

Ladies' Oxfords

the ideal Summer Shoe for $1.

Our entire line of Ladies' Tan Oxfords, $2.00 to $4.00 values for One Dollar.

Oxfords are essentially a summer shoe. If we don't get rid of our stock at the beginning of the season we will have to carry them over until next season and rather than do this we will sacrifice our complete line at cost and even less. They are all new goods, latest shaped toes and stylish heels in all the popular shades of tan and complete sizes. They are not old, shelf worn goods, but are new, bright and fresh goods, such as you seldom see on sale.

Remember, your choice of many pretty shapes and styles for ONE DOLLAR

ACADEMY PRESIDENT ARRIVES.

V. H. Bleakney, of Elgin, in the City to Prepare for School Year.

Rev. W. H. Bleakney, who has been elected president of Pendleton Academy to succeed Rev. F. L. Forbes, arrived in the city this morning and will remain here principally all summer, preparing for the opening of the Academy.

Mr. Bleakney is not a stranger in this city, and comes here to assume control of the Academy upon the earnest solicitation of friends. He will take up the work where Mr. Forbes left it, pursuing in the main the same successful policy which has placed the Academy where it now stands in Oregon educational circles. There will be six or seven teachers at the opening of the school year, but the only two employed now are Miss Bessie Craig, to be teacher of modern languages, and Miss Emma Olds, to have charge of the preparatory department. Miss Craig is a graduate of Bryn Mawr College, Pennsylvania, and Miss Olds is a Monmouth Normal graduate and is now teaching in the Elgin public school.

In addition to the present curriculum French, elocution and higher literary studies will be made part of the permanent branches of the Academy course.

Mrs. Bleakney will not come to Pendleton until the beginning of the school year, but will remain at Elgin, where Mr. Bleakney has occupied the Presbyterian pulpit for the past three years.

PASSED BOGUS CHECK.

Clever Swindler Secures Check from Hawley Bros. and Passes it in Baker City.

Last week an unknown man came into the store of Hawley Bros. of this city and asked for a blank check. Duke Hawley gave him one with the firm name stamped across the end of the paper, and the stranger went out of the store. In a day or two a check for $65 came back from Baker City, to the Pendleton Savings Bank, and was promptly dishonored.

The Baker City Democrat says a man named King passed the check on a Baker City firm, securing upon it $22.50 in jewelry and the balance in change.

The swindler jumped a board bill at the Gelsler Grand hotel, after the clerk refused to cash the check for him. The authorities at Baker are now looking for Mr. King.

Six hundred men are regularly employed on the new steamship Kaiser Wilhelm.

Play Ball for Relief.

The Squadron and Walla Walla baseball teams are playing this afternoon and will play Sunday afternoon, also, at Walla Walla, for the benefit of the Heppner relief fund.

Would Give Exhibition for Relief.

Tom Scott (colored) of this city, and Andy King, have signified their willingness to give a physical culture and boxing exhibition, the entire proceeds to go to the Heppner relief fund. Dates and preliminaries will be arranged later if the exhibition is decided upon.

Pilot Rock Contributes.

The little town of Pilot Rock has contributed $400 to the Heppner sufferers, divided as follows: By the citizens, $250, Redmen, $75, and the Odd Fellows, $75. The amount was brought to Pendleton this afternoon by F. L. Morse and will be sent at once to the relief committee.

Matinee for Heppner Relief.

The Pendleton Driving Association will hold a meet at the Simpson-Perringer track on next Friday afternoon for the benefit of the Heppner sufferers. The meet will be open to all the members of the association and will be an informal affair, but will put up an exceptionally good program. An admission of 50 cents will be charged to go to the Heppner relief fund.

Workmen Contribute.

Pendleton Lodge A. O. U. W. donated $100 to the Heppner relief fund last night.

TO RECEIVE CLOTHING.

Women of Pendleton Organize for Heppner Relief.

The women of Pendleton have organized for the relief of the Heppner sufferers and on next Monday morning from 9 till 12 and on Monday afternoon from 2 till 5, a committee of women will be at the city council rooms to receive women's, children's and men's clothing of every kind and description.

The committee in charge of the work in the forenoon will consist of Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. T. W. Ayres, Jr., and Mrs. R. G. Thompson.

The committee in charge in the afternoon will consist of Mrs. R. Alexander, Mrs. G. A. Hartman and Mrs. L. H. Sturgis.

