WALLA WALLA WINS

POOR BASE RUNNING KEEPS DOWN PENDLETON'S SCORE.

Wind, Rain and Dust Contribute to Make a Disagreeable Day for the Spectators, and Poor Day for the Players.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.
Pendleton 2, Walla Walla 4.
Dayton 4, Colfax 3.

STANDING OF CLUBS.

Club	Pl'd	Won	Lost	P. C.
Pendleton	10	6	4	600
Dayton	10	6	4	600
Walla Walla	10	5	5	500
Colfax	10	5	5	500

Those people who were very enthusiastic and were impervious to wind and rain and dust and cold, attended the baseball game yesterday afternoon; as a consequence the attendance was small and far between.

The wind was something to remember if the playing was not, and it was so cold the players had to wear blankets to keep their joints from sticking. The high wind aided the pitcher in speed, but what he gained in that particular he lost in control. The batters couldn't reach the outfield and that perhaps accounts for the small score of 4 to 2 by which Walla Walla won the game.

Three double plays were made in the game, one by Bradley to Stoval, one by McGucken to Stoval, and the last by Hartman to himself. Hartman surprised himself Hogan sent him a bullet from the bat with Edwards on first. The little first socker nailed the sphere as it passed and sat down on the hay while Edwards ran to the bench for his pains.

Gass was the star of the firmament, as usual, by clever work in center. He had six chances and only made one mistake, and that one was the fault of the wind.

McGucken associated with the umpire in the center of the diamond, and tried to get the Indians to fan the air, but was not entirely successful. The wind made things hard for him in its mad race across the diamond and he gave five men first on balls. Marcus, for the Pendletonians, went him one better and issued six passes to the right hand sack.

While the score was close and against the local team, the victory should have stayed at home had the Indians improved their chances on the track. Poor base running lost the game.

The detailed score will tell the tale:

Pendleton—	ABR	H	PO	A	E
Neagel, 2b	3	0	2	3	2	0
Brown, c	5	0	0	7	0	1
Gass, cf	4	0	1	5	0	0
