both offering land and water rights, besides giving the matter their individual attention.

FRANK HUGHES BOUND OVER.

Must Stand Trial at Portland, Charged With Selling Liquor to Indians.

Frank Hughes, accused of selling liquor to Spokane Jim and Charley Shapeless, was bound over to appear before the November term of the federal grand jury this morning, in the sum of $250.

Hughes is unknown here and is a laboring man. Several days ago he was heard by Berkeley Hailey, the commissioner's son, to offer to procure whiskey for the Indians. Mr. Hailey was notified and arrived in time to arrest the man and take the whiskey from the Indians. Hughes pleaded ignorance of the charge. He claimed to know nothing of the Indians and swore never to have given them whiskey, but in the face of the evidence he was bound over.

Deputy United States Marshal Jack Probstel, of Pendleton, came up this morning and took the prisoner to Portland.

Inspector of Surveys.

La Grande, May 13.—M. P. McCoy, government inspector of surveys for Eastern Oregon and Washington, arrived in the city last night. Mr. McCoy has just returned from the Innaha district and other sections of Walla Walla county, and expresses himself as being very much pleased with that region, and that the day is not far distant when Wallowa will take its place in the front ranks of the counties of this state. He expects to leave soon for Malheur county, where he has a large amount of work to do.

F. & S. Bitters

The great System Tonic. The remedy that is so popular because of its real merit. Now is the time to take F. & S. Bitters and tone up your system. One bottle is equal to a month's recreation. Manufactured by F. & S.

TALLMAN & CO.
THE DRUGGISTS

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. E. Pruitt has recovered from his recent illness.

R. R. Diven, of Helix, is in the city on a business visit.

H. E. Manley, from Athena, is at the Golden Rule hotel.

Colin V. Dymont arrived down from Walla Walla last night.

R. E. Porter, of Meacham, is in Pendleton on a business visit.

Mrs. M. S. Steele, of Seattle, is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crawford, of Portland, are visiting in the city.

Miss Florence Meade, of Wallace, is visiting with Mrs. C. S. Jackson.

Mrs. J. W. Henderson, of Portland, is the guest of the Hotel Pendleton.

Mrs. U. G. Earles, of North Yakima, is the guest of the Hotel Pendleton.

Douglas Belts, the Pilot Rock sheep raiser, was a visitor in Pendleton yesterday.

Allen Bros. are preparing to move to their wood camp near Huron, for the summer.

Walter M. Pierce left this morning for California to attend the Victoria Island land case.

John Hutson, of the general offices of the W. & C. R. at Walla Walla, is in the city today.

Mrs. John Bean, who has been quite ill at her home on West Webb street, is greatly improved.

Mrs. Swanson, of Tacoma, is visiting in the city, being the guest of Mrs. George B. Robbins and Mrs. H. S. Bixby.

W. R. Conington, of Canyon City, was a Pendleton visitor today. He is on his way to the grand encampment of the I. O. O. F., at Portland.

A. D. Stillman will leave Saturday morning for California, to be present at the Victoria Island land suit, in which he is one of the attorneys.

Miss Bertha M. Sumner, of Portland, was in the city today, having stopped off to consult the grand guardian of the Women of Woodcraft about her work.

A. H. Sunderman and wife, of Echo, drove in from their farm last night and will return this evening. Mr. Sunderman has sold his sheep and will immediately buy another herd for the fall markets.

Miss Flora Walker, of the Owl Tea Store, is confined to her home by an attack of the grip. Miss Walker has been sick for several days, but did not give up until today, when she was forced to remain at home.

Professor M. F. Knox left this morning for Walla Walla, where he will give a series of lectures. From there he will return to his home at Seattle. Professor Knox wished to organize a class in this city, but was unable to obtain enough people for a large one.

Fires in New York.

Malone, N. Y., May 14.—Fire has made a wide sweep in the forest in the vicinity of Duane. If it is not checked before it reaches the Dyer mountain country the loss will be enormous. The inhabitants in the path are fleeing. The towns in the Malone mountain district are threatened. Fire apparatus has been sent by special trains for protection.

Salt Trust Suffers.

San Francisco, May 14.—The officers of the Federal Salt Company, known as the Salt Trust, were fined $1,000 by District Judge DeHaven today for violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

Hold-up in Idaho.

Idaho City, May 14.—The Boise stage was held up a mile this side of Idaho City this morning and the mail pouch was rifled. There was but one passenger. The telephone wires were cut. The sheriff is in pursuit with a posse.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

"A monologue, my son, is a man's wife talking to him, and a dialogue is his wife and her mother talking to him."—Boston Transcript.

