TO RENAME CHURCH

POSSIBLY BE CHANGED
FROM EPISCOPALIAN.

State Dioceses Will Make Recommendations to Be Acted Upon by the General Church Next Year—Delegates Will Go to Portland This Week.

The annual convention of the dioceses of the Episcopal churches of the state will meet in Portland at the Trinity Chapel, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. This is the annual meeting of the delegates from all of the dioceses of the state, and at this time all of the general business of the church is attended to and the affairs are straightened out for the year to come. A questions pertaining to the church in general are settled at this time.

Pendleton will send three delegates, T. G. Hailey, J. R. Robinson and R. J. Slater, who will represent the Church of the Redeemer in the deliberations of the assembly. Rev.
Potwine, who is the secretary of the convention, will leave for Portland this evening in order to get his work in shape for the meeting when it convenes Thursday.

At this session the convention will consider the advisability of changing the name of the Episcopal church and will submit its decision to the general convention which meets in Boston in 1904. For some time there has been a movement on foot in some quarters of the denomination to have the name of the church changed, and the matter has been considered this year at all of the meetings of the different dioceses throughout the United States, and at the state meetings the matter will be discussed by the delegates and each delegation sent to the general meeting will be instructed to state the sentiment of the state.

The sentiment of the church has not been much in favor of the change as a general thing, though it has been much agitated. Many names have been suggested as substitutes for the present change, but none so far has met with decided approval.
The most popular, perhaps, at the present time, is the "American Catholic Church," and besides this are many different names. Some suggest that it be called the American Branch of the Catholic church, and some that it be called simply The Church.
The meeting at Portland will discuss the matter and ascertain the general feeling of the church throughout the state, and that sentiment will be sent to the general assembly at Boston. It is the opinion of those who are in touch with the intention that the time is coming when the church will be known otherwise than it is now.

LOSSES OF ONE CHURCH.

Membership and Property of Episcopal Church at Heppner Greatly Depleted.

Rev. W. E. Potwine has returned from Heppner, where he went to look into the condition of the church at that place. He found the Episcopal church at that place entirely swept away and the place where it had stood was as bare as the floor. Nothing was found pertaining to the church but the brass altar cross.

The church loss was heavy also in membership. Mr. and Mrs. W. W.
Lipsitt, Mrs. Redfield and daughter, Mrs. Matlock, Mrs. Estes and daughter, Mrs. Hynd and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton and son, and Mr.
Dawson having been found among the dead.

New Buildings at Athena.

H. E. Cook, the contractor, went to Athena this morning where he will start work on the Miller building at that place. This will be a one-story building 40x90 feet, and will be a modern building in every way. On Wednesday Mr. Cook will begin operations on the new Methodist Episcopal church at that place. This will be a large brick structure, and will be erected at a cost of $10,000.
When completed it will be one of the finest churches in the eastern part of the state.

Lawn Party This Evening.

There will be a lawn party this evening for the members of the Sunday school of the Church of the Redeemer on the lawn of the church.
The party is given by the parish to the children and during the evening refreshments will be served and games provided for the amusement of those attending.

Blue Ribbon State Fair.

The premium list of Oregon's "Blue Ribbon" state fair is now out and being distributed throughout the state. The premiums offered aggregate $12,000 in cash, and are for everything grown on the farm, including livestock, poultry, dairy products, agricultural and horticultural products, domestic and liberal arts, etc.
Everyone is invited to bring something to the fair this year and help advertise the state's resources, if you have not received one of the premium lists yet, write M. D. Wisdom, secretary, Portland, Ore., for one.

Returned From Heppner.

W. A. Storie, superintendent of bridges and buildings on the O. R. & N., and William Bollons, general road master, returned yesterday from Heppner, where they have been busily engaged the past week, opening the railroad into that city. They report the conditions very bad yet. The track now laid into Heppner is only temporary and will all be relaid as the emergency will permit.

Baker Shearing Machines.

Baker City, June 22.—Fifty shear-ers are now on the payroll at the shearing plant, 10 miles west of Baker. Each man with the machine averages about 100 sheep per day and shearing will continue until July 4 or later. There are over 35,000 head yet contracted with the possibility of more coming in.

Notice.

The differences existing between the unions of the city and the Rigby-Clove Manufacturing Company have been settled and the company is now declared to be fair to all organized labor. Signed,
TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL.

There promises to be a large increase in the midsummer list of home-seekers to the Northwest this year, on account of the conditions in the Middle West. A number have been looking over the county the past week and some sales are reported near Weston.
