* GERMAN PARTY WILL CAST

Some of the Demands That Are Included in Their Platform-Profes sional Men Are Flocking to the Socialist Fold in Europe.

3,000,000 VOTES THIS YEAR.

New York, June 2.—The socialist democratic party of Germany, which is expected to show increased strength in the coming elections, is the only German party which has grown without a pause for the past 20 years. O. Eltzbacher gives some facts worth bearing in mind when the new returns come in.

The socialist democratic vote in the past six general elections has risen in this fashion:

312,000 763.100 1893 2,107,076

The socialists polled 6.12 per cent of the total vote in 1881 and 27.18 per cent in 1898. They cast 50 per cent more votes at the last election than any other party, and yet, owing to the unfair apportionment, their 2,107,100 voters have only 57 seats in the reich-stag against 102 seats for the 1.455,100 voters of the next most numerous party, the center.

The present socialist democratic platform is not what we should call socialist, but rather advanced liberal. Its demands are:

1. One vote for every man and wo man; a holiday on election day; pay ment of members of parliament.

2. Responsibility of the government to parliament; local self-government.

ment and the referendum. 3. Substitution of militia system for great standing army.

4. Freedom of speech and the press Legar equality of the sexes. Disectablishment of the churches.

Free non-sectarian schools, with ompulsory attendance.

Gratuitious legal proceedings. Free medical attendance and burials.

10. Progressive income and inheritance taxes
The social democrats are distinguished by the high personal integri-ty of their leaders. According to Mr. Eltzbacher, they form "by far the best led, best managed and the most homogeneous party in Germany," in-deed "the only party which, from an English point of view, can be consid-ered a party,"

It is expected that at the next election an immense number of bankers, merchants and professional men of liberal views will vote the socialist democratic ticket. As candidates for the reichstag must have an absolute majority of all votes cast before there can be a choice, it was necessary to vote again in 48 per cent of the constituencies at the last election. Heretofore all the other par ties have been accustomed to com-bine against the social democrats in these second polls. This will not happen again, and there seems reason to expect that in the next reichstag cial democratic members, elected by 5,000,000 voters.

IN THE GOOD OLD FASHIONED

Powdered Wigs Formed an Important Adjunct to a Gentleman's Apparel. It is safe to say that the majority of bald men of today would gladly revive the old, dignified custom if they could. But, they can do the next best thing to n; that is, to revive the growth of the hair nature gave them.

In cases where the hair root or hair bulb has not been completely destroyed by parasites that infest it, Newbro's Herpicide will do wonders in the way of stimulating the growth of lifeless and falling hair. Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. That is the successful mission of Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the perpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. by F. W. Schmidt & Co.

IOWA MASONS MEET.

Brothers of the Compass and Square Hold Annual Conclave.

Waterloo, Iowa, June 2.-Masons of high degree from local lodges throughout the state are gathered here for the sixtleth annual meeting of the grand lodge of the order. At 8:45 o'clock this morning the members of the grand lodge assembled at the trying House and under escort Ascalon commandery, No. 25. K. moved in procession to Grace M. E. church, where the opening exercises were held. The visitors were coru ally greeted by Hon. C. E. Pickett, to whose address appropriate sponses were made by repres by representatives of the grand lodge.

These preliminaries concluded the meeting went into executive session for the consideration of reports of officers and committees and the trans-action of other business relating to the affairs of the order. This evening the members of the grand lodge will be guests at a reception and enter-tainment given by the Eastern Star chapter of Waterloo. The sessions of the grand lodge will continue through Wednesday and Thursday.