ADVENTISTS' CAMP

SIXTY FAMILY AND FOUR SERVICE TENTS IN GROVE.

From the Cascades to Montana and Wyoming in This Conference—A Thousand Will Be in Attendance.

Piles of trunks, piles of wood, rows and rows of tents, a store and a swinging bell, fill Byers' grove and mark the opening of the 23d annual conference of the Adventists church, which convenes at this place tomorrow morning.

It is quite an encampment and has been growing for two weeks and more, until at the present time it numbers upward of 60 family tents and has a population of more than 100 people. At the close of the encampment last year over 700 members of the denomination were camped upon the ground and this year a greater number is expected.

The conference meets annually in connection with the work of the conference a camp meeting is held. To this meeting delegates are elected from every church in the conference district and they, at the conference, transact all the business of the district. At this time the officers of the district are elected, the ministers receive their salaries, and the general routine business is transacted.

The district now in conference here represents all of Oregon and Washington east of the Cascade range, and the whole of Idaho and the churches are widely scattered over this territory.

The officers of the conference are: A. J. Breed, College Place, Wash., president; Professor J. L. Kay, of College Place, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee consists of Elders A. J. Breed, J. A. Holbrook, J. M. Willoughby, W. H. Saxby, T. L. Ragsdale, J. W. Posly and C. C. Lewis.

Prominent church members from abroad in attendance are: Elders Knox and Snyder, of California; W. W. Prescott, the editor of the Review and Herald of Battle Creek, Mich.; Elder G. Irwin, of Australia, and Henry Shultz, of Nebraska. El-F. M. Burg, of Portland, will also be in attendance.

The conference proper will begin tomorrow morning, at which time the routine business of the church will be taken up.

There are four service tents on the ground, one large one 70x100 feet for the general meetings, and one smaller, for the young people's meetings. The children also have a separate tent and there is a large tent in which services will be conducted in the German language.

There is a store and a dining room tent on the ground for the accommodation of the campers. The store is under the management of F. B. Steen, of Milton, and is not a money-making scheme, but simply a local depot for the convenience of those in attendance on the conference. All the supplies are bought of local dealers.

The daily program to be observed by all campers and visitors is printed here. Daily reports of the meeting will be furnished throughout the meeting:

- Rising bell, 5 a. m.
- Early morning meeting, 5:30.
- Breakfast, 7:00.
- District meetings, 8:00.
- Children's meeting, 8:00.
- Business meeting, 9:30 to 11:30.
- Dinner, 1:00 p. m.
- Preaching, 2:30 p. m.
- Children's meeting, 4 to 5 p. m.
- Young peoples' meeting, 5 to 6 p. m.
- Preaching, 7:45 p. m.
- Retiring bell, 9:15 p. m.
- Silent bell, 9:45 p. m.

ORATOR FOR JULY FOURTH.

Negotiations in Progress With Governor Chamberlain, Senator Fulton and Others.

President R. Alexander, of the Progress Club, has appointed Messrs. Cohen, Teutsch and Besthorn as a committee to secure an orator for the Fourth of July celebration. The gentlemen are now in communication with several men of prominence and will get a man well known to the people of the state as the orator of the day.

President Alexander will have the other committees ready for publication by tomorrow.

Jolly Dozen's Last Dance.

The Jolly Dozen Dancing Club will give their last dance this evening at Music hall, at which time they will entertain their friends for the last time this season. Following the program refreshments will be served and the boys will endeavor, as usual, to give their guests the best time possible.

To Grand Encampment.

E. L. Barnett and wife drove in from Athena this morning and left for the west on the morning train. Mr. Barnett will visit friends in Crook county, while Mrs. Barnett will attend the grand encampment of the I. O. O. F., which convenes at Portland on Tuesday next. Mrs. Barnett is the grand warden of that order.

Jolly Dozen Dance!!
Jolly Dozen Dance!!
Tonight!! Tonight!!
Music Hall!! Refreshments!!
Boys' Last Dance!!
Kirkman's Orchestra!!
Those holding invitations come!!

FIVE DIVORCE CASES.

Family Troubles Being Aired in the Circuit Court.

Judge Ellis, of the circuit court, is making a specialty of divorces this week. Two decrees were made yesterday and one today; one case is now on trial, and another is temporarily continued until some deposition of testimony can be taken, when the case will be decided.

