

You Want Both

When you try on a pair of shoes look for two things—"Comfort" and "Style." You must have them both; either one by itself is not enough.

Our whole stock is purchased with these two things in view and it is the largest and most complete in Pendleton from a heavy brogan to the finest French kid boot and they all have that wearing quality found only in a carefully selected stock.

CASE WAS DISMISSED.

Judge Fitz Gerald Had No Doubt of the Guilt, But It Was Not Proven.

The case of the city vs. James Fee, Joe Whitlock and John Doe was tried before the city recorder's court yesterday afternoon and from lack of legal evidence was dismissed. The complaining witness in the case was a Chinaman, and the charge was assault and annoyance. It seems that the boys were sitting in a group when the plaintiff came along, and the crowd, or some of them, hit and otherwise assaulted him.

The guilt of the defendants, in the opinion of the court, was conclusive, but owing to the stupidity of the complaining witness, nothing could be proven. In reviewing the case the court scored the witnesses who had, in his estimation, perjured themselves to save their friend. He held that the defendants were guilty, but that the matter was not proven by the evidence offered, and for that reason he would have to dismiss the case, but he refused to allow any witness fees, and instructed the city attorney to confer with the prosecuting attorney of the district and ascertain whether or not those perjuring themselves could not be brought to justice.

TWO PROPERTY SALES.

Delta Candy Factory and Store Changes Hands.

The real estate firm of Wade, Bryson & Wade made two good sales today. They have sold lot 6, in block H, the property of Mrs. Martin, to Robert Laing, for $1,200.

The other sale was in the business district and was of more moment. They effected the transfer of the Delta candy store from the present owner, C. W. Irvin, to W. L. Mathews, for the sum of $3,000.

William Hatfield, a Seattle lineman, fell across a live wire yesterday and was electrocuted.

Powdered Daintiness

You never saw a foot powder like ours. It is taking the town by storm. There is just one word in the dictionary to describe it. That word is "dainty."

Tallman's Foot Powder

is unequalled for sore, blistered, aching and sweaty feet. It keeps the shoes dry, sweet and wholesome these hot, sultry days.

The harvest man needs it, the business man needs it, you need it and everyone needs it.

Be sure you get Tallman's. Accept no other.

COURT DECISIONS

FOUR CASES APPEALED AND TWO WERE REVERSED.

Cases All Attracted Considerable Attention During Their Trial in the Lower Court—One Was A Umatilla County Case, One From Baker County and Two From Union County.

Clerk Lee Moorhouse has received from the supreme court at Salem the decisions on four more cases argued here at the last session of the court.

The case of the La Grande Investment Company, appellant, vs. F. L. Shaw, is an appeal from Baker county where the case was tried before Judge Eakin. W. M. Ramsey is the attorney for the appellant and M. L. Olmstead for the respondent. It is an appeal by the plaintiff in a case to recover $500 on a mining transfer, which case was decided in favor of the defendant by the lower court. The opinion was given by Justice C. E. Wolverton, and the judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

The case of Lina H. Sturgis, appellant, vs. William Baker, respondent, is an appeal from Umatilla county of a suit to recover on a promissory note of $139, which was decided in favor of the defendant in the trial court. Justice Wolverton in his opinion affirms the lower court. J. H. Raley represented the appellant and T. G. Hailey the respondent.

The case of Henry V. Sterling, respondent, vs. George W. Sterling et al., is an appeal from Union county, and the decision of the lower court was reversed and the case remanded for a new trial. It is a suit for the partition of real property, and the opinion was written by Justice Bean. J. H. Lawrey represented the appellants and Ramsey and Oliver the respondents.

The case of E. Fisher, appellant, vs. Union county, respondent, is an appeal from Union county on the decision of the lower court, dismissing a writ of review, in the matter of vacating a county road. The opinion was written by Chief Justice Moore and the judgment of the lower court was reversed and the cause remanded with directions to set aside the proceedings of the county court in the matter of vacating the road.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A Load of Fresh Fruit Scattered in Every Direction.

Elmer Walden, a berry man from Milton, had an exciting and to some extent a disastrous runaway this morning about half past 9 o'clock. He left his team at the foot of College street for a few minutes, and they took fright at something and started up College street at breakneck speed. At each crossing they would bounce strawberries and cherries in every direction, and by the time they were stopped at the court house the most of the load was strewn along the street from the place of starting to the stopping point. The rig was not damaged to any extent and the horses were not hurt, but the entire load went to feed the Indians who quickly gathered to feast on what they could pick out of the dirt.

BASEBALL TEAM DISBANDS.

Several of the Boys Have Offers to Go to Sedro-Wooley.

The members of the baseball team are all making preparations to leave the city. Some of them have already gone and some of them will leave in a few days. Wilkins, the manager of the Sedro-Wooley team, about 28 miles from Everett, Wash., has written to several of the boys from here and made them propositions to go there for the rest of the season, and in all probability several of them will accept the offer. Gass, Speidell, Taylor, Bradbury and Neagle will leave in a few days.

