COMMERCE-TRADE

DULL, SICKENING THUD WHEN CABBAGE DROPPED.

Utter Inaction Prevails in the Grain Markets and Complete Stagnation in the General Price List of Produce, Staples and Hides—Nothing Going or Coming.

If those interested wish to see or hear any changes in the local market they will have to get a microscope and an ear trumpet. And under those conditions they would have heard but one thing to disturb the stillness, the drop of cabbage from 5 to 4 cents a pound. Everything else is the same as it was last week. The dry weather has not made any change in the wheat quotations. Any way, the failure or the prospering of the local crop would not affect the market of the world to any great extent. There will be good crops around us, in the Palouse country and in the neighboring states, and Umatilla county will not be cropless. Anyway, there is no change in anything and the market is dull and even.
