R. T. Brown, Formerly of Pendleton, Makes Record in Missouri.

George Brown, brother of R. T. Brown, formerly telegraph editor of Brown, formerly telegraph editor of the East Oregonian, now editor and one of the proprietors of the Central City (lowa) News Letter, continues to play good ball. He has been tour-ing Missouri with the crack team of the state. The following local no-tices from the Springfield, (Mo.) Leader, speak for themselves: "Nowda seed?" tawell up so because

"Nevada needn't swell up so because it has a prosecuting attorney on its team. Pitcher Brown is editor and publisher of a newspaper in Iowa and a college-bred man. Brown made himself popular by bringing in the winning run with his second hit in a 10-inning, 1-to-0 game this week against Nevada, May 7."

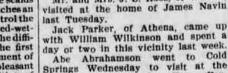

"R. T. Brown pltched a game for the Springfield, Mo., ball team Mon-day, against Joplin, letting them down with two hits and no runs. The score was 2 to 0, May 14."

to be physically and mentally sound it People with good blood possess strong, steady nerves and are blest with good appetites and digestion, and enjoy sound, refreshing sleep. If we could always maintain the purity of the blood then we might enjoy perpetual health, but it becomes infected and poisoned and most of the ills that afflict humanity and undermine the constitution are caused by an impoverished or polluted condition of this vital fluid.

When the blood is diseased the skin loses its healthy appearance, and the complexion, its freshness and beauty and becomes red and rough and full of pimples and splotches. Itching, scaly eruptions, blackheads, boils and rashes break out upon the body when the blood is too poor or too thin and acid, and is not supplying proper nourish-ment to the system.
