order to an enormous expense to have paid the transportation of the large number of delegates to the coast.

W. A. Northcutt, who has been for a long time the head consul of the order, was forced by advancing age to resign from the office and yield to a younger man. Mr. Northcutt is at the present time the lieutenant governor of the state of Illinois, and has held the office at the head of the Woodmen for a long time, with credit to it and honor to himself.

While in the East the judge was asked on every hand for information relating to this part of the country and the whole West, and many of the Eastern people are making preparations to move to this part of the union. California is the best advertised, but Oregon, Washington and Idaho are about as well known, and are in the minds of the people who are looking for homes in a land where the sun does not burn them or the wind blow them away.

TELEPHONE LINE SOLD.

Line From Pendleton to Lehman Springs Bought by Endicott.

John Endicott of this city, has bought the line of the Pendleton Telephone Company of J. B. Despain and will take charge of the property at once.

The line runs from this city to Pilot Rock, Cunningham's, Smith's and Owing's ranches, Ridge, Alba, Ukiah, Hidaway Springs and Lehman Springs and is a valuable piece of property. It is the intention of the present owner to improve and extend the plant, making it larger and of better service.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Concerning the People of Pendleton and Vicinity • Notes Personal and Otherwise • By Our Regular Correspondent

The Prescott, Arizona, Journal-Miner contains the following notice of the double wedding of Mrs. M. E. McCulloch and her daughter, Mrs. L. J. Ashton, in that city last week. Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. Ashton left Pendleton for Prescott about a month ago, stopping to visit in Portland en route.

Double Wedding.

Two very quiet weddings took place last evening in Prescott that rather took the breath of the friends of the contracting parties, they coming as a complete surprise. The happy parties to this little bit of matrimonial romance were James H. Mulreйн and Mrs. M. E. McCulloch and Frank B. Mulreйн and Lola Jeanette Ashton, the grooms being brothers and the brides being mother and daughter.

Mrs. McCulloch and daughter have been spending the past six or seven months at Portland and other Oregon places, their old home, and returned to Prescott last evening. They were met at the depot by the above gentlemen with hacks and the former couple were driven at once to the office of Probate Judge Hicks where they were married. The latter couple drove to the Catholic church parsonage where they were married by Father White. They had a nice little cottage all ready to begin housekeeping in good shape and went at once to occupy it. Like good sensible young folk, Mr. and Mrs. James Mulreйн have apartments at the Burke hotel where they will remain for the present. All parties to this little romance are well and favorably known in this city and have a host of friends who join the Journal-Miner in wishing them continual joy and prosperity.

Successful Lawn Party.

Mrs. James Crawford entertained the members of the Presbyterian Sunday school last Thursday evening, at her home on West Jackson street. The lawn was illuminated and the young people were treated to an evening of pleasant entertainment, games and other amusement being furnished by the hostess and the ladies who assisted her.

Will Spend the Summer at Dixie.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wade left this morning for their country home at Dixie, where they will spend the summer. They were accompanied by the Misses Edith Habersham and Anna MacLaine, of Astoria, who will visit with them a week before returning to their homes.

Enjoying Visit at Old Home.

Mrs. T. C. Warner, who is spending the summer at her old home in Fort Wayne, Ind., writes that she is enjoying her visit very much. She was an invited guest at the entertainment given the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association, at Fort Wayne.

TOURNAMENT ENDS.

Tacoma Next Meeting Place—Officers Elected and Medals Presented.

The features of yesterday's shoot at Dayton was the score of McMillan, of Post Falls, Idaho, who hit 50 targets out of a possible 50 in the event for the Dayton medal, and the general average of Sheard, of Tacoma, who missed only 16 targets out of 200 shot at.

The best purse of the day was won by S. McDonald in event 23, amounting to $32.50. Bigelow and Becker, of Ogden, and Sheard, of Tacoma, are tied for the Globe trophy with 47 targets each. The tie will be shot off this evening.

