SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES

First Christian Church — Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Evening subject, "Honor All Men." At both of these services collections will be taken for the Heppner flood sufferers. If you can not attend, send an offering. Prayers meeting Wednesday evening. Christian Endeavor and choir practice Friday evening. N. H. Brooks, pastor.

First Presbyterian Church — 10 a.
m. Sunday school; 11 a. m. sermon; 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor; 8 p. m. sermon. Rev. W. H. Bleakney, of Elgin, will preach both morning and evening. Strangers are especially invited to all the meetings. Robert J.
Diven, pastor.

M. E. Church, South — Sunday services as follows: 10 a. m., Sunday school; 11 a. m., preaching; 11 a. m., preaching. Memorial service in honor of those who perished in the Heppner flood; 7 p. m., Epworth League, subject: "How we may learn to use our sword"; 8 p. m., preaching by pastor. Prayer meeting on Thursday night at 8 p. m. Everybody invited. Interesting Bible study in connection. E. E. Jones, pastor.

Congregational Church — Sunday services will be held according to the following order: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; morning worship and preaching, at 11 o'clock. This service will be memorial in its chief characteristics, and there will be an opportunity to contribute toward the Heppner relief fund. Christian Endeavor service at 7:30, followed by an address on "The Problems of the Modern City." A cordial welcome to all. J. Edwards, minister.

Church of the Redeemer — Divine service tomorrow at hours as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; sermon and celebration of the holy communion at 11 a. m.; evening prayer and address at 8 o'clock. W. E. Portman, rector.

First Baptist Church — The pastor of this church will hold a special service tomorrow at 11 o'clock. It is well understood that a great many people who would like to give something for the help of those in distress at Heppner, and to assist in the work of clearing away the debris, cannot give as they would like, nor in very large sums. Because of this it might be that many would not go where regular subscriptions are being made, because the sum they could give would seem insignificant beside other larger sums. These people ought to have the opportunity to give and that opportunity will be given them at this church tomorrow. Also, this is a time when our hearts are all saddened, and we need to seek comfort and teaching from a higher source than any on earth. Every church in the city ought to be filled tomorrow by those who come to worship before God and to meditate on the recent calamity. R. W. King, pastor.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Sunday school, 10 a. m., A. J. Owen, superintendent. At 11 o'clock will be held a memorial service for those whose lives were lost in the Heppner disaster. At the close of this service there will be an opportunity given for any who wish to contribute to the relief of the sufferers. Class meeting, 12:15 p. m., Rev. G. W. Rigby, leader, Epworth League, 7 p. m.
Preaching, 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to these services. Robert Warner, pastor.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.
Fifty Delegates and a Large Number of Laymen Will Attend.
There will be a large delegation of members of the Baptist denomination of the Eastern Oregon district in the city this week to attend the sessions of the Eastern Oregon Baptist Association, which convenes in this city the first of the week.
There will be about 50 delegates from outside of the city and in addition to this number will be a large number of members who have come to visit the convention, but who are not delegates. It will be a very interesting meeting, as can be seen by the program printed in another part of the paper.