It is not known what will be done in the way of a game for the celebration here the Fourth, but some arrangement will probably be made whereby the games will be played; perhaps by two nines either imported or made up for the occasion.

ACCUSED OF LARCENY.

Employee of Rugg Bros. Believed to Have Stolen Money and Checks.

The preliminary examination of Le Roy Eason for the larceny of a check and $5 from the sheep camp of Rugg Bros. was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. On Saturday last the young defendant took a check from the camp and $5 and boarded the stage for Pendleton. The check was for $31.05 and was drawn on a local bank. Shortly after the defendant had left the camp, the things were missed, and the sheriff was wired to hold the culprit on his arrival here. Accordingly when the stage reached Pendleton it was met by Sheriff Taylor and the young man taken to the county jail. He had spent part of the money for the stage fare, but the check was found on him and returned to the owner.

Was Held for Trial in November.

Upon the convening of the case the defendant waived examination and was bound over to appear before the circuit court at its next session in November and in default of the amount of the bail—$300—was remanded to the county jail. The prosecuting witness, Henry Tippler, was allowed to go upon his own recognizance, but was warned to be on hand to appear at the time the case was called by the circuit court.

HEPPNER IS A HEAP OF RUINS

ed women and children, while the fiery fluid played tattoo on the high peaks of basalt to the north, south and east. Every gully was a rushing torrent in a few seconds. The streets of the town are covered with water, and within few inches of the marks of the flood of Sunday night.

Relief Coming in.

Heppner, via Lone, June 16.—The entire state of Oregon, and many cities of other parts of the Northwest are rushing supplies to stricken Heppner. Railway tracks and bridges are gone, and ravines are flooded, making entrance to the district difficult.

Estimate 300 Dead.

The number of dead has now been placed at 300. Relief work centers at Lone, from which point undertakers are leaving for the scene.

The bodies so far recovered number 188.

Desperate Situation.

Heppner is almost entirely demolished. Portions of houses, brush, logs and dead bodies encumbered the creeks and streets.

No loss of life at Lexington, although the property damage is heavy. Tools for burying the dead are scarce, hence willing hands are idle. There is no way of getting into town except by wagon or on horseback.

Railroad rails are twisted like rope. Every available horse is pressed into service to carry tools and supplies into the stricken district from Heppner Junction, 45 miles away.

One Building Left in Heppner.

Everybody is homeless at Lexington as a result of the flood, and the school house has been crowded since Sunday night. Homes, orchards and farms were swept away in a twinkling.

Almost the only building that escaped destruction in Heppner was the Palace hotel, on high ground. Here a number of people went to escape the avalanche of water.

The debris is piled nine feet high in the streets of Lexington. The workers at 3 o'clock this morning uncovered 12 bodies.

Water Force Terrific.

The force of the flood is shown by the fact the body of a woman was carried down the gulch from Heppner to Lexington, 12 miles. When the pile of water struck the Congregational church, the building was thrown three blocks away, lodging against the Methodist church.

A courier from Heppner says it will take 1,000 men two weeks to clear away the wreckage and recover all the bodies.

Men and Tools Needed to Bury Dead. Rev. C. H. Lake will stand as he stood all day and all night saying burial services over the dead as they are laid away in crude coffins.

The survivors have been working since the disaster uncovering bodies and had begun to faint from exhaustion when the first outside relief party arrived.

The local relief committee issue a statement that "we need men and tools, to bury the dead. Must be hurried here fast as possible. It will be months before the town resumes a semblance of its normal condition."

LATEST FROM HEPPNER.

Need Laborers and Caretakers for Children.

Leon Cohen has telephoned over from Heppner saying that the great need there at the present time is not money, but labor. The condition of things there demands more laborers than are available at the present time, and the people of the city are asking for help in that direction and that they have money to pay for the help rendered.

The pitiable feature of the situation is the large number of the orphaned children who need help and comfort. There is a report that provisions are in demand, but this is thought to be of small moment, as many loads are on the way there.

Thomas Recovering.

Portland, June 16.—O. M. Thomas, the telegraph operator who was stabbed at Huntington by another operator, is recovering—not rapidly but surely, in the opinion of the attending physicians. He was stabbed in the right lung.

TORTURING DISFIGURING Skin, Scalp and Blood Humours

Speedily Cured by Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills

When the Best Physicians and All Else Fail.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurements, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum,—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures, blood purifiers and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This complete treatment, costing but one dollar, affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours of the skin, scalp and blood, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

FELL OFF FOOT LOG.

Little Boy Lost His Footing and Was Drowned in Rock Creek.

Baker City, June 16.—Joe, the 7-year-old son of Joseph Southwick, an employe of the Chase Mills, was crossing the creek on a foot log, when the bark loosened by the rains, slipped under his feet and he was precipitated into the stream. The child was on his way to see his father.

The accident occurred in the evening and the body was found today close by the spot where the lad fell into the creek.
