FIVE-DAY SESSION OF THE BOYS WHO WORE THE GRAY

Thirteenth Annual Reunion at New Orleans in Session—Two Hundred Thousand Visitors and Old Soldiers Present.

New Orleans, La., May 16.—The United Confederate Veterans will meet in thirteenth annual reunion in this city Tuesday. A conservative estimate is that 200,000 visitors will be in New Orleans during the week. Decorative arches are being built in the down town streets and other work of preparation for the big gathering is being hastened. The meetings of the Sons of Veterans and of other affiliated bodies will serve to augment the attendance.

Brilliant Five-Day Program.

The program of the entire five days of the reunion has been arranged so as to provide many interesting features. The convention will assemble Tuesday morning in the specially-constructed auditorium at the Fair grounds. After addresses of welcome by the governor of Louisiana, the mayor of New Orleans, representatives of the various commercial bodies of the city and the local Confederate camps, a response will be made by General John P. Gordon, commander-in-chief. A brief business session will be held in the afternoon. Later there will be a reception at the Soldiers' Home by the Daughters of the Confederacy and in the evening special entertainments at the Tulane and Crescent theaters. Between the two business sessions of Wednesday an hour will be devoted at noon to memorial services in honor of Jefferson Davis and the Daughters of the Confederacy. In the evening a grand ball will be given in honor of the sponsors and maids of honor of the convention.

Thursday will be occupied with routine business by the convention and with visits to places of interest in and about the city. A second grand ball will be held in the evening. Friday is the day of the big parade, which will take place in the afternoon. The most important feature of Saturday will be the decoration of Confederate graves in the local cemeteries.

To Teach Causes of the War.

Many important matters are to come before the great reunion of the veterans, among which will be proper steps to be taken to teach young men and women the true history of the causes of the great Civil war and of the war itself. A great effort to instill into the minds of the young in the South the truth of the conflict is being made by the historical committee of the association, of which Gen. S. D. Lee is the chairman.

The annual convention of the Confederate Memorial Association, of which Mrs. W. J. Behan is president, will be held in New Orleans during the reunion of the veterans. The opening services of this convention will be the usual Jefferson Davis memorial service, which will be held in Christ's Church cathedral on Tuesday. To this great memorial service all United Confederate veterans, Sons of Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy have been cordially invited to assist. Gen. J. B. Gordon has announced his desire that every person visiting New Orleans during the reunion shall take part in the service, as a mark of appreciation of the women of the South, and their great work.

ECHO STOCK SHIPMENTS.

Over One Hundred Cars Shipped From That Point to Portland This Season.

Echo, May 16.—Yesterday evening 22 carloads of sheep were shipped by O. F. Bacon to Chicago, and eight carloads of cattle were shipped by G. W. Hunt to the Union Meat Company at Portland. There were 199 in the shipment, most of which were in excellent condition. Today 12 more cars of sheep will be shipped, and another car of cattle.

T. C. Benson, of the Union Meat Company, has shipped 112 cars from Echo to date this season. The cars represent an average value of $1,250 each.

Heavy Sheep Purchases.

T. A. Sullivan, a sheep buyer for Eastern purchasers, has purchased over 9,000 sheep in Washington county during the past two weeks. The deals were all for 2-year-old stock. The price paid was $2.25 per head. Purchases were made from the flocks of George Nesbit, Thomas Shannon, Ed Adams and several others.—Lewiston Tribune.

Senator Fulton at Wallowa Lake.

Senator C. W. Fulton will deliver the oration at Wallowa Lake on July 4th. Preparations are now being made for a grand celebration at that picturesque place.

Notice W. O. W.

Pendleton Camp, No. 41, W. O. W., will hold a social session Saturday night. All members are requested to be present.

After 50 years' service, D. W. Hitchcock, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific at San Francisco, has been retired on a half-pay pension, according to the Harriman pension plan.

THE PIONEERS' REUNION.

Fine Speakers Consent to Come—Athena Band Engaged.

M. A. Baker, chairman of the committee on speakers for the Pioneer's Reunion at Weston June 11, 12, 13, has secured two excellent speakers for the event, says the Weston Leader.

Rev. M. H. Marvin, of Walla Walla, has consented to deliver the annual address on Thursday, June 11. Mr. Marvin gave the address last year, and his hearers then were enthusiastic over its excellence. Rev. Andreas Bard, also of Walla Walla, consents to give the memorial sermon on Friday, June 12. Mr. Bard is well known as a gifted speaker, and greatly pleased a Weston audience at last year's annual program of the Alumni Association.

L. C. Proebstel, chairman of the committee on sports, is negotiating with the Adams and Milton baseball teams with a view to securing a game or two, between these well-matched teams. Instead of having numerous trivial races, Mr. Proebstel thinks of devoting fair-sized purses to 100 and 50-yard dashes between speedy sprinters. Weston has several local runners who can hit a gait of 11 seconds or less.

