LAW IS INEFFECTIVE

CAN STATE OFFICIALS BE LEGALLY GARNISHEED?

Attorney General Crawford Holds That They Cannot Be, Under the Law Passed Last Winter Expressly Providing for Such Proceedings.

Salem, Ore., July 1.—The last legislature passed an act which was intended to make state and other public officials subject to garnishment for money in their hands and due to private individuals. Attorney General Crawford is of the opinion that this law is ineffective and that state officials cannot be made parties to garnishment proceedings. He will support this opinion in a suit now pending in the circuit court of Marion county in which J. F. Strayer is plaintiff and W. Hayden defendant. The plaintiff having recovered judgment against Hayden has served notice of garnishment upon Secretary of State F. I. Dunbar, attempting to attach money due Mr. Hayden as salary for his services as a guard at the state prison.

Mr. Crawford will move to dismiss the proceedings against the secretary of state on the ground that a public official cannot be made a party to such a proceeding. His argument will be that it is contrary to public policy and therefore illegal to permit such proceedings. Another argument will be that the state cannot be sued without its own consent and if garnishment proceedings are permitted to be brought against state officials the parties can in that way try out indirectly a case they could not try directly and in effect this would be suing the state.

Exempt Until Recently. The questions involved will come before Judge George H. Burnett for determination. The Oregon statute does not expressly authorize the bringing of garnishment proceedings against public officials. Prior to the session of 1903 the statutes expressly exempted public officials from such liability, but the legislature last winter passed an act amending the law so as to eliminate this exemption. Several who have looked up the court decisions in other states say that the weight of authority declares that in the absence of express authority by statute litigants cannot make public officials parties to garnishment proceedings.

CONFEDERATION DAY.

Dominion of Canada Was Organized in 1867.

Ottawa, Ont., July 1.—Canada celebrated here Confederation day today with more than the usual rejoicings. On July 1, 36 years ago, the Dominion of Canada was created, having a population of about 3,500,000. Since that time the increase in population has not been so rapid as could be hoped, but, on the other hand, Canadians have reason to congratulate themselves that the growth in wealth and prosperity has been somewhat remarkable. In population since 1868, the Dominion has increased by less than 2,500,000, but in the foreign trade it has more than trebled the figures. The savings bank deposits, which have increased more than 12 fold in 36 years, afford another striking illustration of the general prosperity of the country.

New York Teachers Meet.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 1.—Teachers from many parts of New York are gathered here today for what promises to be the most notable meeting ever held under the auspices of their state association. The sessions are to continue through the remainder of the week, when the meeting will give way to the annual session of the Catholic Summer School. Among the eminent educators who are to address the association are President Frank A. Gunsaulus, of Armour Institute; Professor L. H. Bailey, of Cornell University; Professor O. H. Lundreth, of Union College; Inspector James L. Hughes, of Toronto, and Professor S. C. Crosby, of the United States department of agriculture.

Indians Will Celebrate.

Lapwai, Idaho, July 1.—Indians are arriving daily from all sections of the Inland Empire. The Umatillas began arriving last week while the Coeur d'Alenes, Spokanes and other northern tribes are now making their appearance. The Indians expect to make this the grandest celebration ever held since the invasion by the whites. The racing has already begun and the gambling games are now quietly opening for the night amusement.

Janitor Robs a Bank.

Lewiston, Idaho, July 1.—R. E. Lee, a young man 22 years of age, acting as janitor in the Lewiston National Bank building for a few days in the absence of the regular janitor, stole a box of small coin amounting to $85, from the till at the cashier's window, last night. He has disappeared.

Money Order Exchange Extended.

Washington, July 1.—By virtue of conventions which became operative today, a direct exchange of money orders between the United States and Costa Rica, Liberia and the Transvaal Colony is now possible. Heretofore it has been impossible to exchange money orders with these countries.
