

HERPICIDE

A Luxuriant Growth of Hair,
the chief adjunct of beauty, is now placed within the reach of every one by means of Newbro's Herpicide, a new scientific discovery that actually destroys the microbes responsible for all scalp diseases.

It not only makes dandruff and falling hair things of the past, but invigorates the hair roots, causing a soft, thick growth to supplant the old thin and brittle one. Here is what one happy woman says:

PHILADELPHIA, MO., Nov. 26, '92.
My hair was coming out very rapidly, and as it grew, was entirely bald, and calling on my physician he strongly recommended Herpicide to me, and after three or four applications my hair stopped falling, and is coming in again quite thick. I used to be troubled with dandruff, of which I am cured, so you see I have cause to praise Newbro's Herpicide.

NORWAY'S GENIUS

EDWARD GREIG, THE COMPOSER, IS FETED.

One of the Most Wonderful Musical Freaks of Modern Times—Greatest Violinist Since Ole Bull's Day.

Christiania, June 15.—All Norway united today in doing honor to Edward Grieg, the nation's most honored and most famous musician and composer, on the occasion of his sixteenth birthday. Norway's most eminent musicians, statesmen and men of letters gathered at Berger, and took part in the great festival arranged in honor of the celebrated musician. The list of visitors was headed by Bjornstjerne Bjornson and his wife. A feature of the celebration was the reading of letters and messages of congratulation which poured in upon Grieg from famous people throughout the world. Announcement was made of the successful completion of a fund to be known as the Grieg memorial fund, the interest on which is to be the subject of his disposition as long as he lives, and after his death is to be applied to any purpose which he may indicate.

Since Ole Bull's death Edward Grieg is the most popular musician in Norway and occupies the foremost place and is regarded as the highest representative of the Norwegian musical art. He lives quietly at Hop, a little village on the railway from Bergen to Voss, where he has a charming cottage surrounded by beech trees.

Grieg is a dwarf and a hunchback, but has a remarkable face and a winning manner to those whom he wishes to please. He lives a very retired life, seldom appears except to conduct an orchestra, is proud and arrogant toward strangers and not easily approached.

His musical genius developed early. When he was six or seven years old he played the violin and the piano so well as to attract the attention of Ole Bull, who was then living in Bergen. By his advice Grieg was sent to Leipzig Conservatory at the age of 15, where he remained four years. He then went to Copenhagen and studied with Gade for three or four years. Association with him and Nordick, the composer of the Norwegian national hymn, modified his taste and style, which had been acquired and developed under German influence. In 1870 he spent a year with Franz Liszt, and then went to Christiania, where he remained several years, conducting an orchestra, giving concerts and becoming the foremost musician in the country.

"The Musical Union," which has done more than any other influence to develop the public taste and encourage the musical art in Norway, was organized by Grieg in 1870, and he conducted it alone until 1873, when Johan Svendsen joined him. It was during this time that Grieg first became known to the world through his compositions for the piano and orchestra and particularly through the music for Ibsen's dramatic poem "Per Gynt," and Bjornsen's "Signora Jorsalfar." In 1874 his services were recognized by the Norwegian parliament, which voted him a pension of $500 for life. He has conducted concerts in London, Paris and other cities of Europe and everywhere the highest tributes have been paid to his musical genius.

United States and Germany are everywhere in evidence.

President and Diplomatic Corps.
President Roosevelt and a number of the diplomatic corps are coming from Washington to attend the big opening concert this evening. The program will open with the Wagner "Kaiser March." An address by President Roosevelt will be followed by three songs by the mass chorus: "God Greet Thee," Engelsberg; "Old German Song," Malamet, and "Morning Call," Zoellner. The third number of the program will be the prelude and "Liebestod," from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde." Miss Louise Vogt singing the words of Isolde. The Wagner number will be followed by the andante from Beethoven's Fifth symphony, given by the orchestra, directed by Melamet.

LIBERTY BELL TAKES A TRIP.
Taken to an Anniversary Celebration of Battle of Bunker Hill.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 15.—On a specially built car gayly decorated with the national colors and under the protection of a squad of the most stalwart members of the Quaker City police force, the old Liberty Bell left Philadelphia this morning bound for Boston, where it is to be a center of attraction at the 128th anniversary celebration of the battle of Bunker Hill next Wednesday.

