Trib-Notice-Trib

The people of Pendleton are re-spectfully asked to fully investigate Trib, the world's greatest cure for the liquor and tobacco habits, and to anyone in need of a cure we say truthfully. Trib is an honest, positive cure. You do not use Trib in your coffee; you can't give it that way; but be sensible and take it for either of these habits the same as you would a remedy for any other disease. Here is a reference from a man well known in Pendleton. Read it. We have many more. W. Daugherty writes on May 14, J. W. Daugherry with may concern:— 1803: To whom it may concern:—

I wish to say I completed a cure with Trib in February, and have had no desire to drink since. It will also cure desire to drink since. It will also cure the tobacco habit. I had a harder time to learn to smoke after taking Trib than when I first learned to smoke. I am quite well known in Baker City, La Grande. Sumpter and Pendleton and anyone wishing to stop using either liquor or tobacco, I would recommend them to take Trib.

Price $12.50. For sale by all drug gists.

Wanted: An Emblem. A verdant youth who had just completed his apprenticeship as a car-penter dropped into a jewelry store and after looking at fraternity pins, asked; "How much is this one with squares and compasses on?" pointing to a Masonic pin. "Five dollars, said the dealer. "You haven't got one with a hand saw on, have you? I'm just out as a carpenter and finer, and I'd like to have something to wear so people will know what I'm doing. I'll take it though I'd like to have one with a hand saw, but I guess this one's plain enough. The compass is to mark out our work and compass is to mark out our work and the square is to measure it out and every gol durn fool knows that G stands for gimlet."

Young Man's Prayer.

An unmarried preacher in a neigh-boring town, who was young and new in the harness, was leading the services at a young folks' meeting. "Oh Lord," he prayed with fervent elo-quence, "give us all clean hearts, humble hearts, pure hearts, sweet hearts." A titter went around the congregation, but the girls all re-sponded. "Amen!" We charge no interest for carrying long stocks. MARGINS: 1c Bushel on Grain; sponded, "Amen!"
