Unfortunate

The cleanest and most careful housewives are often afflicted with the trouble and discomfort of bed bugs.
The thing to do when they are discovered is not to waste a minute but procure a good reliable bug destroyer and go at them at once.
KOEPPEN'S BED BUG DESTROYER is a liquid and causes the pests out of every crack and place where they can hide and destroy them with it. Non-poisonous to human beings but death to all vermin

FOR FAIR EXHIBIT

THEY FIND GREAT AND INCREASING INTEREST.

Best of the Exhibit Will Be Afterward Sent to St. Louis—County Courts Making Appropriations in Aid of County Displays — Hoped Every Section of State Will Be Represented.

President W. H. Wehrung, of Hillsboro, and Secretary M. D. Wisdom, of Portland, members of the board of managers for the Oregon State Fair, are in the city today, having come down from La Grande this morning.
The gentlemen are traveling through Oregon in the interest of the Oregon fair for this fall, and are confident of having the best exhibit ever placed in the entry books.

Mr. Wisdom outlined the policy of the board and told of the efforts it was making in the direction of a good exhibit.

The two gentlemen have just returned from a trip to Union, where they placed the county work in the hands of a committee composed of Messrs. Brown, Miller and Olenburg, who will secure a collection of the county's products for the pavilion.

Liberal System of Prizes.

The counties will be each asked to give exhibits, and as an inducement, prizes will be offered for the eight best exhibits. The first prize will be $300; the second $250; the third, $200; the fourth, $150; the fifth, $100; and the sixth, seventh and eighth will be $100 each.

Complete County Exhibits Wanted.

It is the wish of the board to secure county exhibits, each to be as complete a representation as possible of the grasses, grains and fruits grown in that county. The board would like to have taken to the fair at Salem the best of everything grown in each county, the things that grow under the ground and those that grow above. They want them canned, pressed and dried and fresh from the rivers, trees and ground. In fact, they want to give to the people visiting the fair from the East, an easily accessible glimpse of the products of Oregon, from one boundary to the other.

They want to place side by side in the big pavilion at Salem a picture of each county as far as may be arranged, so that the people can see in imagination the fields of grain and the different articles grown, and can judge by what they see of the climatic conditions, the soil and the resources of each part of the state.
With such an exhibit, one complete in every detail, one showing the whole of Oregon's productiveness and what each section of the state can do the visiting people of the East here in search of homes, could judge the state and pick the locality in which they wish to settle far more easily and readily than by any amount of scattered and abortive advertising.

Appropriations by County Courts.

The competition is made competitive in order to arouse added interest among the farmers and producers over the state. County pride will help to stimulate private interest, and a grand exhibit will result. Already the western part of the state and as far south as Jackson county have awakened to the desirability of a good presentation of their resources, and the county courts have offered from $200 to $300 as a private premium to the people for the best exhibits. The western part of the state is cognizant of the advantages to be derived from the fair, and are working hard for it, but the board does not want it to be a one-sided show, and are after the stock, agricultural and horticultural exhibits of the eastern country.
The matter will be placed in the hands of a progressive and energetic man from each county and the board expects great results to spring from their efforts.

Will Send the Best to St. Louis.

Another reason why the state should have the best exhibit that ever was gathered for the coming fair, is that the best of the whole, the cream of the Oregon exhibit, will be shipped to St. Louis for the World's Fair of 1904.

From the exhibit at the state fair it is hoped to get the bulk of Oregon's general exhibit, and each article taken will be credited to the county from which it is sent. For this reason it is desirable that the people of the entire state interest themselves in the coming fair. Messrs. Wisdom and Wehrung will endeavor to place the matter of the Umatilla exhibit in the hands of a Pendleton man who will see that Umatilla has full and fair representation not only at Salena, in the fall, but at St. Louis in 1904.

Professor W. S. Wilson, for the past year assistant principal at the Academy, left last evening with his family for Pittsburgh, Pa., his old home, where he will reside in the future. Professor Wilson will be missed by patrons and students at the Academy, where his work was of the best, and his efforts were earnest and sincere in the upbuilding of the school.

bany on June 1.

First Oysters in Pendleton.

N. C. Kofoed, of Ilwaco, has the distinction of being the first man to introduce fresh oysters in Eastern Oregon. He was running a restaurant in The Dalles in the '80s, burned out, everything was destroyed and Mr. Kofoed was left with only a few dollars. He then went to Pendleton and opened an oyster house. Never before had the residents of that little hamlet—for it was a small place at that time—been able to get fresh oysters. They went wild over the introduction of them and Mr. Kofoed says it was impossible for him to keep demands supplied. He remained there in the oyster business until his wife's health gave way and he was forced to leave. Then he came to Ilwaco and went into the saloon business where he has been ever since.—
