REMEMBER THE ORPHAN.

As suggested editorially by the East Oregonian Thursday evening the Fourth of July celebration has been called off through respect for the stricken city of Heppner.

Prineville has shown a like respect for Heppner and today The Dalles is considering the advisability of abandoning her celebration on the same grounds.

and associate rescuers at Heppner, which was received by the Progress Club late yesterday evening, was a final argument against the celebration.

Conditions at Heppner are such the city will present any semblance of her former self, in the way of being self-supporting, and the more fortunate towns and cities near her must do the work of rescue and repair which she cannot do.

Only those who have known Heppner intimately for years can appreciate the awful loss, as they look upon that hillside of new-made graves and that unrecognizable mass of wreckage which covers the once smiling valley.

The Progress club did the grandest deed in the history of Pendleton when it called off the celebration, and laid the funds at the feet of stricken Heppner.

Juries hesitate to invite the wrath of the combatants and prosecutors who have the nerve to stand up openly and accuse the principals of crime can get but weak support from the citizens who try the cases. Prosecuting Attorney Byrd. who has shown some estimable nerve in trying Jett and White for the Marcum murder, defied the feudists in open court at Jackson, on Friday afternoon, when he waved his hand threateningly at the red-randed murderers seated in the audience in the court room and said:

"I want to give warning to you and all of your followers that your bloodthirsty duels must stop in Breathitt county. Leave this county and its atgrocers everywhere; 17c and 25c, per package

It is "confronted got to come when the arch assassins. the men who are the controlling powers behind the Jetts and the Whites, will be exposed to the world and either sent to prison or to the noose."

With clinched fist and shaking with emotion, Byrd walked toward the jury and said:

"Gentlemen, you are on trial as well as Jett and White, and you must answer to the bar of public opinion as well as the bar of the Breathitt criminal court. You have got to do your duty or be pilloried by public opinion.'

The honor and name of old Kentucky is at stake. The disorder now seen at different places in the grand old state must cease. She has given the nation some of its best men and women and the feud, instead of grownig in strength and bitterness, must give away before the progressive spirit of the age.

A mother-in-law and her parrot are responsible for the disappearance of John Walz 10 days ago from his home, 541 Ogden avenue, according to Walz's pretty 17-year-old bride, who is grief-stricken because she can find no trace of him in Chicago. But the young woman is determined to re cover her busband, if possible,

EDUCATION IN INDIA

India is covered with great universities and colleges of excellent rank.
All instruction is in English. But the more ambitious youth must break through caste and actually cross the Kalapani, the "black water," which ancient Hindus were prohibited from venturing upon

This one returns an Inde-Gothique, emancipated from spiritual law and tradition. But there is no place for him either in Hindu or English society. He cares no longer to live in the most composite family of his relations, he shakes hands and slaps the back of the old man" whose lotus feet he used to fall and kiss. He thought the "higher education" would make him a great man-an 'iliustrious fellow-citizen.

But the English who received him so warmly in London withdraw their cordinlity in India. He has offended his own, and even though he may through expensive penances return his easte, the sacred thread of family and spiritual relation His acute attack of English equestion has resulted in chronic disappointment.-Edmund Russell in Everybody's Magazine

A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, bulf-alive condition. I am now in good health and have neither sche or pain, nor have I had any for the past year.
