Fatality at Walla Walla.
A blacksmith named Olson, of Touchet, was killed at Walla Walla yesterday in a collision with a team. His skull was broken and he died in the hospital about two hours after the accident.

Unfortunate
The cleanest and most careful housewives are often afflicted with the trouble and discomfort of bed bugs. The thing to do when they are discovered is not to waste a minute but procure a good reliable bug destroyer and go at them at once.
KOEPPEN'S BED BUG DESTROYER is a liquid and causes the pests out of every crack and place where they can hide and carry destructively with it. Non-poisonous to human beings but death to all vermin. 25c for a large bottle with sprinkler top—ready to use.

WORK OF PICKPOCKETS.

Pickpockets Touched Two Well-Known Pendleton Men.
Many a man who went to Walla Walla yesterday came home with lighter pockets, some from legitimate expenditures and some through the efforts of a horde of pickpockets who infested the city. Two Pendleton men at least, were called upon to contribute to the ease and luxury of the light-fingered gentry, and from one of them the robbers got a tidy sum. From the other a glimpse of what might be.

F. P. Rounds, the mechanical foreman at the O. R. & N. roundhouse, and James McCloud, of Webb and Thompson streets, were both passengers on the excursion to see the president, and while these men were standing with open eyes and ears, watching and listening to the nation's chief, Mr. Rounds yielded up his annual pass over the O. R. & N. system, and $70 in good coin of the realm, while Mr. McCloud contributed a $300 check, the payment of which he stopped as soon as he discovered his loss.
From the accounts given by Mr. Rounds the thieves must have reaped a harvest, for the gentleman saw 14 pocketbooks all ripped open, lying in an alley. He thought at first he had lost his money and commenced to search for it, but when he saw the purses scattered about he gave up and accepted his loss.

Chancellor Maloney's Record.
Local club men have been feeling mighty chesty over their bowling records, but it remained for our esteemed grand chancellor of Pythianism, J. W. Maloney, of Pendleton, to reduce this morbid exultation to the proportions of a trio of ten cent pieces, which he gracefully accomplished last evening. Mr. Maloney ran up a score of 70 just to let those present know that he was in the cocked-hat class.—Eugene Register.
