

WHO FEASTS ON AMERICAN HARE

Hundred Guests Sit Down to the Most Unique Banquet Ever Given in Oregon.

TRANSFORMED INTO DAINTY DELICACIES.

Were Given and Happily Received—Forecast of an Industry That May Revolutionize Eastern Oregon—Ball Follows the Banquet.

May 15.—Today was a red letter day in Echo's history. A hundred guests accepted the invitation to the banquet given at the Arlington Hotel.

The banquet was given to demonstrate the food value of the American hare.

The elaborate French bill of fare, interpreted, developed into various forms of rabbit.

There were rabbits young and rabbits old, and rabbits cold.

The banquet was a credit to the Echo and to the enterprise of Mr. Green and wife, who engineered and furnished the viands.

sarcastically for shares in his "jack rabbit cannery." It was a splendid joke. It got into the papers. People in the East, sober business men, the heads of provision houses, dining car systems and others wrote for samples and prices.

It had gone beyond a joke. It was a commercial possibility. The dream of the visionary is about to be realized.

The Triumphant Test. In the flag-draped and bunting-decorated dining room, when the guests had done full justice to the tender and delicious hare, toasts were called for.

A guest responded to the toast, "Echo." In his response he dwelt upon the possibilities of the upbuilding of this industry at Echo of the splendid possibility of the now sage-brush covered meadows and sand flats when once water had been secured for irrigation purposes.

Dr. C. J. Smith, of Pendleton responded happily to the toast, "Umatilla County," while H. C. Willis responded to the toast, "The American Hare."

The banquet was a success and should result in the realization of the cold storage and packing industry plans. Among the guests from Pendleton were Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Teutsch.

After the banquet a very enjoyable dance was given. 46 couples taking part.

Following the Sabbath school, at 10:30, Professor Prescott spoke on the subject of "The Promise of His (Christ's) Coming and Practical Godliness as Related Thereto."

The speaker gave illustrations to show that the very things designed by God as signs of the nearness of Christ's coming have been perverted by scoffers and urged as tokens of the delay of that event.

"Character," said the speaker "is the only thing that can escape destruction." Quoting from Matt. 24:14, attention was called to the fact that it is the failure of the church to complete this appointed work which causes the delay of Christ's return.