Yesterday in the case of Georgie Alice Hidy vs. J. F. Hidy, the court gave the plaintiff, Georgie Alice Hidy, an absolute divorce and awarded her the custody of Mabel Hidy, a minor child, the issue of the marriage. In the case of Sabina W. Franklin vs. Benjamin Franklin, the court decreed that the plaintiff be freed from the bonds of matrimony existing between her and the defendant. The case went by default, the defendant not appearing when summoned.

Effie E. Stone was granted a divorce from Alfred F. Stone, and was awarded her maiden name of Effie E. Bradley. The case was won by default, the defendant not appearing to contest the case.

The case of Touse vs. Touse was heard the first of the week, but was continued for more evidence.

The court is today hearing evidence on the case of Hendricks vs. Hendricks, a Pendleton case, which has attracted much attention in this city on account of the prominence of the parties and the frequency of their disputes.

GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Increasing Interest and Uncommon Skill Manifested.

The second round of the golf tournament was played yesterday afternoon, the players each playing over a nine-hole course, as on the day previous. The matches played yesterday resulted as follows:

Hartman vs. Moorhouse—Hartman won, 5 up, winning the match by four points.

Dodd vs. Judd—the first and second rounds were both tied. The tie will be played off this afternoon.

Rinehart vs. Berkeley—tied the second round; Rinehart won by 2 up.

Keller vs. Dickson—Dickson won, 3 up.

Wade vs. Lambrith—Wade won, 3 up.

Brown vs. Clopton—Brown won, 1 up.

In the ladies' contest, Mrs. Clopton and Mrs. Johnson played a tie game in the second round, Mrs. Johnson thus winning the match by 1 point.

Miss Strong and Miss Cameron played their first round yesterday afternoon. Their second will be played today.

The finals will be played Friday, at which time the championship of the local club will be decided.

SHEEP TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Garrison & LaFontaine Flocks Being Taken to Summer Pasturage.

Gus LaFontaine is moving his sheep to the summer range. Two bands numbering about 4,800 head, passed through Pendleton this morning bound for the old Boettcher place, near Meacham, where they will be kept during the summer. Next week two more bands, aggregating about 5,000 head, will be driven to the same place.

The sheep have been ranging at the Despain gulch, and The Well, about 15 miles north of town.

Walla Walla Team Here.

The Walla Walla baseball contingent came to town this afternoon. There are 12 men with the team; Van DeWater, Bruyette, Irby, Bradley, Heder, Hogan, Brown, Fisher, McGucken, Berry, Stoval and Edwards. The boys are here to win and a good series of games is expected.

New Telephone Directory.

Ralph Wade is now engaged in compiling the new telephone directory. An increase of 125 patrons during the past six months is a fair index to the progress of the city.

Real Estate Transfers.

W. Nickols today sold to Mrs. Helen Whittemore, through the agency of E. T. Wade, lots 11 and 12, block 11, Raley's addition. Consideration $500.

New Delivery Wagon.

The Domestic Laundry has purchased an elegant new delivery wagon.

SYRUPS

Monopole, Rock Caddy, Red Star and White Rose in half gallons, gallons, jackets and pails.

HOT HOUSE VEGETABLES

Lettuce
Radishes
Onions
Celery

THE Standard Grocery

Court Street
Low Sellers of Groceries

ST. JOE STORE

Big Special Sale EVERY DAY THIS WEEK OUR STOCK THE LARGEST Our prices guaranteed the lowest LYONS MERCANTILE CO. The Leaders in Pendleton about the house are supplied by the many articles of furniture we are now offering at little prices. Long and stepladders that are safe and sound. Tight tubs and all sizes. All our wooden ware is sound and seasoned.

Every Day Need

W.J. CLARKE & Co.
211 Court Street

SHIRTS

We are pleased to announce that we have by far the greatest supply of men's shirts ever carried in the city of Pendleton

The new colors and styles

At prices to please

For old or young

Both good and bad

Open in front or back

To wear day or night

Men are never without a shirt on We always handle the right kind

Correct from the neck to the tail of the shirt

BIG BOSTON STORE

I Know U Know

you need a few nice pieces of Furniture to make the house more comfortable and cozy. And PETS, well, you should see our big line before you buy.

Go Carts from $3 up

M. A. RADEK

MAIN AND WEBB STREETS Undertaking Parlors in Corner

Bring Us Your Second Hand Goods

We will pay you what is right for them. Bargains on new and second hand goods.

GURDANE & McBROWN

312 EAST COURT STREET