SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Concerning the People of Pendleton and Vicinity • Notes Personal and Otherwise • By Our Regular Correspondent

Wedding Bells.

One can almost hear the wedding bells chiming in the distance, when the nuptials of two prominent society girls—Miss Mable Nye and Miss Elsie Folsom—plight their troth. Miss Nye becomes the wife of Mr. Lachlan Macleay, while Mr. Guy Wade takes for his bride Miss Folsom. Both weddings will take place at the Church of the Redeemer, that of Miss Nye and Mr. Macleay being on June 10th and the Wade-Folsom ceremony occurring one week later, June 17th.

In the marriage of Miss Nye, Pendleton loses one of its social favorites, while a handsome home on Locust Hill awaits the occupancy of Mr. Wade and bride, which means that Pendleton society will not have to surrender both young ladies to other cities.

Both the brides-elect have been the recipients of much social attention in honor of their approaching weddings.

A "Handkerchief Shower."

Miss Edna Thompson was the hostess on Thursday afternoon, at a "handkerchief shower," given in honor of Miss Mable Nye. The handkerchiefs were numerous, most all being the handiwork of the many friends of Miss Nye. A guessing contest formed part of the afternoon's pleasures, and Miss Stella Alexander, having the greatest number of correct answers, was awarded a large bunch of red carnations. Later, the guests were invited out on the lawn, where, to their surprise, was a table beautifully decorated with flowers and foliage, surrounded by hammocks, many pretty pillows and rugs. In this delightful spot refreshments were served. The young ladies invited were: Misses Fanchon Borie, Dena Hendley, Lavelle Moorhouse, Esma Sautelle, Bessie Duncan, Maud, Gertrude and Lenore Sheridan, Jessie Hartman, Nellie Cameron, Stella and Bertha Alexander, Ethel Hayes, Miss Strong, Mrs. L. G. Frazier, Ida and Harriet Thompson.

Farewell Picnic.

Homer V. Carpenter, who expects to make Portland his home after June 1, will be the honored guest of a picnic party tomorrow, on McKay creek. His friends who have been active in arrangement of the affair are: Misses Nellie Cameron, Edna Thompson, Mable Nye, Esma Sautelle, Lavelle Moorhouse, Ethel Johnson; Messrs. William Keller, Fred Lampkin, George Hartman, William McDonald and Harry Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frazier will act as chaperones.

High School Reception.

Pendleton's high school will give a reception tonight at the assembly hall to the visiting teams from Union and Baker City. Refreshments will be served.

Social and Personal.

Mrs. Lavelle, sister of Mr. Joseph Tallman, who has been spending the winter with a brother at Walla Walla, is in the city on a visit for a couple of weeks, when she will leave for her home in Chicago.
Mrs. Thomas Halley and children expect to leave soon for a visit at Boise City of three weeks. Her sister, Miss Beach, will depart at the same time for a prolonged visit at her former home in Iowa.
Miss Gertrude Sheridan is convalescing after a week's illness of tonsillitis.
Mrs. Ross Dickson and son, Westbrook, are ill with the mumps.
Mrs. T. C. Taylor is contemplating a trip back to her former home at Pontiac, Ill.
Mrs. R. Alexander, who has been visiting in Portland for a few days, returned home yesterday.
Miss Elsie Folsom will be honored by a "linen shower" next week, given by Misses Ida and Harriet Thompson.
Miss Harriet Strickland, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. B. Wade and Mrs. R. G. Thompson, will leave next week for Portland, where she expects to remain permanently.
Mrs. A. J. Borie is expected home from Southern California the latter part of next week, after an absence of three months.
Mrs. Ernest Hartman and baby, who have been the guests of Mrs. G. A. Hartman for a few weeks, returned to their home in Portland this morning.
Miss Cosbie Ralley is out again, after her recent illness with the mumps.
Mrs. Susan Welch left today for Portland, to make her home with her son, James.
Miss Stella Alexander will give a

Miss Fanchon Borie went to Walla Walla today, where she will be the guest for a week of Miss Eva Switzer.

Club Notes.

The program for the state federation meeting in Astoria is now nearly ready for the printer. It promises to be interesting and instructive. The convention will be preeminently a business convention, with such entertainment and relaxation as is usually afforded by the hostess club. It is expected that Mrs. Eva Emery Dye will give a short talk on her favorite subjects of Lewis and Clark and Sacajawea, probably the second evening. Arrangements have been made to have Dr. Woods Hutchinson, secretary of the state board of health, give an address that will occupy the larger part of the second evening. This address will be public, and on subjects germane to the general work of the federation. Club women of Oregon need not be told anything further on the subject. Dr. Hutchinson's name is a guarantee that we shall hear the best that is to be had, as he is well known to be one of Oregon's most entertaining speakers, with a fund of knowledge and wisdom on a great variety of subjects.

Another subject that is of vital interest to all, "The relation of our state committees to the clubs," will be thoroughly discussed, the discussion led, it is expected, by Mrs. Young, lately from Michigan, a state where practical club work is well developed.

The railroads of Oregon will give usual convention rates; possibly the O. R. & N. will give its summer rate to the coast, but this is not assured. It is expected that arrangements can be made to have the tickets made good 30 days at least, so that any delegates wishing to remain over to attend the Gladstone Park Chautauqua Assembly, may do so.

Mrs. Robert Burdette, first vice-president of the General Federation, will be at Chautauqua under the auspices of the Oregon State Federation, and it will be an opportunity to come in contact with the larger issues of club work. Mrs. Burdette is a pleasing speaker, and conversant with national club work.