The route of the historic relic has been laid out so as to include many places connected with the revolutionary history. Thus the first stops are to be at Princeton and Monmouth. Opportunity will also be given the residents of Providence, R. I., Plymouth and Concord, Mass., Stonington, Conn., and other points to view the famous bell on what may be its last trip away from Philadelphia.

CEMENT WORKERS CONFER.
Steps Being Taken to Unionize in Canada and the United States.

San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—The formation of a strong labor union of the cement workers of the United States and Canada is expected to result from a conference begun in this city. The purposes of the proposed organization are to secure a shorter work day, better conditions of labor, and obtain higher wages for the cement workers and in general, to elevate their condition.

Preliminary organization was affected today and committees appointed to frame by-laws and make other necessary arrangements for the permanent organization of the union. The convention will continue in session through the greater part of the week.

FLAG DAY CELEBRATED.
Official Origin Was One Hundred and Twenty-Six Years Ago.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 15.—Philadelphia held its celebration of Flag Day today, though it was 126 years ago yesterday that congress, assembled at Independence Hall resolved, "That the flag of the 13 United States be 13 stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be 13 stars, white in a blue field, representing the new constellation."

Fossil Hunting in Montana.
Princeton N. J., June 15.—The Princeton geological expedition, for which preparations have been making for some time under the direction of Dr. M. S. Farr, leaves today for the West. The party will go directly to Montana, and making Melville the base of operations, will camp in the surrounding country. The purpose of the expedition is to collect fossils for the university. The party will return in September after spending two weeks on horseback in Yellowstone Park.

Turners at Des Moines.
Des Moines, Iowa, June 15.—Des Moines is filled with visitors to the biennial meeting of the Upper Mississippi Turnverein. Today was devoted to the reception of the visitors and this evening they will be formally welcomed to the city by Mayor Brenton. The competitions will commence tomorrow and continue through Thursday.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

What Others Say About the Underwood
Walla Walla, Wash., April 16, 1903.

J. S. Kees, Pendleton, Oregon.
Dear Sir—Re-lying to your enquiry, I beg to say that I purchased an Underwood typewriter in 1896, and it has been in continuous hard use ever since.

I have not seen any of the new models, but this is a specimen of the work done by my machine after nearly seven years usage. I would not exchange it for any other make.

The only repairs I have had to the machine is to have the platen renewed twice during the time I have had it.

This was rendered necessary by the large amount of tabulating work, and the hard usage it was subjected to in manifolding.

Signed—Yours Truly, S. B. CALDERHEAD.

KAMELA NEWS NOTES.
Four Helpers Now Located at the Mountain Station.

Kamela, June 15.—Al Runke will leave for a week's visit to his farm at Hood River, Wednesday.

There are now four regular helper engines here, each having a double crew, making a total of 16 engineers on the helper runs here at present.

Mrs. Bert Huffman, of Pendleton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Carlson, for a few days.

A work train has been engaged in clearing up loose rock from the cuts on the mountain, the past week.

School is now in progress, with Miss A. G. Roberts, of Meacham, as teacher, with 12 scholars in attendance.

G. W. Allen has sued the O. R. & N. for $5,000 damages for the death of his 5-year-old son, who was struck by a helper engine near here, on July 19, 1901. Hailey and Lowell, of Pendleton, will conduct the case for Mr. Allen.

Less wood is being cut and hauled here this season than for many years. All the close timber is cut out.

The City Boy on a Farm.

A farmer named Smith, living near Martinville, hired a city boy to help him around the farm during the summer. One morning he told the boy to go and salt the calf. The boy took a quart of salt and rubbed it all over the calf, working it into the hair. A lot of colts scented the salt and hunted the calf up. They licked all the hair off the poor calf's back. The farmer tried to catch the calf to wash it, but the calf, thinking he wanted to lick, too, ran through a hole in the fence and disappeared down the road. The boy now stands up when he eats his pie. Moral: Never be afraid to ask questions.—Kansas City Star.
