

NEWS OF MILTON

THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE GREATLY ENJOYED THE DAY.

The Published Program Was Carried Out to the Letter—Day Was a Success in Spite of the Rain, and the Festivities Closed With a Dance at the Opera House.

Milton, July 5.—For the last two weeks the people of Milton have thought and talked, laid plans and speculated about making the Nation's holiday a success in this little city, and now since it is past and they look back upon the hundreds and thousands of visitors that came from far and near, it is no longer a question will it be, but how did we make it such?

After three days of as windy weather as this section ever saw, old Sol settled down below the western horizon and under the booming of the anvils he arose the next morning in all his brilliancy, as if the wind had never blown; but in less than 30 minutes he hid his face under a cloud and refused to show himself at any time during the day.

From early morn until noon people kept pouring in until the crowd numbered about 3,000.

The procession, which was artistically arranged, formed on Main street in Freewater and marched to the depot to await the arrivals of the trains which brought large crowds from the neighboring cities; thence to the grove in the south end of Milton, where the forenoon's program was carried out and dinner was eaten. When the hour for the afternoon's exercises arrived "the low-hung clouds" began "to drop their garnered fullness down," and kept dropping larger and larger drops and thicker and thicker drops, until every pool and puddle was full, and the streets an inch deep in a slippery mud. At 4 o'clock the dark rain cloud passed on and the ball game was called. After two hours hard work that part of the program came to a close, and the crowd distributed itself along Main street to see the foot and bicycle races, etc.

All went merry as a marriage bell, until it was too dark to see, when the crowd dispersed to their several abiding places except those who cared to tip the light fantastic toe, who repaired to the new opera house to spend an hour or more.

CIRCUS TOMORROW.

Norris & Rowe Coming to Town With a World of Trained Animals.

Tomorrow is circus day and the country lass and her beau will be in town early to enjoy with the city folks a gala day of pleasure and amusement. Norris and Rowe's big shows will be here.

Since the days of our childhood circus, when old Dan Rice was the brightest shining star in the constellation of arenic celebrities, it has been the usage of traveling shows to give a street parade and although Norris & Rowe have nothing of the old school "flavor" about their shows, but a thoroughly up-to-date aggregation, they still adhere to the old custom and give a grand parade each morning at 11 o'clock. The principal reason for continuing the old custom is that while they are giving thousands of their patrons a free treat they are by displaying their magnificent animals and equage advertising their splendid performances and showing the wonderful growth of their aggregation since its former visit.

The show is too well known to require a detailed description, suffice it to say they always bring a multitude of new acts and novel features which are equally enjoyable to old and young.