The annual meeting of the association was held last night in the parlors of the Dayton Club, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

T. F. Smith, Tacoma, president; M. B. Brownlee, Spokane, first vice-president; J. Hillis, Butte, Mont., second vice-president; A. P. Bigelow, Ogden, Utah, third vice-president; V. V. Ceasar, Tacoma, secretary-treasurer; T. B. Ware, Spokane, Morris Abraham, Portland, C. I. Wood, Tacoma, W. F. Sheard, Tacoma, and George B. Baker, Dayton, directors.

Tacoma was chosen as the next place of meeting in June, 1904.

California was admitted to membership in the association.

During the evening the Dayton medal was presented to the association. This medal was donated by the members of the Dayton Gun Club. It is a handsome piece of workmanship and is valued at $150.

RAISED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Driving Matinee Benefit for Heppner Does Well.

The Pendleton Driving Association held a very successful meet at the Simpson-Perringer track yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the sufferers of the Heppner flood, and as a result of the meet netted $50, which will be sent to the committee at the place.

Several very interesting races were had and the horses were very evenly matched, making the heats more exciting to watch. A good crowd was in attendance, and the interest manifested by the audience was gratifying to the promoters of the scheme. The results of the several races are printed below:

First event—Oveta, J. A. Bradley, first; Ollie M. James Erwin, second; last week, one of the features of which was a banquet given by Senator Fleming. The social functions of the larger cities of the East are given on a very large scale, and always include, as a spice to the entertainment, persons of more or less national reputation.

Mrs. Warner writes that an accident which befel her mother, who is nearly 70 years of age, had been the only unpleasant occurrence of her visit. Her mother received severe injuries from a fall, about a year ago, and was just recovering from them, when she had the misfortune to meet with a similar accident last week. While not dangerously injured, on account of her age, the shock has been very severe.

Mrs. Warner will return home about September 1.

Informal Two-Step.

There was an informal two-step given by a party of the young people of the city in the Armory hall on Tuesday evening. About 15 couples were present and a very enjoyable time was the result.

Party at Bingham Springs.

A jolly party of 11 spent last Sunday at Bingham Springs, going up on the evening before and returning Sunday evening. The party was chaperoned by Mesdames Charles Berkeley and W. S. Schultz, and comprised the Misses Edna Thompson, Fanchon Borle, Eva Switzer, of Walla Walla; and Constance Despain, of Portland; Messrs. William Keller, George Hartman, Fred Lampkin, Fred Schmeier, Earl Borle, Roy Ritner and Joe Cox.

Will Entertain in the Country.

Miss Blanche Horn will entertain a party of her friends at her country home on McKay creek tomorrow. About 10 of her young friends will drive out this evening and spend the day, returning in the evening.

Social and Personal Notes.

Miss Henrietta Thompson is the guest of friends in Portland for a few weeks.

Mrs. Charles H. Carter has returned from a month's visit with friends in Astoria.

W. F. Hallman was arraigned for drunkenness and vagrancy and pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set for this afternoon.

The case of the State vs. Love was called this afternoon and at this time is being tried before the justice court. It is the case of alleged assault and battery committed at the Juniper school house on the day of the school election held there not long ago. H. E. Collier is representing the defendant in the trial.

Light Artillery Recruits.

Sergeant F. A. Moore of the Eighth Cavalry, located at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., passed through the city this morning in charge of a squad of nine men recruited at that place for the light artillery of the Walla Walla station. The young men go to that place and from there expect to go to the islands in the fall. They are recruited at St. Louis, but are from all parts of the country, from West Virginia to Maine. The names of those in the battalion were: J. Hatcher, Robert L. Wollard, Herman Vincent, John Smith, George Brown, Alf Spencer, Frank Porter, Frank Richards and A. S. Franks.

Divorce Granted Today.

Judge W. R. Ellis today granted a decree of divorce in the case of William McCarthy vs. Julia McCarthy, which suit was filed on April 28, 1903. The plaintiff alleged desertion as the cause for action, which cause by the plaintiff remained unforgiven and uncondoned.
