SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Concerning the People of Pendleton and Vicinity • Notes Personal and Otherwise • By Our Regular Correspondent

Mrs. T. G. Hailey Entertains.

The second one of Mrs. Thomas G. Hailey's luncheons was given Wednesday afternoon. The decorations were yellow and white, the candelabra being hooded in shades of yellow. Large vases of March red roses were at either end of the table and favors of roses were laid at each place. On the name card at each place was written a subject for the guest to respond to. Mrs. Jackson acted as toastmistress. All this added much to the enjoyment of the luncheon. The invited guests were Mesdames T. C. Taylor, Henry Guernsey, C. S. Jackson, Harry Johnson, William Furnish, Mrs. Johnson, Sr., Miss Cox and Miss Roberts.

Pretty Birthday Party.

Miss Lucile Rader was the hostess of a young peoples' party on last Saturday evening, it being the 13th anniversary of her birth. About 30 of her friends helped to make the event one long to be remembered. Progressive "old maid" was played. The first prize was captured by John Dickson, the consolation prize being awarded to Ralph Bollerman. Light refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, wishing Lucile many happy returns of the day.

Jolly Dozen's Dance.

The Jolly Dozen gave the last of their series of popular parties Thursday evening at Music Hall, which was largely attended. It is to be hoped this club of entertainers will remain intact for next season, as their dances in the past have been a source of much pleasure to all who were fortunate enough to hold invitations.

Artisan Social and Dance.

The Artisans held their regular monthly social meeting and dance in Hendrick's hall on last Thursday evening. About 30 couples were present and a most enjoyable time was had by all attending. At the close of the dance refreshments were served.

Knights of Pythias Dance.

Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, gave a very pleasant dance in Music Hall on Wednesday evening last, to the Knights and their ladies. Kirkman's orchestra furnished the music and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Eastern Star Social.

The ladies of the Eastern Star held a social meeting at Hendrick's hall last Tuesday evening. The time was spent very pleasantly and was much enjoyed by all present.

Club Notes.

At its last regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon, the Woman's Club voted to raise $50 for the Sacajawea monument. As all of Pendleton's clubs are well represented in the woman's club, this action means that the club women of the city will make this contribution.

The chairman of the civic committee reported interviews with the officers of the Progress Club and the Commercial Association in regard to a new railroad station, and these gentlemen promised to take the matter up in their organizations. Mayor Hailey will also work for this much-needed improvement. We should not be surprised that strangers pass through our city looking for homes, when our present depot is their introduction to the town. The impression gained from a sight of it would not be very favorable. We who live in Pendleton know it is a good town, surrounded by a prosperous community, but strangers arriving here would never get any idea of the conditions that really exist. A clean, modern, well equipped depot would speak volumes in favor of the city and community.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at Locust Hill, on Tuesday the 26th. Members will please note the change of place, and all other club women are cordially invited to attend the annual meeting which will be largely of a social nature.

There is to be a meeting next week in Portland of the new Lewis and Clark clubs, recently organized under the direction of the "Lewis and Clark (men's) committee on women's work for the fair." Mrs. C. B. Wade will attend the meeting as chairman of the Lewis and Clark committee, elected by the Pendleton club women, also as president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, and will try to find out, if possible, what this committee of men have in view.

A report of the meeting will be given at the next meeting of the Woman's Club.

It is hoped that the general public will be interested in the reopening of the magazine depot. The local committee of the clubs on library work have decided that this was too good a work to be permanently discontinued. It was given up some time ago, because no suitable place could be found to store the books and magazines contributed.

The committee has secured a room in the Parish house of the Church of the Redeemer, and hereafter magazines will be distributed free to all comers. All having magazines to give are asked to send notice to any one of the members of the committee. Mrs. J. A. Fee, chairman; Mrs. Mary Dissoway, Mrs. Edith Carmine, Mrs. Irvy LaDow, Mrs. Frank Frazier, and the books will be collected. The rooms will be open on Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5. All, both town and country residents are welcome.

A state federation committee has been appointed on Lewis and Clark work. Mrs. Glines, Portland; Mrs. Young, Grant's Pass; Mrs. S. White, Baker City; Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Mrs. H. C. Guernsey, Pendleton. Others will be added.

The 1903 directory to the General Federation has recently been published. It shows an ever increasing growth of club work and membership. A board of seven officers and eight directors, two honorary presidents, six honorary vice-presidents, 21 honorary members, 48 state federation secretaries, 19 standing committees with a total membership of 77 women, 39 state federations, eight foreign clubs and 771 individual American clubs, and an individual membership of almost a round million.

DEATH OF AN OLD SETTLER.

Alexander Adams Passed Away Today After a Long Illness.

Alexander Adams, one of Pendleton's old pioneers, passed away at his home today at 11 o'clock, after a long illness. His death resulted from an attack of paralysis, though he had been sick for a long time before the end came this morning.

Mr. Adams came to Pendleton during the early '70s, and has lived here since with the exception of a short time spent in his old home in the East. He was 67 years old at the time of his death.

Besides his aged wife, six children survive: Richard, George and Robert, living in this county, while another son resides in Wyoming. One daughter is in Dakota and one in Missouri.

The funeral will be held tomorrow, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., of which order he was an old and honored member.

The county clerk's and county recorder's offices are hard worked with the warrants consequent on the close of the county court. All the accounts are now being issued and recorded.

GOLD ORE FROM SUSANVILLE.

Quartz Freight Eighty-Four Miles En Route to Tacoma.

F. M. Anderson and Robert Scott reached town last night with about $6,000, and left it all night in the Oregon feed yard on West Webb street. It took eight horses from 11 o'clock on Sunday last until 11 o'clock last night to haul the treasure 80 miles, and it weighed 9,430 pounds.

The treasure consisted of two large and strongly built wagons, loaded with concentrates from the Badger mine at Susanville, and billed for W. R. Rust, of the Tacoma Smelting Co. The ore was in small sacks, each about the size of a 50-pound flour sack and was estimated at from $70 to $80 per sack. Each wagon hauled 40 sacks, so that the estimated value of the two loads was in round numbers $6,000.

The Badger Mining Company has one of the richest mines in this part of the state and the ore that makes the two loads sent here is ore that has been milled, but from which the gold could not be extracted by the facilities at the mine; hence it is shipped to Tacoma to the smelter there.

It is 84 miles from Susanville to Pendleton and 80 miles from Baker City to Susanville, but the company each year hauls ore here where it ships to Tacoma over the Washington & Columbia River railroad. The ore is stored here in the warehouse until a carload has accumulated, when it is shipped to the smelter.

Last Sunday seven wagons started from Susanville bound for Whitney, where they will ship over the Sumpter Valley railroad and transfer.

The Susanville district is tributary to Pendleton and the mines draw a great deal of their supplies from here. Several more trips will be made by the transfer men this summer, and they carry back with them provisions and supplies of various kinds after having stored their cargoes of ore in the warehouse. The men are paid $7 a ton for the transfer of the ore from the mines to the warehouses.

La Grande, May 16.—Major J. D. Slater, of La Grande, has sent to the Historical Society at Portland, a bound volume of files of the paper edited by his father, the late ex-senator Slater, at Corvallis. It will be a valuable addition to the historical library.

The Trap Shooting Association of San Francisco, has issued a program of the coming handicap sportsmen's tournament, to be held in that city May 22, 23 and 24. Each of the three days will be divided into two sections of five 20-bird events in each section, or 200 birds a day. It will be given strictly under the rules of the Interstate Association. There is $1,400 added money and the entries are $200.
