BAKER CITY WOOL

SALES POSTPONED UNTIL
 MIDDLE OF JULY.

Highest Bid Made Was 12 3/4 Cents—Emergency Does Not Justify a Sacrifice—Wool Now Stored Was Sheared From Yearlings—This Sale No Criterion to Eastern Oregon Market.

Baker City, June 17.—The wool sales here yesterday were a total fizzle.

As a result of the deadlock the sales were postponed until July 15-16.
 Buyers and sellers were both independent to a remarkable degree.

The wool market situation was discussed from every standpoint and the emergency was not considered by the wool growers to be acute enough to justify a sacrifice.

They will hold for higher prices until the next sale, and if things are not satisfactory at that time they will still hold.

Secretary J. H. Gwinn, of the state Woolgrowers' Association, was present at the sales here yesterday. Two or three Boston buyers, four from San Francisco, and three from Western points were also on the ground.

Others in attendance were:
 Robert Wilson, of the Burlington road; B. T. Sweeney, of the Erie Despatch; F. H. Stocker, of the Traders' Dispatch; William Ellery, representing Hallowell and Donald, Boston; F.
 Green, of Carson & Company, Boston; E. J. Burke, of H. C. Judd & Root, Hartford, Conn., and Hom Cotter, of Livingston.

The highest bid made was 12 3/4 for the clips of Sam Klidder, 50,614 pounds, and Lee Bros., 89,876 pounds.
 The figure was not accepted.
 A sale will be held at Elgin July 10-11.

Secretary Gwinn, of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association, in explaining the postponement of the sales in Baker City, said today:

"The wool offered for sale yesterday was shorn from yearlings and for this reason the bidding was not lively.
 Later in the season when the full clip is displayed, both buyers and sellers will be in a better position to base their prices. The wool now offered is by no means a criterion of the Eastern Oregon clip."

TORNADO AT MEACHAM.

Telegraph Wires Are Down Between Huron and Kamela.

One of the most severe wind storms in the history of the county, visited the Blue Mountains, between Meacham and Huron, Monday night.

From Huron eastward, along the sides of the mountain, hundreds of trees were twisted down and uprooted. The telegraph and telephone lines were almost completely wrecked for a distance of eight miles through the heavy timber and at least a dozen trees, tree tops and masses of broken limbs fell across the railroad track between Huron and Meacham.

The severity of the wind may be guessed from the terrible work it did at places. Large pine trees at least three feet in diameter, were twisted off and hurled down the mountain sides. In places small groves of black pines were all blown down and every rotten tree top on the mountain was broken off.

At Meacham at least one-fourth of the magnificent black pine grove in the O. R. & N. station and hotel reserve was uprooted or broken down.
 The wind came from the northwest and lasted for about an hour, at its worst stage.

Yesterday all the O. R. & N. wires were down until noon, and no Western Union wire was working at all, until late in the evening. It will take several days to repair the damage between Huron and Meacham.

RESIDENCE PARTLY BURNED.

Fire Probably Originated in a Defective Flue.

Fire partially destroyed the residence occupied by the family of William H. Kelsey last night about 10 o'clock. The fire was discovered by Dr. Vincent, as he was going home in the evening, and he turned in an alarm. The department responded quickly and soon had the fire under control. The cause of the fire is not known, though it is supposed to have originated from a defective flue, and the back part of the house alone was damaged by it.

The house is owned by Pat Doherty of this city, and was valued at $3,000.
 He carried an insurance of $1,000 on the house. The front part of the building was not harmed by the fire, but was pretty well cleaned out by the firemen. The fire at one time looked as though it would destroy the whole structure, and the fire lads went to work to carry out the furniture. By the time the furniture was out of the house the fire had been put out and the front part of the place had not been reached by the flames. The damage will reach the neighborhood of $1,000.
