CALL OF CHARITY

COUNTY COURT CONTRI-
BUTES $1,000 TO HEPPNER.

Fraternal Orders Respond Nobly to the Request for Relief Funds—Money Pouring in From Every Quarter and Assessments Being Cheerfully Paid.

Relief is pouring into the city of Heppner from all sides and from all quarters. All of the lodges of this city have subscribed or will do so at the first opportunity, and not only have orders responded locally, but some of them have helped from outside of the state.

The county court met this morning and at once provided for the sum of $1,000 to go towards the relief of the conditions at the scene of the disaster. Five hundred dollars were sent this morning, and the other $500 will be held to pay for the things in the way of provisions and supplies that have been sent by the people in this place and the vicinity. If there is anything left after these bills have been settled, it will be sent to be added to the amount sent this morning.

The Knights of Pythias have levied a tax equal to 50 cents per capita and will send $100 from the local lodge. James Maloney, the grand chancellor of the state, has issued a general call to the subordinate lodges in the state for a 50 cent levy, and the state will in this way send to the lodge at Heppner at least $2,000. This money will be forwarded to W. W. Smeed, of Heppner, the K. of R. and S. of that lodge. Before the call for the tax was issued about $500 had been sent in by the lodges of the state for the relief, and this will be in addition to the amount of the call. In response to the call $200 has come in this morning already by telegraph.

Mr. Maloney is in receipt of a letter from Grand Chancellor J. R. Stevenson of the state of Washington, who has issued a call throughout that state for voluntary subscriptions from the lodges, and it is expected that they will send in at least $1000. Both together will net over $3000.

Francis I. McKenna, the supreme master artisan, has directed the secretary of the general assembly to forward a general call to the lodges throughout the country levying a tax of 25 cents per capita on each lodge, and to forward the amounts to A. P. McMillan, secretary of the Lexington lodge, who will distribute them among the lodges of Heppner and Iowa.

The Alpha Assembly No. 9, met last night and voted the sum of $30 to the lodge at Heppner, and the Harmony Assembly in accordance with the orders of the master artisan, voted $15.75. The aggregate of the sum given by the Artisans will be large, as they have a large membership throughout the country.

The Eagles will meet on Tuesday evening when it is the present plan to vote $100.

Daphne Circle, of the Women of Woodcraft has given $100, and the Pendleton Circle will meet tonight, when it will give its quota.

The Modern Woodmen will meet on Saturday, when they will send a contribution.

The Maccabees will refer the matter to the state officer and he will send instructions to the various lodges of the state, and in this way the donations of that order will amount to quite a sum.

Will Hold Memorial Services.
The First Baptist church will hold memorial services next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and an opportunity will be given all to contribute to the relief fund.

The Workmen will meet tonight and take some measures for the relief of the members of the order at Heppner. It is not known exactly what amount the lodge will raise, but it is thought that it will not be less than $50, and may be as high as $75.

Real Estate Transfers.
J. E. Dishman and Jennie Dishman, his wife, have sold to F. J. Baldfield for $9,350 the south half of the northwest quarter; the north half of the southwest quarter, and north half of the southeast quarter of section 23, township 4, north of range 35 east, comprising land near Weston.

Mrs. Nancy E. Despain, Edith Berkeley and C. C. Berkeley, her husband, Louis B. Despain, Eleanor M. Despain and Nancy E. Despain, guardian of Constance A. Despain, have sold for $2,000 to E. J. Murphy, all of lot 4 in block 2, town of Pendleton.

Fine Horse Sold.
L. A. Spicer, a horse dealer of Pendleton, arrived in this city last Friday with "Teddy," a fine blooded stallion which he traded to William Carter for a team and two hundred dollars. This horse is five years old, weight 1,600 pounds, seven-eighths Clydesdale and one-eighth Messenger, and is one of the finest looking stallions that has ever come to Long Creek.—Long Creek Light.

Must Stand Trial.
Walla Walla, June 19.—Alexander Fachant, the Frenchman who was arrested in Walla Walla several weeks ago on a charge of importing French women into the country for immoral purposes and who forfeited a $2,000 bond for his appearance in the United States court at Seattle, was arrested by a secret service man Tuesday evening and taken to Seattle to stand trial. Fachant was under the impression that the forfeiture of his $2,000 would end the case and was very much surprised when the detective placed him under arrest again. Two other charges will be placed against Fachant—seduction and bringing a pauper into the country.
Eighty-five per cent of the children of Japan are now in school.