The committees invite the people of Pendleton to bring in every article of clothing possible which will be sent to the people of Heppner. All kinds of wearing apparel are in demand there. Men, women and children all need common clothes to wear right now until some arrangements for the future are made. Bring in your contributions early on Monday from 9 to 12 and from 2 to 5 at the city council chamber.

MAY LOSE AN EYE.

Rigby-Clove Blacksmith Gets White Hot Metal in the Member.

Yesterday afternoon Joseph Bailey, one of the men employed at the Rigby-Clove Machine Shops, met with a most painful and unfortunate accident, as the result of which he will lose the use of his left eye. Mr. Bailey is a blacksmith and was, at the time of the accident, engaged in the task of welding a large piece of steel. While he was at work a scale of the white-hot metal, driven from the bar by the force of the blows from the hammer, flew into Bailey's left eye.

The unfortunate man was taken to the office of Dr. Cole, where the eye was dressed and he was made as comfortable as possible. This morning the eye was examined and it is the opinion of the doctor that the member cannot be saved. It will be some time before Mr. Bailey will be able to perform his work again.

The head instructor of the naval college of China is to be an American.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Concerning the People of Pendleton and Vicinity • Notes Personal and Otherwise • By Our Regular Correspondent

Folsom-Wade.

On Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock occurred the wedding of two of Pendleton's most well-known and popular young people, when Miss Elsie Folsom was made the wife of Mr. Guy Wallender Wade.

The interior of the Church of the Redeemer was lavishly decorated in sword ferns and syringia, the color scheme being green and white.

While the audience was gathering in the church Miss Cosbie Raley played the "Angels' Serenade" and the "Intermezzo," from the "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "O Promise Me."

The bridal party came into the church to the strains of the Lohengrin "Wedding March," and were led down the aisle by the ushers, John T. Lambirth and Elmer Perry Dodd. The ushers were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Georgia Folsom, who was beautifully gowned in pale blue silk organdie and carried white carnations.

The maid of honor was followed by the bride, Miss Elsie Folsom, on the arm of her brother, Mr. Harry Folsom. The bride wore a gown of white silk mull over taffeta, with a tulle veil to match, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

The party was met at the chancel rail by the groom and his best man, G. A. Hartman, Jr., and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. E. Potwine, of the Church of the Redeemer, assisted by the Rev. Andreas Bard, of St. Paul's church, of Walla Walla.

After the ceremony the intimate friends of the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride, where a reception was held in their honor. At the conclusion of the reception Mr. and Mrs. Wade were driven to the home prepared on Locust Hill, where they will reside. In two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Wade will go to the Wade country home at Dixie, on Camas Prairie, where they will spend the summer.

Birthday Party.

Master Andrew Bollons was given a pleasant party on the occasion of his 14th birthday, which occurred last Thursday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bollons. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and before the jolly crowd dispersed light refreshments were served. The following friends of the young man were present:

Willard Bond, Clarence Bolberman, Ralph Bolberman, Sheppard Cameron, Fred Keays, Bert Campbell, Nathan Wells, Glen Storie, Nat Kimball, Edgar Smith, Sherman Kunkle, Homer Kunkle, Otto Martin, Roy McFadden, Donald Rader, John Dickson, Eddie Ellis, Francis Jackson, William Bollons, Madeline Bollons, Andrew Bollons, Theda Bollons, Clara Pierce, Hazel Burgess, Vera Marsten, Clara Boylen, Winnie Boylen, Flora Sheek, Edna Storie, Rae Vogel, Eunice Vogel, Lucille Rader, Hazel Rader, Josephine Cameron, Mable Cameron, Edith Johnson, Nona Johnson, Lotta Livermore, Alberta Hopper, of La Grande; Bessie Marsh, Ruth Gibson, Fay Gibson, Parnelle aHiley, Gertrude Jordan, Jayvina Stanfield, Westbrook Dickson.

Quiet Home Party.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Penland last Thursday evening, when a few of their intimate friends gathered to pass a few enjoyable hours. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wilson, Misses Gay and Bess Campbell, Miss Pio and Lizzie Walker, Maude Crawford, Blanche Guillard, Myrtle Hawks and Messrs. Dr. Ringo, Reed and Funk.

No Functions This Week.

Owing to the calamity at Heppner, all of the social functions scheduled to have taken place for this week were canceled and the week has been given up to the work of the alleviation of the conditions at the center of the catastrophe.

