Leg Badly Cut With a Saw—Will Be removed to Athena—Briggson Strawberries About Ready for the Market, But the Crop Will Be Light.

Briggson, Or., June 22.—Mrs. Narhaus is spending a few days on the river this week, among friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hagen went to Walla Walla yesterday to be absent several days.

Charles Payne, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Payne, of this place, had the misfortune to cut one of his legs very badly with a saw a few days ago.

Still the cattle come to the mountains for pasture. Frank Greer and Poss Burnes, cattlemen from Weston, brought up about 40 head today.

Emma and Lena Lehti, who have been absent since last fall, returned home today from Toppenish, Wash.

Ben Craigen and family came up from Weston Tuesday to spend a few days in the cool mountain breeze.

Fred Rosenzweig and son, Harry, from Athena, were in this vicinity yesterday on business.

Clark Kilgore will move his mother to Athena in the near future to reside permanently.

Chris Wilks and family, of Athena, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Payne Sunday. Mr. Wilks reports a very refreshing shower in that section of the country Friday, which was badly needed.

Miss Bell Campbell, who has been absent for the past nine weeks, returned home a few days ago.

Harry Williams and family, from near Helix, came up yesterday to spend a few days among friends and look after his interests here.

Ira Henderson took a load of potatoes to Pendleton last week and reports having found ready sale for them at 70c per sack.

Charles Brown, of Bingham Springs, was in this locality Wednesday and reports things quite lively thereabouts.

Strawberries are ripening now, the crop will be light, as the greater portion of them were badly damaged by the severe hail and rain storm two weeks ago.

At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters. The result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 5c. It's guaranteed by Tallman & Co.
