Throw 'em Out Sale

This week ends the opportunity to buy goods at cost and less than cost. The litigation we occupy has been in litigation for years, but the final case has been tried and we trust the decision will be handed down before June 1st, when we wish to commence remodeling.

Prices advertised last week will still hold good this week, but at a corresponding hour both Friday and Saturday we will quote some exceedingly "warm" prices.

- From 9 to 11 a. m. 18 lbs. sugar $1
- From 11 to 1 p. m. 6 bars Owl soap and one bar 25c
- From 1 to 3 p. m. Mocha and Java Coffee, per pound, 27 1/2c
- From 3 to p. m. 5 packages A. & H. Soda 25c

Remember this is your last opportunity to buy fine china at less than cost. These prices were offered by a department store in Portland it would take a dozen policemen to keep the people in line.

RIDGE AND VICINITY

ENTERTAINING BATCH OF SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Severe Storm Near Alba is Hard on Shorn Sheep—Fine Blooded Short-horn Bull Changes Hands—William Fletcher Afflicted With a Cancer. Ridge, May 25.—William Fletcher, of Nye, and his brother, Arthur, who has been visiting him, went up in the Big Bend country, Washington, to visit another brother, and then Mr. Fletcher intends to proceed to San Francisco to take a treatment from a specialist for his cancer.

Professor A. M. Crozier, who has been managing the winter and spring term of school at Gurdane, has resigned his position and starts for Brownsville, Ill., this week, where he will take charge of and manage a warehouse for his brother, H. H. Crozier, who is a large wheat dealer. Mr. Crozier has been in this county about 26 months, and during that time he has taught over 20 months of very successful school.

James Nelson, of Vinson, has moved his large herd of stock cattle to his mountain ranch and range near the Lehman Springs for summer.

Jerry Durham and J. H. Robertson were transacting business in Pilot Rock and vicinity this week.

James Marcum, of Gurdane, made a trip to Pendleton this week on business.

F. B. Hartshorn, of Gurdane, made a business trip to Pendleton this week.

Frank Corley, of Gurdane, is visiting in this locality today.

Miss Margaret Turner is stopping at present in the vicinity of Pilot Rock.

J. Baker has returned home after a visit in Pendleton for a short time.

The sheepshearers are at the Edwards Bros. shearing.

Mrs. C. R. Cate, of Gurdane, has been badly off with heart trouble, but is improving again. She is under the doctor's care at Pilot Rock.

F. F. Fletcher and his mother, Mrs. William Fletcher, of Nye, were transacting business in the city of Pendleton this week.

William Simonton was transacting business in Pendleton this week.

William Pharnwald was doing business in Pilot Rock last Tuesday.

James L. Hall, of Gurdane, was doing business in Pendleton this week.

Superintendent Nowlin visited the Gurdane school last week and is making a visit at this end of the county.

Thomas Ogle reports wheat in fair condition near his farm north of Pendleton. He also reports that a water-spout of last January washed a ditch and some holes in the road running through his farm, one-half mile, and that the road supervisor has just completed the filling and leveling up of said road.

George W. Linsner sold to Jacob Borne, of Ukiab, a fine thoroughbred snorthorn bull calf the other day. This makes the second deal of the same kind between these two gentlemen in the last 10 months, with good prices being received.

The family of Verne Bannister, of Athena, are reported to have a severe attack of scarlet fever at present.

Dug Out Six Coyotes.

B. F. Ogle and S. C. Kilgore, of Athena, were transacting business in Pendleton, Pilot Rock and this locality this week. While here they and J. T. Ogle captured six young coyotes under an old house on the farm.

Snow on Mountains.

P. E. and M. E. Fletcher were out on the mountains looking up cattle range last Monday. They reported five inches of snow on the Cold Spring, near Alba, and still snowing. Snow was drifting some. They say two bands of Antone Vey's sheep, storm bound between Cold Springs and the Peterson Meadows. They had lost four and expected to lose more.

SUNFLOWER DRUGGISTS.

Kansas Pharmacists Have a Holiday and a Convention.

Chanute, Kas., May 26.—The Kansas Pharmaceutical Association, composed of the leading druggists throughout the state, began its twenty-fourth annual meeting here today. The session began at 10 o'clock this morning with an address of welcome by Mayor D. M. Kennedy, to which response in behalf of the visitors was made by F. A. Snow, of Topeka.

The annual address of the president, J. W. Cookson, and the reports of other officers and of committees occupied the remainder of the opening session. New officers are to be chosen tomorrow and the convention will come to an end Thursday. Many of the members are accompanied by their wives and families, and the features of entertainment form an important part of the three days' program.

Power of Labor.

Karamsin, the Russian traveler, having observed Lavator's diligence in study, visiting the sick and relieving the poor, greatly surprised at his activity, said to him, "Whence have you so much strength of mind and power of endurance?" "My friend," replied he, "man rarely wants the power to work when he possesses the will. The more I labor in the discharge of my duties so much the more ability and inclination to labor do I find within myself."

Federation Figures.

Mr. Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, reports relative to the conditions of employment during March, 1903, that 2.1 per cent of 36,293 were without employment. In February of 49,790 reported 6.1 per cent were unemployed. It is also reported that during last March 157 charters were issued by the federation as follows: National and international unions, 2; central bodies, 12; federal labor unions, 54; local trade unions, 89.

Hardy Fowls.

When long, silvery hairs are found extending beyond the feathers on the thighs and lower body of the bird, it is almost certain indication of health and hardiness.

ITCHING ECZEMA

And Other Itching, Burning and Scaly Eruptions.

Instant Relief and Speedy Cure Afforded by

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills When All Else Fails.

COMPLETE TREATMENT, $1.00.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, in the severer forms, take Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring and humiliating skin, scalp and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all else fails.