All of the society ladies who are also members of the various fraternal lodges of the city, and the clubs have been busy with the work of relief and have held no social gatherings in that time, out of respect to the dead of their friends of this city and in memory of the suffering in the sister city.

Social and Personal Notes.

Miss Edith Epple has returned to her home in this city, after a year spent at Ellensburg, where she attended the Normal school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Skiles have returned from Spokane, where Mrs. Skiles has been visiting for some time. They were accompanied by their daughter and niece, Miss Mazie Skiles.

Mrs. W. F. Boothby, of Salem, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John McCourt, of this city, left for her home this morning, accompanied by Mrs. McCourt and little son, John, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Boothby's brother at Portland.

WOMEN'S CLUB NOTES.

Mrs. C. B. Wade left on the morning train for Portland and Astoria. Delegates from all the Eastern Oregon clubs have been elected to attend the Oregon Federation meeting, June 22, 24, 25.

Convention tickets on the certificate plan, will entitle holders to buy return tickets at one-third rate. This applies to delegates from all the Eastern Oregon, not to Astoria. From Portland to Astoria delegates buy a separate ticket.

The summer rate ticket was promised to Pendleton delegates, but if these are bought, we are advised by the agent here that holders cannot be counted as attending the convention. If this is true, the buying of other than a federation ticket might be the means of causing delegates from other places to pay full fare. The difference to the Pendleton ladies is very little, and delegates are asked to buy the convention rate ticket. Club women going can obtain credential cards at Astoria, if they are not already supplied. Club presidents and committees are earnestly requested to see that their reports are in Astoria in time for the opening of the convention, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, June 22.

Daughter Born.

There was this afternoon born to John Greaves and wife, of Huron, a daughter, during their temporary residence in Pendleton.

There are 202,471 miles of railroad in the United States.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A girl baby was born to the wife of Dr. House, at their home at Weston, last night.

The Misses Jensen, of Grand Island, Neb., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson.

Bert Lougheed, the captain of the Walla Walla baseball team, is in the city for a short visit.

Mrs. E. B. Conklin and children are in Cove from Pendleton on a visit to relatives.—La Grande Observer.

Frank Hammond has returned from a trip to Milton in the interest of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Mrs. Rose Campbell has gone to her ranch at Rittsville, where she will spend some time in fulfilling the requirements of the homestead law.

Charles Kinzey and J. C. Henry, undertakers of La Grande, passed through en route to Heppner to assist in caring for the bodies as they are recovered.

Walter Adams, the local agent of the Washington & Columbia River railway, has gone to the mountains for a trip on business connected with the road.

Mr. Friex, of the Portland Western Union office, is in the city for a few days to assist the local office owing to the rush of business consequent on the Heppner flood.

George W. Sutherland, of Walla Walla, has returned to his home after a short visit in this place, where he has been looking over the construction of the new sewer.

E. C. Pentland, the traveling correspondent of the Oregonian, was a visitor in the city for a short time while he shook hands with old friends here.

Rev. R. J. Diven is in Elgin, where he will preach tomorrow in the pulpit of Rev. W. H. Bleakney, who is now in this city and who will occupy the pulpit in the Presbyterian church here tomorrow.

F. N. and Ralph Jones were at the Pendleton last night on their way to Heppner. The boys have been visiting in Idaho, and are called home by the drowning of their sisters in the Heppner flood.

Removed to Walla Walla.

I. N. Davis, a Milton pioneer, has purchased property in Walla Walla and moved to that city to reside permanently.

The world is to have a new intoxicant made from ti root, which is abundant in the Hawaiian Islands.

FRIEND OF THE POET.

Baker County Man Who Knew Joaquin Miller in Early Days.

A. J. Smith, of Eagle valley, is in town. Besides being a member of the largest family on earth—the renowned and multitudinous tribe of Smiths—this Mr. Smith is renowned for the fact that he is a pioneer of Eastern Oregon.

Today he is one of the sheep kings of Baker county. Thirty odd years ago he was a contemporary of Joaquin Miller in Canyon City, when that great poet was county judge and dispensed even-handed justice with a brace of six-shooters, to uphold the dignity and majesty of the law.—Baker City Herald.

Well Pleased With Pendleton.

Mrs. J. W. Becker and daughter, Lulu, arrived last night from Chanute, Kan., to join Mr. Becker, who has been in the employ of L. E. Thorselsen's piano house for the past three months. Mr. Becker is well pleased with Umatilla county and will reside here permanently.