Mrs. Price and Miss Spangler, of the music committee, have begun practice with a large chorus of mixed voices which promises to prove a very pleasant musical feature of the reunion.

The Athena band has been engaged to furnish the music for the three days' reunion.

A Wish.

Mine be a ect beside the hill;
A beehive's hum shall soothe my ear;
A willow brook that turns a mill,
With many a fall shall linger near.

The swallow, oft, beneath my thatch
Shall twitter from her clay-built nest;
Oft shall the pilgrim lift the latch,
And share my meal, a welcome guest.

Around my ivied porch shall spring
Each fragrant flower that drinks the dew;
And Lucy, at her wheel, shall sing
In russet gown and apron blue.

The village church among the trees,
Where first our marriage vows were given,
With merry peals shall swell the breeze
And point with tapered spire to heaven.

—Samuel Rogers.

Wooden Poetry.

He saw the rural maiden encircled
By golden-rod and gazing dreamily
Over the autumn hills. "Ah!" he exclaimed,
"You glorious autumn woodlands!"
"You bet!" she replied, "Dad gits $6 a cord fer 'em. Hev you laid in yer coal?"

Girls Who Work

Girls who work are particularly susceptible to female ills, especially when obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night.

Day in and day out, month in and month out, the year through, the working girl toils; she is often bread winner of the family, and must work that others may live; whether she is sick or well, whether rains or shines, whether it is warm or cold she must get to her place of employment and perform her duties exacted from her.

Among this class the symptoms of female diseases are early manifest by weak and aching back, pain in the lower limbs and lower part of the stomach; in consequence of frequent wetting of the monthly periods become painful and irregular, and frequently faint and dizzy spells, with loss of appetite until life is a burden and it is hard work to drag about. All these symptoms point to a derangement of the female organism, and if taken in time can be easily and permanently cured.

A Cordial Invitation to Every Sick and Ailing Working Girl.

It is to these girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand, and extends a cordial invitation to correspond with her. Her unrivalled record of success in treating woman's ills makes her letters of advice of untold value to every ailing working girl, and from her wide experience and skill she quickly points the way to health. Her advice is free, and all letters are held by her in the strictest confidence. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Don't put off writing her until your health is wrecked.

Grateful Words from Working Girls Who Have Been Helped.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I want to thank you for what you have done for me. I was dreadfully tired, I stand over my work all day, and no one who hasn't tried it knows how it makes your back and side ache. I couldn't sleep, and had no appetite, but thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel entirely different now; it is a wonderful medicine. I do not feel that my work is hard now, and recommend your medicine to other girls who are always tired."—Miss ISABEL SURGIN, 293 Willis Ave., New York City.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done so much good for me that I wish to recommend it to all girls whose work keeps them standing on their feet all day in hot store. The doctor said I could not live and I must give up work, and stay out of doors; he did not seem to realize that a girl cannot afford to stop working. My back ached, my appetite was poor and I could not sleep; menstruation was scanty and very painful. One day when suffering I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me, I soon found that my menstrual periods were free from pain and natural; now my health is fine, and every one is surprised at the change in me, and I cannot be too grateful for what you have done for me."—Miss JANET PAINE, 530 W. 125th Street, New York City.—$5000.00 forfeit if originals of above letters proving genuineness cannot be produced.

WISE IS THE WOMAN WHO HAS FAITH IN LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

MISS SARAH FINLEY,

Vice-President of the Palmetto Club, Memphis, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI is a thoroughly scientific and modern remedy, meeting the needs of the modern woman in the modern way—without the torture of an operation. Wine of Cardui has cured them in the privacy of their homes and it has found a place in the hearts of American women that no other medicine has found. In their gratitude over 10,000 American women have written letters commending Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui meets their wants as no other medicine does. It sustains the young girl at the shock of her entrance to womanhood. Women who take Wine of Cardui have little discomfort during pregnancy and little pain at childbirth. When the change of life appears they enter a happy, healthy old age. Every month it comes to the rescue to assist Nature in throwing the impurities from the body.

Miss Sarah Finley, of Memphis, Tenn., vice-president of the Palmetto Club of that city, speaks for herself and many friends when she bestows the following praise on Wine of Cardui:

"Among the numerous medicines placed before suffering women for their relief none can touch McEize's Wine of Cardui. It towers above them all as a reliable female remedy. It simply drives pain and disease away and restores health in an incredibly short period. I have taken great interest in this medicine for the past two years, since it brought health and strength to me. I have also recommended it to a number of my friends and they who have used it speak of it in the highest terms and I feel that it is praise well bestowed."

If you are suffering from female weakness Wine of Cardui is the medicine you need.

You can have health the same as Miss Finley if you will take the Wine of Cardui treatment. If you need advice further than the complete directions given on the bottle, address The Ladies Advisory Department, Chattanooga Med. Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
