Trib-Notice-Trib

Trib—Notice—Trib The people of Pendleton are re-spectfully asked to fully investigate Trib, the world's greatest cure for the liquor and tobacco habits, and to any-one in need of a cure we say truth-fully, Trib is an honest, positive cure. You do not use Trib in your coffee; you can't give it that way; but be sensible and take it for either of these habits the same as you would a remedy for any other disease. Here is a reference from a man well known in Pendleton. Read it. We have many more.

these habits the same as you would a remedy for any other disease. Here is a reference from a man well known in Pendleton. Read it. We have many more.
J. W. Daugherty writes on May 14, 1903: To whom it may concern:— I wish to say I completed a cure with the tobacco habit. I had a harder the toback to the tobacco habit. I had a harder the tobacco habit. I had a harder the toback to the tobacco habit. I had a harder the toback to the toback to the toback to the tobacco. I would recommend them to take Trib.

They won't cure it. Backache means sick kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney Ills. Pendleton people prove this.

Pendleton people prove this. Read a case of it: Mrs. J. Brynk, who lives on Star street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a grand medicine, as I know from ex-perience, and I have no hesitation in saying that any sufferer from back-ache or other kidney troubles who will give them a fair trial, will be more than well satisfied with the results. I suffered from three or four years with sharp pains in my back which became acute when I attempted to bend over, or to lift anything. Be-sides, I had rheumatism or lumbago with their ponies. He did not dare complain, for fear of worse treatment. They knew he COR of worse incament. They have a was not atraid of them himself, but they had learned of Mrs. Findlay's horror of them and they made a oractice of watching until Findlay's would leave home and then they would leave home and upset fur-niture, beds and provision boxes for pure cussedness. They would lead her to believe they were going to kill her and many a day she took her children and hid in the brush until her husband returned home. Finally Findlay's patience was worn out and on coming home one evening he found a Nez Perce lying in his own bed in the house and Mrs. Findlay and the children hidden in the brush in terror of the Indian in the brush. In terror of the Indian in the brush. was not afraid of them himself but truder. He was so onraged at this sight and the memory of former abuses, that he seized his rifle and shot the Nez Perce dead in the bed. This stopped the Indian depreda-tions on the Findlay ranch. For sev-eral weeks the man and family lived in constant dread of an attack, but for some reason it did not come. He improved his farm and other settlers joined him and today the Imnahn is the most famous peach and tomato region in Eastern Oregon.

Findiay's mind was finally unbal-anced with the terrible strain of his situation. He was a very religious man and never was the same after killing the Indian killing the Indian.