At the meeting called for a convention of the women's Lewis and Clark organizations, it was decided to perfect a state "Woman's Department for Lewis and Clark Fair work," the local organizations to be called "departments," with the local name prefixed, viz: "Oregon City Lewis and Clark Department," etc., instead of "Lewis and Clark Women's Clubs," as heretofore. The name of women's clubs for the organization has led to endless confusion and misunderstanding, and by the request of the president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, a request that was heartily supported by the now famous Mr. Cooper, the new name was adopted. So now, the Women's Clubs and Federation (state) and "The Woman's Department for Lewis and Clark Fair Work," entirely different organizations with entirely different purposes, and no confusion of titles or names, may go peacefully on their different ways (as they always have, in fact,) but with no further need of explanations to an inquiring public. The state federation has well defined plans, is in communication with the officers of the St. Louis and Lewis and Clark fairs, and has plenty of work on hand to engage the hearty effort of every club woman in the state.

The Woman's Club will hold its annual meeting next Tuesday for election of officers, at the home of Mrs. C. B. Wade, at 2:30. Members are requested to make a special effort to be prompt in their attendance, that the business may be transacted. All club women in the city are invited later, at 3 o'clock, to participate in the social features of the afternoon.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

G. A. R. Post Will Hold Services at M. E. Church Tomorrow.

The veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic will hold their memorial services in the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All of the old veterans will attend and a meeting of especial interest is assured. Following is the special order of service:

Voluntary.
Prayer—G. W. Rigby, post commander.
Song—"They'll Never March Again."
Scripture reading.
Song—"Dropping from the Ranks."
Sermon—Rev. Warner.
Song—"Roll Call."
Benediction.

Elects Officers.

The Wool Sorters' and Graders' Union has elected the following officers: James Conlan was unanimously chosen president; Herman Peters, secretary-at-arms; William Tramble, Clarence Roach and Arthur Beacham were chosen delegates to the Pendleton Central Labor Council. Mr. Conlan succeeds Melvin Davis, who resigned.

STORES WILL CLOSE

PENDLETON WILL HELP WALLA WALLA CELEBRATE.

Most of the Business Houses Will Be Closed Monday Next and the Two Excursion Trains to the Northward Will Be Loaded.

Pendleton will be a deserted place a stretch of vacant streets and empty houses on Monday next. All of the clothing and dry goods establishments in the city will close their doors at 11:45 on that day in order that their employees may go to Walla Walla on the excursion leaving here at 12 o'clock noon. The banks of the city will remain closed all day, not opening at all from Saturday evening till Tuesday morning.

It is the general sentiment among all the business men of the city to close during the afternoon. Representative stores in various lines of trade have expressed themselves as willing and anxious to close at noon on Monday, provided it is a general movement among the concerns of the city. If all of the merchants in each line of the city trade would agree among themselves to shut their places after 12 o'clock the town would be closed as tightly as on Sunday. What action will be taken is not known, but it is probable that several of the different lines of trade will follow the example set by the banks and the clothing houses, and close their places of business.

A large crowd of people from this city will go on the Monday excursions. Trains will be run over the O. R. & N. roads and cars will be provided to haul the crowd of people intent on seeing the nation's chief executive.

The W. & C. R. train will leave the Webb street station at 7:30 a. m. The O. R. & N. train will leave at 12 noon.

PROGRAM FOR ATHLETICS.

Arrival of the Union Team Greatly Increases the Interest.

The high school athletic teams from Baker City and Union are both at the Golden Rule. The Union school has five boys here to uphold its banner, and they will try hard to win their events. They are crippled by the absence of their sprinters and hurdler, but will try for the rest of their events. Their success will depend largely upon the order of the program. The entries are as follows for this afternoon's events:

Baker City—100-yard dash, Keller, Chandler and James; 220-yard dash, Kelly, Chandler and James; shot put, Allen, Richardson and James; hammer throw, Allen and James; 120-yard hurdles, Newton and Allen; 220-yard hurdle, Allen and Kelly; high jump, Kelly and Dodson; broad jump, Kelly, Richardson and Brown; discus, Allen and James; pole vault, Neal and Allen; 880-yard run, Brown, Mitchell and Parker; 440-yard dash, Brown, Mitchell and Dodson; one mile relay race, Brown, Dodson, Richardson and Chandler.

Union high school—220-yard dash, Lough; shot put, Foster; hammer throw, Mulverhill; 120-yard hurdles, Lough; 220-yard hurdles, Lough; high jump, Foster; discus, Foster and Dobbins; pole vault, Mulverhill and Johnson; 880-yard run, Lough and Johnson; 440-yard dash, Lough and Johnson; one mile relay race, Lough, Dobbins, Johnson and Mulverhill.

AT THE CAMP MEETING.

Largest Crowd of the Season in Attendance Last Night.

Last evening saw the largest congregation of the meetings of the Adventists. Very few vacant places were left in the big tent which seats 1,200.

Some of the most interesting subjects will be presented this evening and tomorrow, and if the fine weather continues large numbers will be in attendance.

Adventist Services Tomorrow.

Public preaching at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. At 3 o'clock the Eastern question will be the subject of the sermon. Rev. H. Schultz speaks the second time upon this subject by request. Tomorrow evening's meeting will be the last of this year. Especially live and interesting topics will be presented between now and that time. All are cordially invited.

Remodeling at Hunziker's.

Louis Hunziker has been having a season of house cleaning at his jewelry store on Main street for the past week. He has had the entire interior of the room repaired and repapered. He has put in along one side a row of large display cases where his fine assortment of silver and glassware can be shown to the best advantage. Facing these will be large mirrors, adding by their reflection much to the appearance of the store. When the improvements are entirely done the place will be up-to-date in every particular.

Action for Divorce.

A divorce suit was filed by Peter West today in the case of Arminda B. Wilder vs. Wallace Wilder. The cause of action as given was cruel and inhuman treatment. The parties reside near Milton.
