DARVEAU RECOVERING.

Crippled a Leg the Night of the Recent Fire.
George Darveau, the genial proprietor of the Hotel St. George, has been a cripple for the last week or so and has been under a doctor's care, but is now convalescing and able to be around. On the night of the fire, Mr. Darveau fell in running to the scene of the trouble and received a severe bruise on his left leg.
He paid no attention to the injury and it soon grew to be serious and threatened to run into erysipelas, but the timely intervention of the doctor prevented that misfortune, and after a course of rigorous treatment Mr. Darveau is able to once more use both of his legs with perfect freedom. His many friends in this city and the state will congratulate him.

Ran Into Telephone Pole.

Yesterday afternoon while riding up the street on his wheel, Earl Markham, a small lad who is stopping at the home of B. F. Waffle, ran into a telephone pole and was painfully though not seriously injured. Some boys on East Webb street were throwing rocks as the lad passed, and he looked back at them, causing his wheel to swerve into the pole. His knee was badly bruised and he was unable to bear his weight on it. A. J. Bean, the expressman, who was passing at the time, stopped and took the little fellow in the wagon and hauled him home, where the injuries were dressed. The boy will be lame for a time, but nothing serious will result from the injury.
